McDERECK CAPTURED HERE

Bluffs Police Take Fugitive from Oklahoma Jail.

REWARD PAID ON THE SPOT

Melvin M. Jacobs Arrested by Detective T. B. Richardson—Made Escape from Jail at Enid with Aid.

Melvin M. Jacobs, sentenced to ninety-nine years' imprisonment in the Oklahoma state penitentiary for murder, who escaped from the Garfield county jail at Enid, Okl., on April 1, was captured yesterday afternoon in Council Bluffs.

Jacobs was arrested by Detective T. B. Richardson at the Ogden hotel, where he passed under the name of John Long. He was taken back to Enid last night by Sheriff S. C. Campbell of Garfield county, Oklahoma, and the latter's brother, Charles Campbell, deputy sheriff and jailer of the county jail at Enid. Sheriff Campbell had been on Jacob's trail for the last ten days, finally running him to ground in Council Bluffs.

Dooey Letter Does It.

Although Sheriff Campbell was not inclined to give out much information as to how he managed to get on Jacobs' trail, it is understood the fugitive wrote to some of his relatives for money and the authorities in some way learned of it. Jacobs, it is said, told in his letter of having met with an accident and that he had severely sprained his ankle. Working on this clue, Sheriff Campbell, when here ten days ago, told the local police to look for a man who was suffering from a sprained ankle. Jacobs had left Council Bluffs about the time Campbell came here and is said to have been working on a farm in the vicinity of this city. A dooey letter was mailed to him at the Ogden hotel under the name of Long and when he inquired for his mail yesterday afternoon and received the letter in question Detective Richardson, who, with Detective Callaghan, had been detailed on the case, stepped up and placed him under arrest.

Skilled as Foot Racer.

Jacobs is said to be a professional foot racer and some years ago was connected with the notorious Webb City gang, which preceded the more recent Mahray gang of swindlers. Jacobs, according to Sheriff Campbell, was a pal of Leon Lozier, the erstwhile Council Bluffs foot racer, who was recently sent to the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth with James C. Mahray and others of the "big store" syndicate. A brother of Melvin Jacobs is said to have also been a professional foot racer, and is believed to be the Jacobs who was included in the blanket indictments returned in Council Bluffs and Omaha against the Mahray gang.

Under the laws of Oklahoma a convicted person, unless sentenced for life, is not sent to the penitentiary pending the determination of an appeal but is confined in one of the county jails, and this accounts for Jacobs being in the jail at Enid instead of in the state penitentiary.

Jacobs is 48 years of age, and even with the full benefit of good time cannot possibly expect to serve out his term of ninety-nine years if the sentence is confirmed by the supreme court. The sentence is practically the same as a life term.

SCRATCHED SO SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

Child of Two had Masses of Eczema Over Face, Head and Body—They Took Her to the Best Doctors and Tried Salves and Medicines in Vain—Suffered for Five Years.

SOON RELIEVED AND CURED BY CUTICURA

"I write to tell you how thankful I am for the wonderful Cuticura Remedies. My little niece had eczema for five years and when her mother died I took care of the child. It was all over her face and body, also on her head. She scratched so that she could not sleep nights. I used Cuticura Soap to wash her with and then applied Cuticura Ointment. I did not use quite half the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, together with Cuticura Resolvent, when you could see a change and they cured her nicely. Now she is eleven years old and has never been bothered with eczema since. My friends think it is just great the way the baby was cured by Cuticura. I send you a picture taken when she was about eighteen months old.

"She was taken with the eczema when two years old. She was covered with big sores and her mother had all the best doctors and tried all kinds of salves and medicines without effect until we used Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. H. Kiernan, 663 Quincy St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1909."

For thirty years Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have afforded speedy relief to tens of thousands of skin-tortured and disfigured sufferers from eczema, rashes, itchings, irritations and chafings, from infancy to age, bringing comfort and peace to distracted households when all else failed. Guaranteed absolutely pure and may be used from the hour of birth.

