GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Situation Favors the Selling Side Again.

STRONG PROSPECTS FOR CROP

Visible Supply Heavy—Corn is Well Supported at the Present Level and No Advance in Price is Expected.

OMAHA, March 13, 1911.

News on the wheat situation was favoring the selling side again, Monday. Allowing for the few complaints, the growing crop is in better shape than usual at this time of the year, and there is also a much larger average. Farm reserves are heavy and the visible supply is larger than a year ago.

The corn market at these levels, is receiving good support, as receipts are expected to be light until after the spring work is over, and this should strengthen the cash situation. On the other hand the large reserve stocks will likely check any material advance.

News from all sides was bearish on the wheat today and prices broke sharply after the opening trades. Selling was general, particularly in the new crop months. Cash wheat was sluggish with prices ½c lower.

The corn futures ruled slightly lower, owing to the weakness in wheat and selling pressure was effective. Cash corn was a trifle higher, sample offerings were fairly liberal and prices ranged unchanged to ½c higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 702,000 bushels and shipments were 219,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,114,000 bushels and shipments of 215,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 597,000 bushels and receipts were 399,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 782,000 bushels and shipments of 325,000 bushels.

Clearances were 103,000 bushels of corn, 30 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 84,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed ⅜@⅝d higher on wheat and ¼d higher on corn.

The following cash sales were reported:

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Heavy selling carried down the price of wheat today after experts investigating had declared that the damage from Hessian fly was inconsequential. Closing figures showed a net decline of ⅛@1c to 1¼@1⅜c. The other chief cereals, too, finished with a loss—corn off ½c to ½@⅝c and oats ⅛@¼c to ¼c; provisions at the end of the day were the same as Saturday night to 7½c below.

One of the big sellers of new crop contracts for wheat was a prominent supporter, who had been out of the market for some time. Pressure centered mainly on the July delivery. Primary arrivals exhibited a total decidedly more than last week. Cash demand was, if possible, worse, and the larger longs seemed to lack nerve for any active attempt to stop short sellers from hammering the market. Early in the day firm cables and a decrease in the United States visible supply afforded a little aid to the bulls. Closing prices, though steady, were almost the bottom for the session. May ranged from 90c to 91⅝c, with last sales ⅞@1c off at 90⅛@90¼c.

Leading sellers of corn were the same people who were pounding wheat. May fluctuated between 49½c and 50c, finishing ½c net lower at 49½@49⅝c. Cash corn was easy. No. 2 yellow closed at 48@48½c.

Oats suffered in sympathy with other grains. May varied from 30⅞c to 31⅛@31¼c, with latest figures at 30⅞c, a net decline of ¼c.

Both shorts and longs purchased provisions, but there was a big run of hogs here and west. When the final gong sounded pork was 2½@7½c off, with lard and ribs unchanged to 2½c decline.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT

Decided Fall in Temperature is Followed by Sharp Rise.

OMAHA, March 13, 1911.

A very decided fall in temperature occurred in the upper Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys Saturday night and Sunday, and the change to colder weather has spread south over the lower valleys to the west gulf states and east over the Ohio valley and lake region. Freezing temperatures are reported south this morning over Oklahoma and western Arkansas. A very decided rise in temperature is shown this morning in the extreme upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys and throughout the northwest and this wave of warmer weather will extend over this vicinity tonight. Light precipitation occurred within the last twenty-four hours in the lake region, Ohio valley and eastern states, and rains are falling this morning in Kentucky and Tennessee. Some very light and widely scattered precipitation occurred in the Rocky mountain region during the last twenty-four hours, but generally clear weather prevails everywhere west of the Mississippi river this morning and the outlook is favorable for continued fair in this vicinity tonight and Tuesday.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market But Slightly Affected by Corporation Tax Decision.

VARIOUS FACTORS AID PRICES

Small Supply of Floating Stocks and Knowledge Largest Holdings Are in Strong Hands Prevent Substantial Losses.

NEW YORK, March 13.—One of the group of supreme court decisions which Wall street long has awaited with some trepidation, upholding the constitutionality of the corporation tax law, brought about merely a brief decline on the stock exchange when it was announced today. Within a few minutes stocks bounded back to the best prices of the day and later made further improvement. Active stocks in most cases closed at good fractional gains. The action of the market was regarded as indicative of its present strong position.

