MR. MANUFACTURER,
Would you be shown?
Are you from Missouri? Most people are when it comes to being "shown." Every broad-minded manufacturer is open to conviction. If any one can show him how he can reduce the cost of manufacture, find a market for more of his goods or where there is a better distributing point, you have his attention instanter. In other words, the
HOW AND WHERE.
We have faced this question before. Manufacturers have recited their troubles—such as being hemmed in by high-priced improved property, making further expansion expensive if not prohibitive; limited terminal facilities, disadvantageous freight rates. Enough to make any one stop and consider a proposition that would afford relief. No use to tell you the rate is lower on raw material than manufactured.
OUR PRESCRIPTION.
If you market your goods in the west, move to a western location. Get a site FREE; use the money ordinarily invested in a site to build a new plant. Put your product on board Omaha.
A FREE SITE IN RALSTON.
Ralston is Omaha's industrial suburb, takes the Omaha (Missouri river) rate, is within the switching district, has an ideal residence section, electric power, light, telephone, paved street, electric car line, new two-story pressed brick school building, church, business district, etc.