SUPERSTITIOUS THIEF REFUSES THIRTEEN DOLLARS

Breaks Into Hamilton Shoe Store, but Counts Cash Carefully Before Robbery.

The shoe store of George F. Hamilton at 422 West Broadway was broken into Tuesday night by a thief who effected an entrance through a skylight in the rear of the building. The thief was evidently superstitious and afraid of the number 13. In the drawer of the cash register the sum of $13 had been left over night. This was made up of $12.95 in currency, silver and small coin and five pennies. The thief took $12.20, leaving one cent in the drawer. Access to the skylight is easily obtainable at the rear and the thief was evidently well acquainted with the building as he broke one of the lights in the skylight, then unlatched the side which opens for ventilation and climbed down by means of the shelving. As all the doors were found fastened yesterday morning the thief evidently made his exit through the skylight.

An attempt was made Tuesday night to enter the grocery store of Max Olson at 17 North Main street, the back door of which is across the alley from the rear of the Hamilton shoe store. The transom over the rear door was forced, but as far as could be learned yesterday, nothing was taken from the store.

DEADLOCK ON WALK ORDINANCE

Committee of Whole Has Long Session with Retail Men.

A committee from the Retail Butchers and Grocers' association met with the members of the city council last night to urge the passage of the new amendment to the ordinance governing the display of merchandise on sidewalks in front of business houses. The amendment which was introduced at the meeting of the city council last Monday night was drawn up at the suggestion of the Retail Butchers' and Grocers' association. It was referred to the committee of the whole of the city council and will be taken up at the meeting this afternoon of the committee.

It is understood that several of the councilmen favor the passage of an entire new ordinance entirely prohibiting the use of the sidewalks for the display or sale of merchandise. From a hygienic standpoint the councilmen who favor such an ordinance believe that no fruit, vegetables or other food matter should be exposed upon the sidewalks where it cannot avoid becoming contaminated with the dust and dirt blown from the streets.

City Physician Tubbs in his annual report made a strong recommendation for an ordinance prohibiting the display or sale of any kind of edibles on the public sidewalks.

The committee from the Retail Butchers and Grocers' association, however, urged the privilege of being allowed the use of a certain portion of the sidewalk in front of their places of business for the display of vegetables, fruits and other products. It is understood that no decision was reached at the conference last night and that the matter will be threshed out at the meeting of the committee of the whole this afternoon.

Assessment Work Done.

The city council finished its work as a board of equalization last evening. The assessment of the International Harvester company, which had been raised from $25,000 to $50,000, was cut down to $45,000. The board, however, declined to reduce the assessment of the Transmississippi Elevator company, which had been placed by Assessor Hardin at $75,000.

The assessment of the Nonpareil Publishing company, which had been raised from $22,000 to $35,000, was left at the higher figure, the board refusing to make any reduction.

The other changes in the figures as returned by the assessor were of small consequence. The total of the personal assessment of this year will not be known until the tabulations are made by the county auditor, this work under the new law devolving on that official and not on the assessor, as heretofore.

AMBASSADOR BRYCE IN IOWA

Diplomat Will Make His First Speech at Grinnell April 26.

GRINNELL, Ia., April 21.—(Special.)—Advices have been received here to the effect that the widely-heralded date for the arrival in Iowa of James Bryce, English ambassador to the United States and author of "American Commonwealth" and other authoritative work on government, has been changed to April 26.

Mr. Bryce's present schedule will land him in Grinnell, which will be his first stopping place in this state, on the morning of that date, and he will speak in the evening at the Congregational church. He will deliver a chapel address to the students of Grinnell college on the morning of the twenty-seventh and will leave for Des Moines in the afternoon.

The distinguished diplomat has been for years a close personal friend of Prof. Jesse Macy of Grinnell. Prof. Macy is the author of several text books on English government which are widely used in the British schools and universities, whereas the "American Commonwealth" is equally in favor as authority in conditions in this country.

