NORMAL STUDENTS SHUT OUT

Lanigan's Pitching Too Much for the Teachers in Embryo.

COLLEGIANS ALSO A LITTLE SHY ON HITS

Creighton Manages to Place the Few Bingles They Made So as to Accumulate Two Runs and the Game.

Creighton university defeated Peru normal yesterday by a score of 2 to 1. Hits were scarce, with Creighton in the lead in what little hitting there was. Tom Lanigan deserves much credit for the success of the team. He made a good record of allowing only four well distributed hits and wafting seven aspiring batters. Fishback and McShane carried off most of the battery honors, with two timely bingles apiece. McNally and Coad fielded their positions well, Carlson, the Normal pitcher, showed up best for the teachers. His twirling was of a high order and his batting good. Score:
