NEW COMET IS DISCOVERED

Another Sky Wanderer is Found by Prof. Morehouse of Drake University.

LAKE GENEVA, Wis., Sept. 3.—Director Edwin B. Frost of the Yerkes observatory tonight announced the discovery of a new comet through photographic observations made by Prof. D. W. Morehouse of Drake university of Des Moines. The presence of the comet was revealed today upon development of three photographic plates exposed in three cameras last night. It is clearly defined and has a tail several degrees long, and was found in the constellation Camelopardus, remaining above the horizon throughout the night. Its position was three hours and twenty minutes of right ascension and 67 degrees north declination. The visual brightness, Prof. Morehouse said, could not be stated until after further observations had been made, but will probably be visible through an opera glass. The new comet, he said, had no connection with Halley's comet. Prof. Morehouse has been engaged during the summer in graduate work at Yerkes observatory in astronomical photography under direction of Prof. Barnard.

PUEBLO TAKES FIRST GAME

Fitz Strong and Well Supported in the Tight Places.

SANDERS GETS RAGGED SUPPORT

Hogriever is Batting Hero, Making Three Hits—Omaha Rallies in the Ninth, but All in Vain.

Pueblo, 5; Omaha, 4.

Omaha lost yesterday's game to Pueblo chiefly because it didn't play the right sort of ball at the right time. Six errors, some of them costly, are charged against the Champs. The Champs didn't hit Fitzgerald a time or two when hits meant runs. That was bad. Sanders passed the first man up in the fifth inning and three others hit him safely, one for a two-bagger, and Harry Welch stepped on his foot and bit his chin in an altercation with the ball in center field. All these little things had a deleterious effect.

Three members of the Champs did not make an error. They were Messrs. King, Beiden and Sanders.

This man Fitzgerald had a big hand in the offense. And that isn't all, he did the same thing to Pa's Champs the last time he faced them on the home lot. The fact is Fitz is some pitcher, although he did walk five men, against Sanders' two, and fanned only three, against Sanders' six. The bad part was that both men Sanders walked got over the plate.

Pueblo ran a little wild at that. It was minus its long manager, Patterson, who is nursing a spiked leg in a Denver hotel. Hogriever covered second and Mitze third. Smith, who with Patterson, is sold to the St. Louis Browns (in a pig's eye), had a lump over one eye as big as a turtle, but he staid behind the bat anyway.

How It Happened.

Omaha winked out gently in its first round, but in the second not so gently. It came near scoring. Austin opened with a hit and, much to the amazement of those gents from the west, went to third on Beiden's neat little sacrifice bunt. Franck poked a harmless little affair down to Hoggy between first and second and it looked like Jimmy might have scored, but he was beaten by Hoggy's throw easily.

Pueblo started the thing off with a score. Sanders passed Spencer after disposing of Hoggy. Spencer stole second and went to third on Gonding's throw and home on Matticks' single after two were out.

Omaha got busy a little in the third. After Sanders went out Fisher hit safe to left. Fitz got a little groggy and passed King and Autrey, filling the bases. Autrey, by the way, was passed three times. Welch scored Fisher on a fly out to Spencer and Austin sent King over the plate on a little grounder to Hoggy, which Hoggy fumbled. Chick was thrown out trying to score on the play also. The Champs were able to get men on bases in every inning following, but could not score until the ninth, when they assumed an air of real peril to Pueblo. Sanders had gone out from Hoggy to Clark when Red Fisher sent a fly to left, which Spencer let get away from him. Red took second on the muff. King then laced the ball out through Mr. Hogriever so furiously that that venerable gent didn't know whether he had been shot or just stabbed. Fisher crossed the plate in a trot and King sped on to third. Autrey failed at hitting safely, but put one down to short on which King scored. Welch walked, but was forced at second by Austin, Hoggy to Corhan.

King and Fisher scored two runs each and King helped Red over the plate once. Franck made a double and a single, but was unable to cash either in.

Pueblo Cinches It.

Pueblo cinched the game in the fifth with those three runs. Fitz was walked, Hoggy hit safely, being the batting hero of the day with three corking singles; Spencer fanned and Smith drove the ball to center, scoring Fitz. Welch should have got the ball and held Smith at first, but he played William Trimbletoe with it awhile, finally throwing it somewhere and Hoggy scored. Matticks sent Smith across the plate with a hit. Sanders held the Indians at his mercy after that, which was too late.

The same teams play today. Game called at 3:45. Attendance, 700.

TAILENDERS WIN AT LINCOLN

Witherup's Pitching Too Much for Greenbackers to Solve.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 3.—Witherup's pitching mystified the Greenbackers today, and the tailenders grabbed a closely contested game by a 3 to 2 score. Lincoln had a splendid chance to pull the game from the fire in the ninth, when, with one run in, the bases full and only one out, Weigart hit into a double play, and the expected rally failed to materialize. One-handed stops by Pritchett and Fitzpatrick were the fielding features. A great crowd of state fair visitors saw the game. Score:

CARDINALS EASY FOR CUBS

Overall Blanks St. Louis in First Game, Allowing But Three Hits.

PFEISTER PITCHES SECOND GAME

Two Passes in Sixth Inning Allow Only Runs Made by Visitors—Scores of Other National League Games.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Both games were easy for the locals today. Overall blanked the visitors in the first, allowing but three scattered singles. Pfeister would have duplicated the act in the second game had he not been a trifle wild in the sixth inning, two passes, a low throw by Steinfeldt and a single saving the whitewash. The locals hit all four of the visiting pitchers freely and generally for extra bases. Score, first game:
