WHEN MR. ANTHONY discovered St. Anthony Falls and interested people in their development, about 47 years ago, Minneapolis had scarcely 500 inhabitants—now it has 300,000—and Minneapolis builded herself up on her lumber and her waterpower. In 1855 Seattle was populated only by an Adam and an Eve, and now has to show, in 42 years, a population of 200,000. What built up Seattle? Location and forest wealth. Kansas City in 1855, just 52 years ago, was populated by an old man and his dog. Look at her today—the proudest city in the land, with 230,000 people. Lots that sold for $25 and a necktie now sell for $350,000 apiece and are cheap at that. People who grew up with the towns are today their state's proudest citizens and the backbone of its wealth and brains. Are you not bright enough to want to be somebody in a few years, to stay in this country and to leave a name for honesty, thrift and foresight? The new town of INTERNATIONAL FALLS, MINNESOTA, with its miles of lakes, its 30,000 horse-power now being harnessed, its 3,000,000 cords of pulp wood, possesses wealth in greater abundance than either Minneapolis, Seattle or Kansas City and will be a larger city. Its location on the international boundary gives it an absolute cinch on every other town in the state. It is healthy, away up above the river, has perfect drainage and in July will be approached over two railways, the Northern Pacific and the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg. We now have 800 people. Good lots within two blocks of business center. Price, $300; $20 down, $46 August 1, balance one and two years. Prices will be raised August 1. Write for booklet and information at once to Edmond G. Walton, Townsite Manager, 114 S. 4th St., Minneapolis, Minn. (4)—M560 29