Pickett Land Bill Passed by House

Measure Authorizes President to Make Withdrawals of Public Land.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Pickett conservation bill authorizing the president to make withdrawals of public lands for purposes of conservation, was passed by the house today after a session devoted exclusively to its consideration. No record vote was taken, the final passage of the bill being almost unanimous.

Few differences of opinion were developed during the debate upon the subject of conservation, the discussion being almost exclusively on the effect of various amendments reported by the committee on public lands and offered by members.

As passed, the bill was practically in the form in which it was introduced by Mr. Pickett of Iowa, it being stated that in that form it had had the approval of the president.

Under the terms of the measure the president is authorized to withdraw from location, etc., public lands in the United States and in Alaska for public uses and for examination and classification to determine their character and value. These withdrawals, the bill provides, would remain in force until revoked by the president or by congress.

SENATOR DEPEW WILL NOT RETIRE FROM THE FIGHT

New Yorker Says He'll Be Seventy-Six Saturday, but Is Not Ready to Quit.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew on his arrival here today from Washington set at rest a rumor that had gained wide circulation to the effect that he intends to resign. When asked directly if he intended to announce now or in the future that he would seek re-election the senator replied that he would devote his time and all the money I can spare to aid in the election of a republican state ticket and legislature this fall. He added:

"If the legislature is democratic, of course, I will not care about being a candidate. If it is republican—well, we shall see after the elections—not before. Why should I announce my retirement because Senators Aldrich and Hale have done so?"

"Senator Aldrich is far from well, and the same is true, I understand, of Senator Hale. As for me, I shall be 76 on Saturday, but I have never felt better in my life."

One Conductor Who Was Cured.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes about it:—"Some time ago I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism. I used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect, and the third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It gave me more relief than any medicine I have ever used, and it will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures rheumatism by eliminating the uric acid from the blood. FRONTIER COUNTY MAN WORRIED OVER HIS SON

E. C. Aldrich Has Reason to Believe Young Man Has Met with Foul Play in Denver.

DENVER, Colo., April 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Edward C. Aldrich, of Earl, Frontier county, Nebraska, sends $100 to the police requesting a thorough search for his son, Frank, who, there is every reason to believe fell a victim to assassins or things in Denver. The afternoon of March 1, 1909, young Aldrich hurriedly entered the First National bank and drew $175 in cash. He rushed out of the building and apparently was highly excited. That was the last seen of him. He had come to Denver from Hoyt, Colo., where he had taken up a homestead. At the ranch he left a bunch of horses and cattle and on leaving said he would return within a few days.

Young Aldrich was unmarried and was devoted to his parents. His father writes that he dreamed he found the boy's body in the river here and believes he could take the course marked out in his dream by coming here. He has offered $200 reward in addition to the cash sent the police.

ASPHALT MIXER ON THE GROUND

Paving Contractors Get Ready for Busy Time at Early Date—Funeral of H. E. Tagg.

The Cudahy Packing company has practically completed the new reservoir which is located west of the former reservoir site and south of the buildings at the extreme west of the plant, so that as soon as the earth is banked in about the cement walls the water can be turned in. This reservoir is much larger than the former and is connected with the pumps of the plant to supply all the water used for sanitation and in slaughtering. The object of the new reservoir is that the old one may be dispensed with to make room for the new office building which will occupy the old reservoir site. As soon as the water is turned in the grading will begin for the new office building. Preparations are under way for the new hog killing department. Both these buildings have been fully described and will be the latest thing in packing house construction.

Jetter Creek Sewer.

The Jetter creek sewer, which passes just south of Jetter's brewery, is well under way. The work has been advancing since last fall. About 200 feet of a tunnel section is now complete. The first fifteen feet of the sewer laid during the cold weather froze and the cement will have to be replaced. A gang is also working on the Mud creek sewer and the work is progressing slowly at present.

