GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Rally in Wheat by Armour After Steady Decline.

BULLS AWAIT BETTER CONDITIONS

Give Only Enough Support to Prevent Big Loss in Prices—Car Situation Becoming Serious—Corn Also is Easier.

OMAHA, October 4, 1905.

It looks as though Armour is resting, and waiting for more favorable conditions to boost wheat. The crowd was selling on fine weather, and large receipts, and Armour's support was absent most of the day. The market was down ¾c at one time. Toward the last there was some evidence of Armour's activity and prices rallied, regaining a large part of what was lost. The car situation is likely to keep the bulls before long, they say. Shippers are said to be now drawing against grain which does not arrive. Rankin advised his friends to buy May wheat, as carrying charges from December to May would make May on a basis of 8c for December. There was a good demand for cash wheat in Minneapolis, with prices relatively the same. December closed at 84⅛@84¼c, May at 85½c. Nothing was done in July.

May corn suffered from lack of Armour's support. December was ⅛c lower. There was no trading in July. December closed at 43⅝@43⅝c, old December at 44⅝c and May at 42⅝@43c.

Oats showed the general weaker tendency of the market. Trading was not large. December closed at 27⅝c, May at 29⅝@29¾c and July at 29c.

Liverpool closed unchanged on wheat and ¼d higher on corn. Liverpool reports the wheat crop of Italy estimated at 156,000,000 bushels, compared with 150,400,000 bushels last year. The corn situation there is satisfactory.

New York wired today, regarding export business: "Nothing doing in wheat; three loads of corn; oats bid ½c lower from continent and 1c out of line with United Kingdom."

Clearances were 198,000 bushels of corn, 118,000 bushels of oats, 83,000 bushels of wheat and 27,000 barrels of flour. Primary wheat receipts were 1,457,000 bushels and shipments 890,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,652,000 bushels and shipments of 531,000 bushels. Corn receipts were 558,000 bushels and shipments 548,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 463,000 bushels and shipments of 452,000 bushels.

The seaboard yesterday sold 24,000 bushels of wheat, 225,000 bushels of corn, 175,000 bushels of oats, and 40,000 bushels of barley. Continental Europe bought a full cargo of oats, 320,000 bushels, at Philadelphia for November loading. Seaboard exporters who have been buying Manitoba wheat because of its relative cheapness, find they cannot place it, and resales have been made in several instances at a loss.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT

Fair is Still Continued with No Important Changes.

OMAHA, Oct. 4, 1905.

The relatively low pressure that has prevailed over the extreme northwest and upper Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys during the last forty-eight hours has moved slowly eastward and now overhangs Lake Superior. Rising temperatures still accompany this low, and generally warmer weather prevails throughout the central valleys this morning. The pressure continues highest across the central and southern portions of the country, and cooler weather prevails in the Atlantic and gulf states.

The outlook is favorable for continued fair weather in this vicinity tonight and Thursday, with no important change in temperature.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Clear weather in the northwest had a bearish effect here today in the wheat market, but was nearly counterbalanced later by reported sales at Duluth for export to Germany. The December delivery here closed ¼c down. Corn and oats are off ⅛c. Provisions show a loss of 2½@5c.

Sentiment in the wheat pit at the start was rather pessimistic, although opening quotations showed a trifle advance. December was a shade to ⅛@¼c higher at 84⅛@84⅝c. Weather in the northwest was reported to be almost perfect for the movement of the new crop. As a result receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth were of liberal volume. Several prominent commission houses were free sellers. Pit traders also sold. In consequence December declined to 83⅝@83¾c. The declining tendency was checked by support from a leading bull who bought through brokers. Later a number of shorts joined in the buying movement and caused a partial recovery of the loss. Reports from Duluth that 250,000 bu. of wheat had been sold there for shipment to Germany was an unusual feature of the day's news. The rumor, though discredited, had a stimulating effect on the market here late in the session. The market closed easy, with December at 84⅛@84¼c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 182,000 bu. Primary receipts were 1,447,000 bu., compared with 1,652,000 a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 807 cars, against 699 last week and 1,108 a year ago.