The small supply of floating stocks, the eagerness of the bear traders to cover and the knowledge that the largest holdings were in strong hands combined to prevent substantial losses.

Speculative operations of the day centered largely about Atchison, closing a point higher. Minneapolis and St. Louis preferred sold at nearly 20 points below the last transaction prior to today, which was in November.

One of the largest copper producing companies was reported today to have made a further reduction in the price of its grade ore. Western railroads reported a shrinkage in tonnage for last week.

Rates for time money showed still further ease and the market for prime mercantile paper was easier in tone. The unusual financial strength of the west doubtless has its bearing on the continued low rates at this center.

The general bond market was irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,001,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

CATTLE—There was a liberal run of cattle this morning, being a gain over the last two weeks and a gain of about 1,200 head as compared with a year ago. At the same time other points were heavily loaded with cattle, some of them having considerably more than have been anticipated. At the same time the demand was not at all brisk, advices from eastern points indicating that the product has not been going into consuming channels any too rapidly. The result was a slow and lower market at all points and it was well along toward midday before any very great amount of business had been transacted.

The trade on beef steers was slow and dull all morning and a clearance was not effected until late. Buyers did not appear to have sufficiently urgent orders to put any snap or life into the trade. At the same time prices were generally 10c lower than last week.

Cows and heifers were mostly 10c lower than last week and they, too, were slow sellers, for the reason that the demand was not sufficiently urgent to stimulate the trade.

Heavy feeders were generally slow and the feeling weak, but still as high as $5.75 was paid for some good westerns. Mediums and common grades were slow and around 10c lower.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice beef steers, $6.00@6.30; fair to good beef steers, $5.70@6.00; common to fair beef steers, $5.00@5.70; good to choice cows and heifers, $4.70@6.50; fair to good cows and heifers, $4.30@4.70; common to fair cows and heifers, $3.25@4.30; good to choice stockers and feeders, $5.50@5.80; fair to good stockers and feeders, $5.00@5.50; common to fair stockers and feeders, $4.20@5.00; stock heifers, $3.75@4.50; veal calves, $4.00@8.00; bulls, stags, etc., $4.00@5.25.

HOGS—Packers found plenty of bearish argument in a 60,000 supply of hogs at Chicago today, and were able to put up their droves at much cheaper cost levels. Prices broke about 15@20c on all weights and, with every condition discouraging, sellers made the most of a bad situation and unloaded at the decline in very good season. Practically all of a 100-load supply moved into second hands within the first two hours of open trading.

Shippers and speculators suspended operations, total purchases from this quarter being too small to have any appreciable influence upon the general market. The lifeless condition of speculative demand was due, in a measure, to a local advance car report for tomorrow that is decidedly bearish.

Good butchers' weights dropped to $6.60@6.65 and choice bacon weights sold up as high as $6.75. As compared with Saturday's top, this figure shows the full decline. Heavies and common packing grades at $6.55 and less, bulk ranging around $6.65.

SHEEP—Heavy receipts of sheep and lambs this morning gave promise of a lower scale of values, but in this expectation sellers were agreeably disappointed. The demand from packers was broad and active from the opening and prices were well sustained in all branches of the trade. Inquiry centered on old sheep, viewing the market as a whole, and ewes and wethers sold at figures generally firm with those at last week's close.

Actual sales of ewes reached $4.40 and wethers weighing 96 pounds sold as high as $4.60. Yearlings of toppy quality and handy weight are safely quotable at or near $5.25. These prices crowd the extreme limits on the various classes of stock, of course, and are very little different from high quotations noted on Saturday.

Lambs made up a reasonably large proportion of total supplies and feeling among buyers was rather bearish than otherwise. Selected offerings moved early at prices about steady, but bulk ruled weak to possibly a little lower. Choice wooled lambs realized as much as $6.10 and a similar quality of shorn article sold at $5.50. Shorn shipments were scarce, however, and the narrow spread indicated is at least partly due to a meager supply.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Good to choice lambs, $5.75@6.10; fair to good lambs, $5.35@5.70; handy weight yearlings, $5.00@5.25; heavy yearlings, $4.65@5.00; good to choice wethers, $4.35@4.65; fair to good wethers, $4.00@4.35; good to choice ewes, $4.25@4.50; fair to good ewes, $3.90@4.25; sheep, culls to feeders, $3.00@3.75.
