A tramp, a burglar, or burglar, or something of that sort, tried to get into the homes of Seth Buckley and Mr. Thompson, the blacksmith, and also into M. Mason's. Mr. Thompson called Jud O'Dell and they caught him at the Mason home, and took him to the city jail for safe keeping. We did not hear how they finally disposed of him.

We very respectfully and with fear and trembling, call the attention of our town board to the very unsatisfactory condition of some of our streets. The grading is so high that the amount of water caught on the sides remains, and is green with slime and bull frogs, and the odor therefrom is nauseating in the extreme. This isn't a kick—just a reminder.