Notwithstanding heavy selling by a leading commission house, the corn market held comparatively steady. Weather was extremely favorable for the new crop. Prices made a slight decline during the first hour, but throughout the remainder of the day fluctuations were confined to a very narrow range. Shorts were active buyers. The market closed steady. December opened unchanged to a shade higher at 43⅝@43¾c to 43¾c, sold off to 43¼c and closed at 43⅛@43⅜c. Local receipts were 190 cars, with 56 of contract grade.

The oats market was steady on an active demand from exporters. December opened unchanged at 27¾c, sold off to 27⅝@27¾c and closed at 27¾c. Local receipts were 314 cars.

Moderate demand from shorts held the provisions market steady. At the close January pork was off 2½@5c at $12.30, lard was down 2½c at $6.77½ and ribs were 2½c lower at $6.42½@6.45.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 84 cars; corn, 147 cars; oats, 310 cars; hogs, 25,000 head.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

CALL MONEY RISES TO NEW RATE

Rate Advances to Seven and One-Half Per Cent on Feeling Bank Statement Does Not Reveal True Condition of Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The market for stocks remained in professional hands today. Vigorous efforts were made during the early part of the day to extend the recovery which set in late yesterday, but the efforts proved unavailing and the course of prices turned downward. A recovery in the call money rate accompanied the decline and may have had a part in inducing the selling, but the pressure was not severe, and its movement suggested more the professionalism of the operations as the cause for its limitation. No special operations in the money market were known to account for the renewed flurry, which reached 7½ per cent, the highest rate for the year. The feeling has persisted throughout the week, however, that the real conditions in the money market were concealed by last Saturday's bank statement and that the easier conditions which were developing were partly fictitious. A suspicion on this subject was much aggravated by the knowledge of the remarks made at the annual meeting of the clearing house yesterday by the president of one of the large banks in the association. While no official record was made of those remarks, it was known that the sense of them was an emphatic denunciation of the weekly bank statement as an unreliable showing of the condition of the banks and a warning of the danger of the course of the trust companies in the extension of loans without sufficient cash reserves.

The remarks made by the president of the Imperial bank of Germany at the meeting yesterday gave additional force to the effect of undue extension of credits. The purpose of the advance in that bank's rate, as intimated by the president rather clearly, was for the purpose of checking inflation of credits for speculative excesses in the stock market. It is surmised that the extraordinary measures taken to effect the favorable showing in last week's bank statement have necessitated some readjustment with the passing of the syndicate requirements of last week and that the rise in call money rates today was the result of this readjustment. There is a disposition to attribute the unexplained increases in cash reserve last week to the credit of the Rockefeller checks in connection with the $10,000,000 gift to the educational fund. Some effect was produced by the report from abroad that the proposed Russian loan may reach $360,000,000. Foreign discounts continued to advance and foreign exchange rates here were firmly held.

The money market is faring better at the hands of the subtreasury this week than last owing to the payments of the October government interest. The period of drain on bank reserves, however, has not yet shown its limit. Today's early market offered an extraordinary variety of unexplained advances in industrial specialties. A good many were lost in the later reaction. The railroad stocks at no time showed any notable strength and the selling of the afternoon made considerable inroads on their prices. The market closed easy.

Bonds were easy; total sales, par value, $3,680,000. United States 2s coupon declined ⅛ on call.

Foreign Financial.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Money was wanted in the market today for the consols settlement and considerable sums which had to be repaid to the Bank of England. Discounts hardened. Prices on the Stock exchange were heavy, owing to fears of dearer money. Consols opened depressed and recovered a fraction, but lost it at the close. Home rails dropped. Americans were all exceptions to the prevailing conditions and opened steady at parity. The changes were mixed. Union Pacific was off. Prices later were mostly firmer. Trading was quiet and the market closed dull. Canadian Pacific hardened on the traffic increase. Grand Trunk declined. The traffic returns were regarded favorably but were used as a cover for selling. Foreigners were moderately steady and inactive. Japanese were in fair demand. Kaffirs were weak. Japanese imperial 6s of 1904 were quoted at 106¼.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Prices on the Bourse today were depressed by realizations, due seemingly to the money situation.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—Prices on the Bourse were firm today throughout. Leading financiers confirmed the announcement of an early issue of a new Russian loan. Imperial 4s were quoted at 94.75 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 89.
