CHAMPS CONTINUE TO LOSE

Pueblo Takes the Opener from Them by Timely Hitting and Walks.

HALL HAS BAD TIME IN FOURTH

After Striking Out Two He Allows a Hit and Gives Transportation to Three, Forcing in a Run—Game a Fast One.

PUEBLO, Colo., June 25.—Fitzgerald was a trifle more effective with men on bases than Hall, and Pueblo won the first from Omaha in about as evenly played game as has been seen here this season. Pueblo scored one in the first on a base on balls to Hagriever, a sacrifice and King's error in dropping Mattick's Texas leaguer. Omaha tied in the second inning on Belden's two bagger, and Hall's single.

Pueblo took the lead in the fourth, after Hall had struck out Patterson, and Mattick, Clark drew a two bagger, Spencer was hit, and when Corhan walked the bases were full. Hall forced in a run by walking Maddox.

Omaha tied in the eighth on Welch's three bagger, and Austin's single, but Pueblo won in the same inning, when Clark got a three sacker, and Spencer scored him with a clean one over second. Score:

SIOUX WINNERS OF A SWATFEST

Manager Holmes Escorted from Field by an Officer.

DES MOINES, June 25.—The Sioux won a slugging contest here this afternoon. The game was enlivened by the expulsion from the field of "Ducky" Holmes. He was so strenuous in hi sobjections to retiring that an officer had to be called. McKay, in a fit of anger, threw his bat into the grandstand through the wire. Dolan made two wonderful plays in the first two innings and immediately followed them with a rank error which allowed the first two scores. Des Moines earned all of its runs. Granville for Sioux City, cut off several hits by splendid fielding. In addition to this he performed the unusual feat of getting four hits and a base on balls in five times up. The three supposedly weak hitters of the Sioux got ten hits altogether. Bader and Dwyer did the best work for Des Moines. Score:

DENVER WINS A GREAT CONTEST

Base on Balls Start of Only Run of the Game.

DENVER, June 25.—A base on balls, given the first man up in the third inning, was the opening incident of the only run of the game. Both Johnson and Olmstead pitched great ball. Two of the five hits secured by Denver were on balls that bounded badly, getting just out of the reach of infielders. Another was almost reached by aGgnier, he getting so near it that many scored it an error for him. Johnson gave six bases on balls, while Olmstead gave not one. Denver got three men on bases in the eighth, the only time in the game, and could not get one over. Lincoln got one man on third and three others as far as second. Brennan had many close decisions on the bases, not being able to satisfy either team or the spectators. Score:

TWO NEW MEN FOR CHAMPS

HOUSEHOLDER REMAINS AT HOME

Captain Franck Needs a Rest and the Team Proposes to Take a Brace and Win That Pennant.

Pa Rourke for his Colorado series at Pueblo has two new men in the lineup, Graham at second and Fisher in left.

The idea of Graham playing at second at once brings joy to Omaha fans. It is not their own George Graham, but the next thing to it; it is his younger brother. Fisher is the outfielder Pa picked up at Oskaloosa and tried out in right field at Des Moines. He takes the place of Householder for the present at least. Householder has been left at home. He did not accompany the Champions on their western trip. If Fisher makes good the change will be permanent, but Householder will have to remain a Rourke until the situation assumes definite and satisfactory form. He regards the affair philosophically, neither manifesting his desire to leave Omaha, nor expressing approval or disapproval at being supplanted. So far as known, however, he has made no effort to disabuse the public mind of the well-founded impression that he wants to play on another team.

Graham is the younger brother of George and is said to be a veritable whirlwind of speed and dynamo of energy and action, the same as his popular brother. He has been playing with the "Selecites" in Denver, one of the Colorado State league teams owned by Frank Selee. When Omaha was in Colorado the last time Pa Rourke and Buck Franck tried to get the young man to put on a uniform and take a tryout with the Champs, but he was at Colorado Springs and declined to come down from the mountains. Those who know anything about him are satisfied he will make good and thus relieve the tension on the infield, which has kept Manager Franck in the game when he should have been resting.

It may be that for a while King will give up to Graham at second and Franck remain at short until the new man is thoroughly tried out. Then if things balance all right Captain Franck will go to the bench for a while, put King at short and Graham at second.

It is admitted the Champions have lost ground rapidly because of a lack of men. Householder should have been relieved in left long ago, owing to his peculiar indisposition and lack of zeal, and Mansger Franck should have been temporarily supplanted at short. If Fisher and Graham make good their addition to the team ought to be all that is necessary to bring it back to a winning basis. With two young, ambitious, enthusiastic men, anxious to do their best and make a record, backed by the older men who are doing their best, the team ought certainly to get back into a safe lead and keep it.

Omaha did not get the advantage of its long stay at home. It sorely disappointed Pa Rourke and the fans, dropping twice as many games as it should have. The thing is, however, Omaha has three opponents in the league on a level with itself in most departments of the game. Lincoln, Sioux City and Denver are contenders for the flag and they, as well even as Des Moines and Pueblo, play their level best in Omaha and against Omaha, which is but natural. The Rourkes have a hard fight, but they are going in to win it.

The team will be back home July 4 for two games with Des Moines.

The pitching staff ought to be in normal shape now that Hall is rounding to. Noah has gone to Sharon, Pa. The pitchers now are Ragan, Hall, Sanders, Hollenbeck, Jackson and Ritzman available when needed.