PURCELL IN MAIDEN SPEECH

North Dakotan Talks on Railroad Bill in Senate and Launches Plan.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—In his maiden speech delivered in the senate today on the railroad bill, Senator Purcell of North Dakota practically launched a plan of so forming the supreme court as to insure such construction of the proposed law as to supplant and nullify antagonistic state laws and state constitutions.

He was dealing with the merger provision of the bill and having stated that the North Dakota state constitution prohibited the consolidation of railroad lines, he contended that under decisions of the supreme court it had held in effect that questions of this character were subject to state control.

FOUR SHOT IN STRIKE RIOT

Pittsburg Policeman and Three Steel Workers Fall in Battle.

"BLOODY ANGLE" SCENE OF CRIME

Old Corner Made Notable by Trouble Last Fall Again is Involved—Assailants Escape Capture.

PITTSBURG, April 21.—The first clash between the police and strikers of the Pressed Steel Car plant at Schoenville occurred tonight and by a coincidence it occurred at the corner know as "Blood Angle," where half a dozen men were shot down in the strike riots last July. Four men were shot tonight and one foreigner is in the hospital, unidentified, with injuries caused by a train striking him.

The injured are Policeman James McDaniels, shot in the hip; Joseph Virnot, shot in the thigh, and John Koeski, shot in the arm. Besides these one man was seen carried away by the strikers and is believed to be secreted in one of the strikers' houses.

The rioting was started by about 100 of the strikers congregated at the "Bloody Angle," who refused to move on when ordered by McDaniels. The crowd flocked around the officer, and a man on the edge fired the shot that felled the policeman. Other policemen then brought into play their firearms, followed by the strikers, and the battle waged for a quarter of an hour.

McDaniels, lying on the ground, emptied his revolver into the crowd and strikers began to fall, some supposedly hit, for they were carried away by friends, and others lying prone to avoid the bullets. Virnot was overlooked and left lying in the street. He was captured and taken to a hospital.

The man that shot McDaniels was struck by an express train and was hurled high in the air, falling beside the tracks apparently lifeless. It is not known whether or not he will recover.

A number of the rioters were recognized by the police and arrests are being made as fast as they are found. Extra police have been sworn in and a special detail, heavily armed, is guarding the police station and lockup, which a crowd of foreigners attempted to force to release their comrades.

Only about 200 men reported at the plant for work tonight and scores of others were assaulted on their way to work. The assailants in almost every instance escaped capture.

War Daughters Holding Election

Mrs. Andrew K. Gault of Omaha is Nominee for Vice President General.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The election of ten vice president general and one honorary vice president general enlivened the congress of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution here today. The polls did not close until 9 o'clock tonight, the election being delayed by a printer's error in leaving off the ballot the name of Mrs. Masury of Massachusetts, one of the nominees for vice president general.

The omission brought a storm of indignation and precipitated a long discussion, which was finally ended by the action of Mrs. William Cummins Story of Massachusetts, who rushed to the platform and urged that the matter be left to the Massachusetts delegation for suggestion as to what should be done.

Mrs. Story was greeted with applause and it was decided to leave it to Massachusetts. The delegation urged that the only thing possible would be to have the ballots reprinted. This was ordered and it was 4 o'clock before the actual voting began. The result probably will not be known until tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Andrew K. Gault of Omaha, Neb., is one of the fifteen nominees for the office of vice president general.

OHIO DEFEATS 'PHONE BILL

Senate Turns it Down, Although it Brought About Investigation in Lower House.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—By a vote of 14 to 20 the senate today defeated the Elson telephone merger bill. The passage of this measure by the house resulted in bribery charges and an investigation by a legislative committee.

The house committee, which investigated the bribery charges today, reported that the testimony connects no member of the house with any irregular or unlawful act in connection with the Elson bill.

The testimony shows, however, the committee say, that an unsuccessful attempt was made to influence Representative Howard W. Pierson in his vote on the bill, and that the grand jury may find in the proceedings evidence to warrant an investigation.
