CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE.

BACK TO THE FARM

Back to the source of all wealth. Back to comfort and independence. Back to regained health. Start with the soil and build up a poultry, dairy, garden and fruit business of your own. Enjoy the freedom of the country with the conveniences of the city. Buy within a half dozen blocks of electric car, school and church privileges, with a market at your door.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE between land distant from town and public utilities and acres at the threshold of the metropolis of Nebraska, with its excellent educational advantages and splendid live stock, grain and produce market. Why is it these talks on appeal to so many people, far and wide, who write for our literature? Because of an universal interest in suburban acreage. People cannot help but think on this subject of the betterment of their lot. They realize they are growing older. They know the income from a house and lot will not provide for old age, while a few acres will. The "next year" people never seriously consider any proposition. The progressive element in a community seize every opportunity for advancement. Every person gets in his own class.

The Call of the Country
