Some Cozy Offices.

There is one office building in Omaha that is always warm in winter and cool in summer. There are not very many offices vacant at the present time in

The Bee Building

Among them, however, are some very choice small offices, which rent from $10 to $18. This price includes electric light, heat, water and janitor service and the advantage of being in an absolutely fire proof building. If you want a comfortable office, see us before they are all gone.

R. C. PETERS & CO., Rental Agents,

Ground Floor, Bee Building.

PASSING OF THE RED TAPE

Abolition of Needless Formality in Army Reports Effected by Recent Order.

General Orders No. 131 from the War department have just been issued which effect a practical abolishment of the system of red tape hitherto observed in army reports and records. It has been the old rule for all communications of every character to go through the office of the military secretary, a report to be made thereon and then submitted to the department to which the communication directly refers for an additional or duplicate report. Under the new rule the communication will be at once referred on its receipt to the special department for which it is designed and the report thereon be made only by that department.

Attention, A. O. U. W. Lodge No. 17:

All members are requested to attend the funeral of Horace G. Cassell, 138 North Eighteenth street, 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Provisions for the Army.

A carload of lard and chipped beef was shipped from South Omaha Tuesday to San Francisco, for later shipment to the Philippines for the use of the United States army there. The lard was from the Armour company and the chipped beef from the Cudahy Packing company. Two cars of canned roast beef will be shipped to the same destination Wednesday or Thursday from the Cudahy Packing company.

NO MORE DEPUTIES NEEDED

Demand for Special Officers Filled and United States Marshal is Deluged.

The announcement in The Bee Monday evening that a number of special deputy United States marshals had been appointed to expedite the serving of the injunction notices against the county officials of such counties where the property of the Burlington & Missouri railway was located to restrain these officials from issuing distress warrants against the railroad property in satisfaction of delinquent taxes for 1905, has caused much tribulation to the United States marshal. This trouble is in the nature of a flood of applications for the position of such deputy. There were but twenty-eight of these to be appointed, though forty-three processes were to be served. Chief Deputy Marshal Earl Mathews wishes The Bee to help him out with the statement that the full supply of deputies already has been secured and telephone tolls might as well be saved, as no further appointments are to be made. The telephone at the marshal's office has been closed to further appeals along this line.
