GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Black Rust Reports from Northwest Rule Local Conditions.

RAIN NEEDED IN MIDDLE STATES

Cash Demand is Good and the Large Offerings Due to Heavy Receipts Are Quickly Absorbed.

OMAHA, Aug. 1, 1908.

Local conditions are being ruled by the reports from the extreme northwest regarding disastrous results of the black rust over that entire section. Reports on corn east of the Mississippi are coming quite bullish and rain is badly needed through Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

Cash demand was good and the large offerings due to heavy receipts were absorbed quickly.

Wheat started strong and worked higher on good buying induced by the damage reports from the northwest wheat country, where black rust has been reported doing enormous damage.

Values were bid up steadily and closed on the high point. September wheat opened at 85½c and closed at 89⅝c.

Corn opened steady, but was dull and featureless, with trading light and uninteresting, as usual on Saturday.

Cash corn was in good demand and sold higher regardless of quality.

September corn opened at 71⅝c and closed at 71⅝c.

Clearances were 5,000 bushels of corn, 1,000 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 636,000 bushels.

There was no Liverpool market today.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Sensational claims of crop damage in the southwest spurred wheat into almost a runaway market today. September closed 2⅛@2¼c over yesterday. September corn advanced ⅜c, September oats 1c, and provisions 2½@7½c and 20c higher.

Bulls captured the wheat market this morning with the assistance of hot weather in the northwest. Black rust was a contributing factor. The market opened steady. September but slightly changed. Wild advance at Minneapolis was taken as confirmation of damage reports and under excited covering by shorts September advanced to 92¼c and closed the short session only a shade below this. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 398 cars, against 291 cars last week. Primary receipts were 1,023,000 bushels against 961,000 a year ago. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 666,000 bushels.

dry weather over a large portion of the territory where previous suffering has been reported. Reports were again numerous of damage already done and with this taken into consideration in connection with the strength of wheat, the market received strong support and held it to the end. Local receipts were 145 cars, with 22 of contract grade.

The oats market was firm in sympathy with other cereals. Low threshing returns from portions of Illinois and Missouri were advertised, while favorable returns from other sections received little attention. September sold between 44@45¼@¾c and closed at 45@45⅛c. Local receipts were 135 cars.

Provisions again ruled firm, the influences being a higher holding market and no prospect of immediate improvement in the movement. September pork closed at $15.35, September lard at $9.55, September ribs at $9.07½.

Estimated receipts for Monday: Wheat, 374 cars; corn, 158 cars; oats, 173 cars; hogs, 32,000 head.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Reading Leads the Market to New High Level of Values.

UNFAVORABLE NEWS IS IGNORED

Near Close Market Sells Off on Profit Taking, but Final Prices Are Above Friday's Close—Bonds Are Steady.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Reading led the market to higher levels of prices in continuation of the sudden movement which developed in that stock today. The cause of the buying of the stocks was not disclosed in the news, but room traders claimed to be able to trace it to sources possessed of good information on the property, and they followed the movement with eagerness.

The showing of clearings for the year, to be disclosed by the forthcoming annual report, was said to be better than had been expected. There were rumors that a favorable decision of the suit to test the validity of the commodities clause of the Hepburn law were to be expected, which would relieve the coal companies of the necessity of disposing of their coal properties. These were suppositions, and were not possible of verification. Encouragement over the general improvement of business prospects was given as the reason for the movement also. Other coalers were not markedly affected in company.

The coppers were subjected to some profit taking sales following yesterday's sharp rise, but continued to advance. The realizing affecting the whole list decidedly at the last. The further consideration of the Wheeling & Lake Erie note settlement and its consequences, enhanced its importance in the speculative view. The bullish temper of the speculation ignored anything that seemed unfavorable in the situation. No account was taken of renewed increases in idle freight cars for the two weeks ending July 22, of 5,120 reported by the American Railway association, this being the first interruption to the reduction of idle equipment since April 19. It was reported that the trunk lines had decided to defer to December 1 any attempt to advance freight rates, the criticism of the proposal having proved discouraging. Suggestions of possible federal intervention to try to settle the wage controversy of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, were received with some misgivings. The material reduction in operating expenses in June, effected by the Pennsylvania system, created a good impression on security holders. An upturn in the price of wheat kept the attention focussed on the spring wheat damage reports. It was not until near the closing that the profit taking was allowed to affect prices. Reading's net gain of ⅛c, after having sold 1⅝c higher than last night, is a fair index of the day's market as a whole.

Bonds were steady; total sales, par value, $1,816,000; United States 2s have advanced ⅛ per cent on call during the week.

CATTLE—There were no cattle of any consequence here today and practically no market. For the week the receipts foot up about the same as for last week, but show a falling off as compared with a year ago. The receipts for the month show a decrease of 148,063 head as compared with the corresponding month of last year.

