Save One-Half On a Typewriter

Our grade of slightly used and rebuilt typewriters means a great difference TO YOU.
Practically all of the machines we offer come upon the market through customers exchanging their practically new machines for an L. C. Smith & Bros. writing-in-sight typewriter, the machine that took advanced ground six years ago and has revolutionized typewriter construction.
Every machine we offer has been thoroughly inspected and adjusted by a corps of expert mechanics and are to every practical purpose equal to a new machine.
We list a few machines—call or write for complete list.

First Prize Story

MR. WHITNEY'S WHEAT

By Esther E. Park, Bancroft, Neb. Father is F. H. Park. Last teacher was Mrs. C. H. Ward. Aged 11 years. Passed into sixth grade.

HARVEST HANDS WANTED AT ONCE FOR SOUTH DAKOTA—Experience unnecessary, free fare, long job, $3 and $3.50 per day and board. Call at once.

"Well, wife, I guess all that wheat will be wasted, for here I've ridden all over the country for four days and I can't find any men to harvest it," said Mr. Whitney to his wife. "And there are Jones and Thompson and Smith and Harvey who can't get men either."

Mr. Whitney was a wealthy farmer, who owned and lived on a large farm six miles from Yankton, S. D.

The above statement from her husband started Mrs. Whitney to thinking.

"Well," she said at last, "why don't you telephone to your brother Richard in Omaha and ask him to put an ad in The Omaha Bee? I think you could get harvesters that way."

"My sakes alive!" exclaimed her husband. "Do you suppose there are harvesters in a city? I wouldn't put such a silly ad as that in a city paper."

"You do as I say and see if you don't get as many as you want," said Mrs. Whitney. "It don't cost much either."

"I've tried everything else, so I might as well try this. But I know my wheat will rot before I get harvesters this way," said Mr. Whitney, feeling completely discouraged.

Nevertheless, he called up his brother, who is the proprietor of an Omaha hotel, and told him his trouble and asked him to put an ad in The Omaha Bee. The next morning the above ad appeared. This was Wednesday, and Friday evening the Whitney telephone bell rang.

"Hello," said Mr. Whitney. "Hello" came from the other end. "Is this Will?" "Yes," said the farmer. "This is Richard. I have a whole army of men coming to see you Monday." "All right," said Will. "Send all you can find, for I've work for a score of men for three weeks." "Well, goodbye, Will. I hope you'll get your wheat harvested. "Goodbye."

Turning from the telephone, Mr. Whitney said, "Richard says there's an army of men coming up here Monday from the wheat fields of Kansas."

"I told you so," said his wife.

In two weeks from the next night the wheat was all stacked.

That night Mr. Whitney said, "I see $5,000 in those stacks of wheat, and I think that leather davenport that you have wanted so long is in sight, and daughter shall have her Steinway piano."

"The Omaha Bee is all right yet, even for farmers. Isn't it, husband?" said Mrs. Whitney playfully.

"Yes, The Omaha Bee for me," was Mr. Whitney's admission.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Prices of Stocks Reach Highest Level of the Week.

ARE AS HIGH NOW AS IN 1906

Government Crop Report, Due Monday, is Expected to Be Extremely Favorable—General Review of Day in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Prices of stocks rose to the high level of the week today, which measured also the maximum average of prices reached at any time since the boom period of 1906. Uncovered shorts were among the buyers, that party having abandoned the supposition that the enactment of the tariff bill was to be the signal for heavy realizing on the part of the influential capitalists who are credited with the control of the present stock market.

That control was asserted easily today by the rapid advance in prices of a number of the greatest favorites among the speculative stocks. The buoyant flight to new record prices of such stocks as United States Steel, Union Pacific, Reading and Atchison, not to mention others which are less well regarded, exercised a dominating influence on sentiment towards the whole market.

The crops prospects were most discussed in the day's market, and the price movement was regarded as a discounting of the government crop report on Monday, which is expected to make a highly favorable showing for all the great cereal crops. Some effect of relief was produced by the announcement of the secretary of the treasury that none of the new Panama bonds would be issued until congress has acted on the differential tax on circulation issued under these bonds to equalize the privilege with outstanding 2 per cents.

The management of the stock market campaign were impressed with the importance of a strong close for the week in the market as an attraction to speculative ventures with the opening of the new week, and to afford an advantage on this basis for realising sales to meet the expected new demand. No anxiety was manifested over the rising course of interest rates, which has affected mercantile paper with an advance to 4 to 4½ per cent for prime grades.

The ease of call money is attributed partly to funds held in hand by the banks for higher time loans rates. Stock commission houses which have been active borrowers of time money recently also place these funds in the call loan market pending the need for their own use. The $7,850,000 decrease in cash showing the bank statement of actual condition will serve to reinforce consideration of the money, although the statement did not appear until after the stock market closed today.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $2,730,000. United States is registered declined 1 per cent on call during the week.

Number of sales and leading quotations on stocks today were as follows:
