SWAPS

THE CALL OF THE LAND.
For the man owning a house in Omaha and who wishes to buy an irrigated farm we have a very attractive proposition.
Tuesday, Dec. 7, we run our first "PAYNE SPECIAL," excursion to LISCO, NEBRASKA, in the North Platte Valley. This tract of 4,000 acres contains some of the finest irrigable land in the state and is offered in parcels of 20 to 500 acres, at from $30 to $60 per acre, with a paid up perpetual water right.
Terms are one-fifth cash, balance in ten yearly installments.
The North Platte Valley is the home of sugar beets, potatoes and alfalfa, and the lands near Lisco are peculiarly adapted for raising these crops. An investment in a Lisco farm now is a guarantee of sure profits, as the price of every acre will double in the next few years.
If you must sell your home in town before you can buy land at Lisco, ask us for our special proposition. We can arrange to credit the cash value of your place on one of these farms.
Remember, we leave Omaha Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in our special car. Act promptly and be one of our party.

Dolliver Talks to Press Club

Iowa Senator Says Alleged "Insurgents" Are Real Representatives of Public Interests.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Senator J. P. Dolliver of Iowa, leading member of the "insurgents," fired a shot into the enemy in a speech delivered at the Press club today.

Mr. Dolliver declared the most hopeful sign about the last congress was not what it did, but the fact that it did not act unanimously. He believed President Taft's attitude toward the "insurgents" at the coming session will be friendly.

"The time when a 'skin game' can be worked on the people with the unanimous consent of congress will never come again," said Mr. Dolliver.

"When I am asked why I do not vote with the majority I say, 'not until I have made a chemical analysis of it.'

"The real insurgents at the extraordinary session of congress were not the few men who tried to represent the public interest faithfully and carry out the pledges of the party platform, but the interesting group of private interests before whose threats to defeat legislation, the leaders of the party bowed down for the sake of harmony.

"It will be a queer state of the public mind when representatives of the people are successfully read out of a party in order to secure a solidarity organized around merely private interests."

Including those announced today 12,286,690 acres of land in Wyoming have been designated as subject to disposition under the homestead law.

A RICH HARVEST
CAN ONLY BE REALIZED FROM THOROUGH CULTIVATION

TO MANUFACTURERS:

IF you wished to get the biggest harvest from a given tract of land you would not blow seed to the winds thinly scattered over the country. You would plant it regularly and systematically in a section no larger than you could have properly watched and cultivated. You would then get the richest crop possible, and if you were wise you would not overwork your land and thus shorten its productive life, but you would produce this year what would help the income from your land next year, and the year after, and so on.

It is just so in advertising. The use of so-called "national mediums," of general circulation, is scattering your seed too thinly over too great a territory. You may get valuable general publicity in this way but you cannot expect it to do any thorough cultivating. This is no disparagement of general mediums, for space in them is well worth what it costs, but you must not expect them to yield anything like maximum results for a given territory.

You can only obtain maximum results and profit from any given locality by the means of Daily Newspaper Publicity. The newspaper will cultivate the local field as no other medium can possibly do it. It goes to the home. It takes the news of the day to the home fireside. It is the messenger between the outer world and the reader you seek to reach. It sells things.

By selecting any section of country which best appeals to you for the purpose, you can in a short time and at practically no cost, demonstrate the value of this great cultivating agency—the daily newspaper—to your entire satisfaction. If you have been a user of space in general mediums, then you are all the more able to get the best value from local cultivation. Take almost any one of the general mediums for an example. It may have 200,000 or even 500,000 circulation, but you will not find a great number in any one city or town. You can only get the maximum publicity by the use of the local daily newspaper. Take for example a certain city in Michigan of 100,000 population. A canvass of 21,132 homes showed that 19,781 of them took some daily newspaper. Can there be any other way to thoroughly cultivate the home field which can approach the messenger of the day — the newspaper? It stands supreme in power to cultivate trade locally and if you do not recognize the fact you are not awake to your own best interests.

CHICAGO BOY BEATS JENSEN

Mory Bloom Takes Bout at South Omaha in Ten Rounds.

FASTEST WORK IN LOCAL RING

Tommy Bresnahan Defeats George Dixon—South Omaha Lad Outclassed—Spectators Pleased Over Decision.

Sport lovers of both cities were treated to one of the finest ring exhibitions ever seen in a local ring Friday night, when Tommy Bresnahan defeated George Dixon of Omaha and Mory Bloom of Chicago laid it over Kid Jensen of Omaha in ten rounds.

Bloom won a clean decision by superior boxing. Jensen had pluck enough and kept coming back for more against Bloom's swift left jabs and hard right swing.