The present week started out with a very large run of cattle, the same as did the two weeks previous and with the same result, namely, that the market broke very badly, buyers taking advantage of the large offerings to force values downward. Later on, as receipts became lighter, the market, on desirable kinds of range steers gradually firmed upward, until the decline was all wiped out, leaving the market fully as good as it was at the close of the previous week, or possibly a little stronger on the best grades.

Cornfed steers were in light supply all the week and not a single choice or well-finished car was received. For that reason it is largely a matter of guess work as to just where strictly good cattle would sell, but, judging from the fact that prices at Chicago have slumped badly, it is only natural to assume that even the best cornfed cattle would have sold lower had there been any such on sale. A few scattering loads of fair to pretty decent kinds of killers, such as have been selling from $6.75 down, have been received from day to day. While they have not been sought after to any great extent, still they have sold fairly well on account of the small number offered. The tendency, however, has been lower and anything like liberal receipts would undoubtedly have witnessed a sharp break in view of the fact that Chicago papers quote cornfed steers below $6.50 as 35@60c lower than a week ago. The reason for the break in cattle of that description is to be found in the fact that range cattle of pretty good quality are becoming quite plentiful and packers seem to prefer them in place of the common to medium grades of cornfeds.

Cows and heifers have been in liberal supply all the week. On Monday the market broke 10@15c, but since that day values have firmed up until at the close of the week the market is back to about where it was at the close of last week.

The demand for fleshy feeders has been considerably better this week and desirable kinds are quoted 10@15c higher, with some sales looking even 25c higher. On the other hand, light and medium cattle have shown little change, selling now about where they did a week ago.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice corn-fed steers, $6.40@7.50; fair to good corn-fed steers, $5.40@6.40; common to fair corn-fed steers, $4.25@5.40; good to choice range steers, $4.75@6.40; fair to good range steers, $4.25@4.75; common to fair range steers, $3.50@4.25; good to choice fed cows and heifers, $4.00@4.75; fair to good cows and heifers, $3.00@3.75; common to fair cows and heifers, $2.00@3.00; good to choice stockers and feeders, $4.25@4.80; fair to good stockers and feeders, $3.50@4.25; common to fair stockers and feeders, $3.00@3.50; stock heifers, $2.50@3.10.

HOGS—A few of the best hogs sold early this morning at prices that were right around 5c higher than yesterday, but outside of the more urgent orders packers did not appear to be very anxious for supplies and were inclined to hold back a little. After their first round the general run of fair to medium hogs were no better sellers than yesterday, if as good. The late market was slow and generally unsatisfactory.

The receipts this week have shown a large falling off as compared with the previous week. Other market points have also had meager supplies or at least smaller than had been anticipated. Light supplies, together with a good buying demand, has given the market an upward movement at all points. Locally the trade has been in a good, healthy condition on most days and at the close of the week the market is about 20c higher than at the close of last week.

SHEEP—There were only two cars of sheep reported in today and they were direct to a packer, having been sold in the country before arrival. The receipts this week show a considerable falling off as compared with last week's very heavy run, but at the same time they show a large gain compared with a year ago. The arrivals have consisted very largely of range sheep and lambs, although there has been a little sprinkling of corn-feds from day to day.

The market this week has been in a good, healthy condition from start to finish. At the beginning of the week there was a little advance and since then the market has been steady or firm every day, so that at the close of the week prices are around 10@15c higher than last week. A very encouraging feature of the week's trade has been the free buying demand on the part of both packers and shippers, so that the supply, although larger than a year ago, has been none too large to meet the requirements of the trade. Quite a good many buying orders for feeders are being received, but as a matter of course there is always a limit to the demand this early in the season.

The outlook for the future of the market is generally regarded as encouraging by sheep men. Nearly everyone is anticipating a good demand at prices about where the stuff is now selling, but no one seems to be looking for any very marked advance. In fact the feeling is that any very marked advance over present figures would be very likely to reduce the demand, especially for feeders.

Quotations on range or grass sheep and lambs: Good to choice lambs, $6.25@6.50; fair to good lambs, $6.00@6.25; feeding lambs, $4.50@5.10; good to choice yearlings, $4.75@5.00; good to choice heavy yearlings, $4.50@4.75; fair to good yearlings, $4.40@4.65; feeding yearlings, $3.75@4.10; good to choice wethers, $4.15@4.35; fair to good wethers, $3.85@4.15; feeding wethers, $3.50@3.75; good to choice ewes, $3.85@4.15; fair to good ewes, $3.50@3.75; feeding ewes, $2.50@3.00; culls and bucks, $2.00@3.00.
