Omaha Drowns Prohibs and Advances Toward First

PROHIBS DROWN IN THE RAIN

Lincoln is Paralyzed on Its Own Brand of Drink.

ROURKES ROMP OFF WITH GAME

Drive One of Green's Nice Young Pitchers to the Bench, Where He is Protected from Wet, and Wallop Another.

Omaha, 11; Lincoln, 3.

Those Prohibitionists from the state capital don't know when they have got a good thing. Omaha gave them their own brand of drink yesterday and then beat 'em hands down. Between the showers the Rourkes batted two Prohib pitchers all over Pa's nice, sloppy ground up to the sixth inning, when Umpire Mullin called the game because of darkness.

Play was stopped by a heavy shower in the fifth inning and the ground was thoroughly soaked, but the umpire insisted that play continue, with the result that Omaha made another run in the fifth and one more run in the sixth, as well as fattening the batting averages by five more hits.

Green thought he would give Farthing, his new southpaw from Wesleyan university, another try, but he was too wild. Farthing balls from Lander, Wyo., the same town that produced Scott, who went to Comiskey from Wichita this year. He was yanked out of the game in the third inning after Sullivan had a passed ball and after three runs had been made. Nagle was substituted, but the slaughter went on and three more runs were marked on the score board before the side was retired.

Hollenbeck and Cadman were in the points for Omaha. Hollenbeck was hit for but five singles and most of these were hard infield drives which might have been killed on a dry field. In the third inning Gagnier hit a hard one right at Captain Franck, which took a bad bound and jumped over his shoulder, and the second was a drive by Harris right at Hollenbeck, which nearly put one of his fingers out of commission.

Lincoln Started to Lead.

Lincoln started off in the lead by making two runs in the opening round. Waldron walked, but died at second on Davidson's attempt to sacrifice. Jude grounded out to King and then the trouble began. Jack Thomas drew a pass and Gagnier hit a hard drive at Kane, near first base. Kane knocked the ball down and then fell. He tried to throw to Holly at first, but the ball went high and Davidson scored. Thomas came home on a successful double steal which he and Gagnier worked.

Fisher made a run for Omaha in the first on a base on balls, another base on balls to King, a steal and Pritchett's juggle of Welch's drive.

Hollenbeck got out of a tight hole in the second by the aid of a fast double play. Sullivan had opened with a single and died at second when Pritchett tried to sacrifice. Farthing hit a Texas leaguer and Pendry dropped Waldron's long fly, filling the bags, with one out. Davidson, one of the hardest hitters in the league, was at bat. Holly pitched him an inshoot, which the big fellow nailed and drove at Holly, who speared the ball, subdued Pritchett at the plate and then nailed Davidson at first by a neat throw from Cadman.

Then Comes Six Runs.

Then came the big second. Captain Franck walked as a starter and Cadman beat out a bunt. Cadman incidentally made three hits during the six innings played. Holly struck out and Fisher walked. King drew a pass, which forced in a run. Schipke singled and drove in two more runs and Welch hit a long fly to left, which Jude misjudged and did not come within a mile of getting under. Sullivan let a hot one get by him and Farthing was retired and Nagle substituted. The slaughter did not stop, for Pendry hit a hot one at Pritchett which was juggled and Kane singled. Franck also singled, but Cadman grounded out.

For the rest of the game the Rourkes kept hitting the ball while Lincoln could not find it for safe ones.

The same teams play this afternoon.

Notes of the Game.

Fifteen hits in six innings will help to fatten the Omaha batting averages.

Green probably will trot out Schoolmaster Jones today to stop the mad career of the Rourkes.

Waldron made a couple of pretty throws from his garden which held the runners on the sacks.

If Lincoln will stay in town long enough the Rourkes would soon be at the top of the list again.

During the rain Sanders tried to do the coaching act with an umbrella, but Mullen made him run.

King, the second best hitter in the league was the only Omaha batter who did not get a hit during the six innings.

Sanders made a big hit by running out to the third base coaching line in the fifth inning with an umbrella. The ump chased him back.

Welch made a feature catch with his meat hand in the last inning and then made another pretty running catch in the same inning.

PIRATES DEFEAT QUAKERS

Pittsburg Wins Fast Game from Philadelphia in Eighth.

HITS ARE BUNCHED ON MOREN

He Was Invincible Early in Game, but in Eighth He Allows Three Hits and Gives a Pass.

PITTSBURG, June 7.—By a grand rally in the eighth inning, Pittsburg defeated Philadelphia today by a score of 4 to 3. The visitors made three runs in the fifth inning, chiefly on scratch hits. Until the eight inning Moren was invincible, but in that inning he weakened and after allowing a triple, a double and a bese on balls enough to give three runs, he was replaced by Brown. Wagner, the next man up, doubled, scoring Clarke. Leifield pitched a good game, but was taken out to allow Hyatt to bat for him. Score:

St. Paul Shuts Out Toledo.

TOLEDO, O., June 7.—Gehring not only pitched a shut out game, but he started St. Paul's scoring by his home run in the third, and his two-base hit figured in Cockman's scoring in the seventh. "Deacon" Wright lost his second game with Toledo, much as he did
