GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Bulls Were Quiet and Offerings Are Very Scarce.

TRADING ON FLOOR IS SLOW

Receipts of Corn Are Fairly Liberal, Oats and Wheat Moderate and the Demand is Poor on All.

OMAHA, Jan. 12, 1909.

The bulls were very quiet this morning on yesterday's close and there were very few offerings. Trading on the floor was slow and everything indicates a lower market. Receipts of corn were fairly liberal, oats and wheat moderate. The demand was very poor on all grains.

Liverpool close on wheat at ½@⅝d lower, corn ¼@¾d lower.

Primary markets showed: Receipts, wheat, 324,000 bushels; corn, 607,000 bushels. Shipments: Wheat, 199,000 bushels; corn, 520,000 bushels.

Clearances: Wheat, 252,000 bushels; flour, 30,000 barrels; corn, 246,000 bushels.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—A bear raid on the wheat market late in the session today resulted in a further sharp decline following the severe slump of yesterday. At the close prices were ½@1¾c below the final quotations of the previous session. Corn closed steady, oats easy, and provisions strong.

Lack of support was said to have been the reason for the extreme weakness manifested in the wheat pit during the final half hour. The bull leaders, who have formally given the market good support on any material decline in prices, held aloof today, leaving the bears in full control. Selling late in the day was quite general, but individual transactions were not of great magnitude. Some excuse for selling was found in an official report which showed that the exports of wheat and flour from the United States in December were less than one half of those of the corresponding time a year ago. Lower cables and a heavy fall of snow over a large section of the winter wheat belt were factors that inspired selling earlier in the day. A brisk demand for cash wheat and a decrease of 3,112,000 bushels in the world's visible supply partially offset these bearish influences. The greatest selling pressure was on the May delivery and that option declined nearly 3 cents from the high point of the day, the low point being reached at 1.04⅝. The market closed weak at almost the bottom, with May at 1.04⅝ and July at 96¼@96⅝c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 342,000 bushels.

The corn market held steady, prices fluctuating within a ⅝c range. The market closed steady, with prices unchanged to a shade lower, compared with yesterday's close. Final quotations on May were 61⅝@61½c, and on July 61⅝c.

Trade in oats was quiet and the market steady. Demand for cash grain was reported to be very dull, and prices were ½c lower. The market closed easy, with prices ¼@¾c lower, with May at 51½c and July at 46⅝c.

Provisions were firm. A falling off of 6,000 head of hogs, as shown by the official report of receipts here yesterday as compared with the previous estimate, caused considerable covering by shorts. The close was strong, with prices up 7½@10c to 20c.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT

Fair and Rising Temperature for Wednesday is the Forecast.

OMAHA, Jan. 12, 1909.

The cold wave has extended south over the west gulf states and east over the lower lakes and upper Ohio valley to the Atlantic coast. It is decidedly colder in the lower Missouri and lower Mississippi valleys, and zero weather reaches south over Oklahoma. Temperatures have moderated slightly in the extreme upper valleys and northwest during the last twenty-four hours, but they continue low in those sections, and range from 10 to 20 below in the upper valleys. The weather has cleared in the upper Mississippi and throughout the Missouri valleys and over the mountain district, and conditions are favorable for fair in this vicinity tonight and Wednesday, with rising temperature. Generally cloudy weather prevails throughout the east and south. Light snows are falling in the lower lake region and east to the coast and light rains were general throughout the southern states since the preceding report.

Record of temperature and precipitation compared with the corresponding day of the last three years:

	1909	1908	1907	1906
Minimum temperature	—3	19	27	27
Precipitation	.00	T	.00	.04

Normal temperature for today, 20 degrees.

Deficiency in precipitation since March 1, 5.74 inches.

Deficiency corresponding period in 1908, 7.63 inches.

Deficiency corresponding period in 1907, 3.96 inches.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Selling Pressure is in Evidence, but in Spotty and Slow Way.

HARRIMAN APPEARS AT OFFICE

Rumors of Illness No Longer Bear Factor—Buying is Not Aggressive and Prices Relapse Sharply.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Selling pressure continued in evidence in stock transactions today, but was in a pretty spotty and slow way. E. H. Harriman appeared at his office for the first time since before the Christmas holidays and thereby put an end to the occupation of bearish operators who had been disseminating rumors of his serious illness in efforts to depress prices. The agreement of the Turkish government to accept the offer made by Austro-Hungary for an indemnity for the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina was accepted as a definite removal of one deep-seated cause of unsettlement in foreign stock markets.

With these changes, which had been aggravating the weakness in stocks, the bear element took on a share of caution and increased reserve in the way in which they pushed operations. The belief that the bear party was becoming unduly numerous and cumbersome in the course of active selling campaign, and putting itself in a vulnerable position for a turn on them by the bulls, added to this disposition of reserve. The result was seen in the decrease in the activity of the market and the disposition to take stocks at concessions to cover shorts. The buying at concessions was obvious, although opinion varied as to the proportion due to short covering and to renewal of accumulation in the long interest. Whatever the source of the buying, it was not aggressive and did not pursue an advance in prices, as seen in the dwindling activity of the market on rallies and the sudden relapse in prices at last. Recent predictions were fulfilled in the increase in the Chicago & Alton dividend, and Toledo, St. Louis & Western, as holder of control of Alton, advanced in sympathy. Other minor stocks continued to rise, with repetitions of rumors of favorable developments. The Wisconsin Central stocks especially were affected by reports of alleged negotiations for absorption by the Canadian Pacific.

The statement of the agricultural experts for December made a good showing. The total value of the month's exports rises to the highest figure touched since the preceding January, which marked the culmination of the panic rush to market our products and realize gold to relieve the financial stringency. Large additions to the engagement of gold for export were accepted with undisturbed equanimity in view of the unruffled ease of the money market and the continued influx of funds to the banks. A decline in the private discount rate in Paris gave some evidence of an effort from the large gold accumulation in the Bank of France, which is expected to terminate with the issuance of the Russian loan on January 23. Discounts continued to advance in London, however, and the speculation is unchanged that the official discount rate of the Bank of England will be advanced on Thursday. A good deal of comment is heard in the financial district on the amount of attention given to the inaugural addresses of state executives to the subject of regulation of corporations. The remarks of the president-elect to the Aurusta Bar association pointing out the coming necessity for limitations upon the use of private property when represented in combination with capital, attracted a good deal of attention.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value, $5,022,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