The fight was one-sided between Bresnahan and Dixon, the young colored aspirant of Omaha. Dixon lasted only four rounds against the terrific rushing of the South Omaha favorite. As the gong sounded at the end of the fourth round his seconds threw up the sponge. Dixon had taken the count in every round but the first, and in that he had suffered blows which staggered him. This event was scheduled as on a par with the final event, but did not compare with the brilliant ten rounds between Bloom and Jensen.

In the first round Bloom and Jensen sparred with no advantage, but Bloom started blood in the second and it was his battle until the end of the sixth. In the fifth he had Jensen staggering with his right swings to the jaw. In the seventh Jensen became stronger and fought on to the close, taking many blows and landing a few hard short punches. Bloom took the clinches easily and wasted no strength, driving in the long left and generally finding a mark, while he ducked away from hard hooks and uppercuts with apparent ease. It was his clever defense and the shower of well-timed blows that won for him. His punch did not seem so powerful as Jensen's, but it jogged the other's memory several times.

Bloom is a Jewish boy of very clean and wiry limbs, quick as a flash on his feet. He fought a winning match with Jensen a month ago on the same tactics. This time it was apparent he had many more friends at the ringside.

Lester Murphy was referee and his decision was hailed with shouts of "Good, Good," and much applause.

Another exhibition is scheduled at the same hall next Friday evening. Two Chicago men will fight Bresnahan and Malone. There will be no advertising necessary.

In the preliminary events Murphy and Terry fought four rounds in favor of Murphy. A battle royal was pulled off which was soon over, as three men were knocked out in the first minute and the fourth at the end of three rounds.

POPE'S BROTHER AT VATICAN

Village Postman in Lombardy is Guest of Distinguished Relative.

ROME, Dec. 4.—Angelo Sarto, a brother of Pope Pius, arrived in Rome today and will spend the Christmas holidays at the Vatican. He is a well preserved old man over 71 years of age.

Notwithstanding that his brother became pope, Angelo remained in his position as postman in the village of Grazio, in the province of Mantua, Lombardy, where he has been employed for nearly forty years. Before becoming a postman he was an Austrian gendarme in Venetia. He says only his love for his brother induces him to endure the atmosphere of Rome during his vacation and that he feels he can live only in his own village.

COLT APPEARS FOR TRIAL

Kansas City Broker Accused of Misuse of Mails Returns from France.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 4.—Olcott C. Colt of New York, a son of the inventor, will be tried at the next term of the United States district court in this city on a charge of using the mails to defraud. He was indicted in May, 1908, but had been in Paris until recently. He appeared today before Judge Philips, who fixed his bond at $1,500, which amount was provided by George G. Gauss, Colt's father-in-law, proprietor of a printing shop.

The indictment charges that in 1907 Olcott Colt was operating a brokerage and loan business, with offices in Kansas City and New York. It is alleged that after he received his fee for obtaining loans, he or his "experts" invariably procured no loan.

Nebraska Professor's Paper Raises Live Issue

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4.—A mild sensation was sprung here today when announcement was made that Walter George Smith, a prominent attorney, had resigned as a member of the board of trustees of the University of Pennsylvania because of a difference of opinion between himself and other members of the board over the appointment of Dr. L. P. Lichtenberger, a professor who held certain views on divorce. Mr. Smith was prominent in the recent movement to make the laws governing divorce uniform throughout the United States. He was selected by Archbishop Ryan to speak for Philadelphia Catholics at the Catholic congress at the World's fair in Chicago.

The views referred to were upon a paper by Prof. George E. Howard of the University of Nebraska, entitled, "Is Freer Divorce an Evil?"

Mr. Smith declared he was of the opinion that the views held by Dr. Lichtenberger were not such as could be properly held by a professor in the university, in the department especially dealing with sociological questions.

In the publication of the American Sociological society, which Mr. Smith in his statement refers to, Dr. Lichtenberger is quoted as saying:

"We might as well seek to stop suicide by prohibitive legislation as divorce. The sane method, as Prof. Howard has indicated, is constructive treatment of the causes rather than destructive treatment of the results.

"Marriage, in the aspect we are discussing, is the legal sanction of the custom of family. It is dependent upon law neither for its institution nor for its perpetuation. We need to get rid of the fear that the family will disintegrate unless held together by law. The family always will arise and disintegrate as the necessities of life require, with scant regard for our laws on the subject.

"If these generalizations are approximately correct, then it is clear that the actual compelling forces in the sphere of religion and ethics are not ecclesiastical enactment and reactionary clerical resolutions which represent the conservative influences in the church, but those which reside in the nature of our modern social, intellectual and religious life."

Dr. Lichtenberger came to the University of Pennsylvania from the New York School of Philanthropy.
