CATTLE—Receipts of cattle were fair for a Thursday, 157 cars being reported in, but the total, 18,300 head, is over 1,000 head short of the corresponding days of last week and 3,500 head short of a year ago. The market as a whole did not show very much change as compared with yesterday's prices, as most kinds of cattle are also back about where they were last week.

There was a good demand for beef steers this morning, but the market was very uneven, buyers picking out such cattle as suited them at very satisfactory prices and bearing down on others. Thus sellers were quoting the market anywhere from lower to as much as 10c higher in spots. Taking the trade as a whole, however, there was not very much change as compared with yesterday, prices for the most part being about steady. Among the receipts were some right good well finished beeves that sold at $8.25.

Cows and heifers did not show very much change, being as a rule about steady with yesterday.

The supply of stockers and feeders was small and there was no material change in the market.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice beef steers, $6.10@6.25; fair to good beef steers, $5.70@6.10; common to fair beef steers, $4.75@5.70; good to choice cows and heifers, $4.50@5.60; fair to good cows and heifers, $4.30@4.70; common to fair cows and heifers, $3.00@4.30; good to choice stockers and feeders, $5.50@5.90; fair to good stockers and feeders, $5.00@5.50; common to fair stockers and feeders, $4.30@5.00; stock heifers, $3.75@4.50; veal calves, $4.00@7.50; bulls, stags, etc., $3.75@4.75.

HOGS—Making any definite distinction between today's hog trade and that of yesterday, required delicate judgment this morning. Feeling was bearish but a very large amount of business was transacted early that averaged just about steady. As the market progressed and various large buyers retired, prices weakened to levels a shade to 5c lower. Loads that sold late in the session moved on this basis, but the general trade may safely be quoted as barely steady.

Speculators took very little interest in the situation and purchased only such offerings as were needed on actual shipping orders. Demand from packers was reasonably active early, but decidedly quiet toward the close.

Heavy lard animals met with usual discrimination and sold at $6.40 and less. Butcher offerings moved around $6.45, the same as on yesterday, and best bacon grades went at $6.50@6.55. The latter figure, which was high price, shows a loss of a nickel, the lower top being due to an absence of speculative competition.

SHEEP—Firm tone pervaded trade in sheep and lambs this morning, bulk of offerings selling on a generally steady basis. Supplies were well up to the average in quantity and unusually good in point of quality. Several strings of handy lambs arrived, both westerns and Mexicans, and sheep shipments also included some high dressing ewes that are seldom found in ordinary runs.

Fed western lambs, weighing around 82 pounds, sold as high as $8.25, one string of similar toppy stock crowding the limit at $8.20. The former sale, it will be noted, is the highest paid this year for full loads of fed westerns. Choice Mexican animals are quotable at 10@15c margins over prime stock of northern bred origin.

Receipts of sheep were lacking in variety, as has been the case on most days lately. Good yearlings were rather scarce, wethers in straight strings were not available, and ewes made up a large portion of mutton offerings. Mexican ewes reached $5.00 and best westerns met with a very fair inquiry around $4.90. Wethers are quotable up to $5.15, and choice, light yearlings would probably move around $5.50@5.65.

Since last week's close the market for sheep and lambs has been featured by healthy, active demand, except on Monday. Present prices on sheep are about 15c higher for the four days, while lambs are steady to strong with last Friday. Short stuff is not showing up in very large bunches as yet, but the few shipments on sale this week moved at very reasonable spreads under wooled supplies.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Good to choice lambs, $6.10@6.40; fair to good lambs, $5.85@6.10; handy-weight yearlings, $5.35@5.65; heavy yearlings, $5.00@5.35; good to choice wethers, $4.85@5.15; fair to good wethers, $4.50@4.85; good to choice ewes, $4.40@5.00; fair to good ewes, $4.25@4.65; sheep culls to feeders, $3.00@4.00.
