M. E. Church Notes

Rev. E. C. Moore, Pastor

Have you VISITED Church or Sunday School yet this year?

We were glad to note the presence of several in the service Sunday morning, who have not been able to be with us for some time.

Some weeks ago, Professor Eaton threw out a challenge, "When Mr. Moore visits the school again, I'm coming to church." We were glad to see him make good, "is part of the bargain" last Sunday morning. But how many of his high school pupils he must have missed!

As we visited the school some time ago, we made the mental observation that the pupils in one particular room were few, who are not in the Sunday school as well. But why such a falling off with the advancing grades?

The regular monthly meeting of the official board was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Forbes. A good representation was present, and a pleasant time was enjoyed. But we can but wonder if "hot buns" will be a drawing card for future meetings. Besides the regular routine business, plans for future activities were discussed, and some will be tried in the immediate future.

There will be an innovation in the service next Sunday evening. The preaching service will be at the usual hour, but will be in the basement. But all are invited to come at any time from 6:30 to 7:30, and get better acquainted with us and with your neighbor before the service begins. Then tell us how you like the plan.

Looking ahead on your calendar, draw a circle around Thursday, April 6th, and keep that date as clear as possible. Further announcement later.

In commenting on the action of the Dakota City school board in requiring Prof. H. M. Eaton as superintendent of our schools, the Walthill Times says: "Mr. Eaton is a school man of experience, well known in educational circles of northeast Nebraska, and at one time superintendent at Emerson. Within the last year or so he has returned to the profession after engaging in a commercial enterprise several years. With proper cooperation of patrons and school board he doubtless will be able to improve the schools and elevate the high school from its present 'C' rank. As proof of their appreciation of his services and strength of their ambition to build up the schools, the board of education has increased his salary $500, which is no small sum in this period of depression and high taxes."

DAKOTA CITY SCHOOL NOTES

By Prof. H. M. Eaton

No visitors this week.

We have not heard from the ladies as to the spelling match we mentioned in our last week's school notes.

Are your children in school every day now? Are you helping us to give them an equal chance with every other child in school to win the race of life? If your child does not win and you keep him at home you have yourself only to blame. Can you afford to take the risk?

The West Union high school of Sioux City were the winners in a basket ball game last Friday, afternoon with the home team on their floor. They were victorious by a 37 to 22 score. We were defeated, but I will say that they did not have but one-half of the fun.

Mr. M. G. Leamer pretty nearly visited the school. He was in all the halls and up stairs in the high room one day last week. We had a fine talk with him on many items of interest. Come again, Mr. Leamer.

The Primary and First Intermediate rooms will give an entertainment in the gymnasium at the high school this coming Thursday evening at 8 o'clock sharp. The price of admission will be 25 cents to all. We are sure that you will be pleased as the little folks have something of interest to every one.

Our ninth and tenth grades have just finished Meyers Ancient history. They will start at once with Westermanns Ancient history. We hope to be able to complete this by the end of the year.

A pretty good attendance in the school last month. The high school as usual had the highest per cent of attendance. We think that 98% plus very fine for so bad a month. I want to live to see the time when we will have a perfect attendance score. Why not, it is your school, not mine; but I do not like to work in a place where the people are not interested enough in the schools nor the pupils either to be on hand every day when it is possible.

Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely, and with too high a spirit to be cumbered with your old nonsense. This day is all that is good and fair. It is too dear, with its hopes and invitations, to waste a moment on the yesterdays.—Emerson.

Please do not forget to come and see the children in action this Thursday evening at the school house. Miss Biermann and Miss Krogger have worked hard with them to give you an entertainment that will please. They deserve your attendance and interest. Come.

Ways of Seeding Sweet Clover

It used to be recommended that sweet clover be seeded in the winter on a light snow or early enough to be covered by the freezing and thawing of the soil. Experience has shown, however, that sweet clover will do better and a stand is more certain if it is handled like a "civilized" crop. The seed bed should be well prepared, just as for alfalfa, and from fifteen to eighteen pounds sown per acre. On rough lands or in draws and creek bottoms sometimes it is impossible to work up a seed bed. In such places stands of sweet clover can often be secured by broadcasting the seed in March. Seed may also be scattered over pasture and harrowed or disc'd lightly. In the favorable parts of Nebraska, sweet clover can be seeded on winter wheat and harrowed in. It can also be seeded with oats or barley as early as the season will permit.

A Gage county farmer recently remarked that in seeding alfalfa he prepared a good seed bed and was all ready to seed, then started in and worked it down all over again. This is also good advice for sweet clover and other small grass and legume seeds. A good firm well packed seed bed means a stand if the weather man is at all agreeable. The Agricultural College has several circulars and bulletins on seeding and growing sweet clover.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

The Roma disaster has for the time checked the aviation enthusiasm. Investigation is being conducted to determine the cause of the nose dive and it seems to be the general opinion that it was structural defects.

The bonus discussion is languishing somewhat. The "sales tax" is dead. Mr. Longworth's motion, made in the Ways and Means committee to attach the sales tax to the house bill brought out a protest signed by many House members. The protests were circulated by Crampton of Michigan, J. M. Nelson of Wisconsin, Rhoades of Missouri, Kopp of Iowa, Keller of Minnesota, Evans of Nebraska, Kelley of Pennsylvania, and Brooks of Illinois. They were effective.

The President has signed the cooperative marketing bill and it is now a law. This is another important number in the agricultural program.

The industrial and financial conditions in the east are improving quite slowly. The approval of the treaties negotiated at the conference is expected in the near future.

Mr. H. G. Taylor of the Nebraska State Railway commission has been in Washington since last week. He appeared before the Inter-State and Foreign Commerce committee on February 28th and March 1st. He made a good impression and presented a strong case. He conferred with Congressman Evans during his stay in the city.

Mrs. Robert E. Evans attended the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Gifford Pinchot on February 28th to discuss the subject of the rights of working-women as they may be injuriously affected by proposed legislation. There were speakers of note from various parts of the country. The meeting was held in honor of the executive board of the National Women's Trade Union League.

The President, in person, on February 28th, delivered to Congress his message on the Merchant Marine—the so called ship subsidy. The proposal is to pay ships per ton per mile sailed, graduated upward from 1/2 cent to 2.6 cents per gross ton per 100 miles traveled in accordance with the speed of the ship. The revenue he provided as follows: Ten per cent of all duties collected. Tonnage charges, taxes and fees imposed on vessels entering Continental U. S. ports and all sums paid for carrying mails, except parcel post mail. There is divergence of opinion as to the proposal. The message was referred to the committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries.

Mrs. Bertha F. Smith of Niobrara is in Washington for several days.

The following postmasters appointments have been confirmed during the month of February: Henry E. Schemmel at Hooper; Charles B. Beers at Petersburg; Frank N. Thompson at Winnebago; Phillip Stein at Plainville, and Elsie B. Thompson at Wynot.
