YUAN SHI KAI INAUGURATED

Formally Becomes Provisional President of Chinese Republic.

HE MAKES FAITHFUL PROMISES

Oath of Office Privately Taken on Friday and Assembly Notifies Him of Acceptance of Tang as Premier.

PEKING, March 11.—Yuan Shi Kai formally was inaugurated provisional president of the republic of China in the presence of a great gathering of delegates, provincial envoys, military and naval officers and other prominent personages in the new foreign office yesterday. Many foreigners attended the ceremony, but the legations were not represented.

Yuan Shi Kai, who was in military uniform, read a declaration promising faithfully to develop the republic, observe the constitutional laws and retire when the national assembly appoints a permanent president.

The ceremony was solemn—almost pathetic—and typical of Chinese transition.

Most of those attending were attired either in uniform or European dress. The only touch of orientalism was the presentation of the scarfs to Yuan Shi Kai by two yellow robed Chinese.

NANKING, March 11.—Yuan Shai Kai privately took the oath of office Friday after which the assembly notified him of its acceptance of Tang Shao Yi as premier. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the ex-president, appears to have wearied of the strain during the last two months. He says that when the cabinet is appointed he will retire to his old home at Kwang Tung to rest.

Revolt at Canton.

HONG KONG, March 11.—Eight thousand soldiers have revolted at Canton and serious fighting has ensued. All shops in the old and new city of Canton were closed Saturday. Many persons are reported killed or wounded and thousands of civilians are fleeing.

The soldiers have refused to disarm and barricades have been erected from the admiralty as far as the Taishatow (east gate) station. Forty thousand troops are quartered in the city and the loyalty of most of them cannot be relied upon.

A courier proceeded this morning to Sha Meen and notified the European soldiers of the revolt. The gates of the quarter were immediately closed and strengthened.

The building will cost $10,000 and the financing of the institution has been provided for. Mother Catherine Drexel of Philadelphia will come to Columbus to take charge of the school.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Koutsky Says Will Not Enter Race Against Miller.

BREWER FINDS TAFT SENTIMENT

Young People's Dramatic Club Will Give First Play at Presbyterian Church on Next Thursday Evening.

With six different tickets in the field of South Omaha politics, it was the concensus of opinion on the streets yesterday that the week opens with the odds in favor of the republican ticket.

Although Frank Koutsky, the republican nominated for mayor Saturday night by the citizens' committee, refused yesterday to give out any formal statement as to his position, he did assure a number of friends that he would under no consideration enter a three-cornered race against August Miller, the regular republican candidate for the mayoralty.

At a meeting of the republican candidates yesterday afternoon a committee composed of George McBride, George Brewer and Jim Chizek was appointed to confer with the leaders of the citizens' movement in order to arrive at certain agreements on candidates whose names are on both tickets. It is expected that with the refusal of Koutsky to run for mayor the citizens may reconsider and endorse August Miller for the place.

Dramatic Club Play.

The Young People's Dramatic club of South Omaha will make its initial performance next Thursday evening at the Presbyterian church, Twenty-third and J streets. The entertainment is given under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church. Rehearsals have been held for the last few weeks.

Among those who will appear in the cast are Charles Rapp and Harold Lee.

George Brewer, one of the leading republicans of South Omaha and Douglas county, after a trip to New York state, returns with the firm conviction that President Taft will be renominated at the Chicago convention.

"Everything east of Chicago looks like Taft," said Mr. Brewer yesterday evening. "There is some talk of Roosevelt, but the great wave of sentiment is for Taft. I expect that the president will be renominated at the Chicago convention."

Travel Five Days by Mule to Meet Knox

OCJUTLA, Salvador, March 11.—The American secretary of state, Philander C. Knox, and party arrived in the republic of Salvador today. The cruiser, Maryland, reached here this morning from Amapala, Honduras, and the secretary later proceeded to San Salvador.

The visit to Honduras, which lasted over Friday and Saturday, was marred somewhat by the fact that it was found impossible to proceed to Tegucigalpa, the capital. A party of eighteen prominent citizens, including members of the cabinet, the chief justices and members of Parliament, came to Amapala, a round trip of five days, by mule, in order to have luncheon with the American secretary. This function was held in the custom house, which formerly was the stronghold of the revolutionary general, Jose Valladares.

The president of the republic, General Manuel Bonilla, who is seriously ill, was unable to be present, but sent a cordial message. The minister of foreign affairs, Mariano Vasquez, eulogized the United States, President Taft, ex-President Roosevelt, Elhu Root, the ex-secretary of state, and Mr. Knox.

Drives Off Wolves With Pocket Knife

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., March 11.—J. Thomas is in the hospital here after an all night fight with a pack of wolves in the northern part of the state. He was overtaken while on his way to a neighbor's home and although armed only with a large jack knife, battled with the animals, killing several and finally succeeded in driving them away. He is suffering with exposure and a number of bites given him by the wolves, but probably will recover.

FRUITS AND NUTS EXPORTED

Sales to Foreign Countries Total Vast Sum in Twelve Years.

BALANCE OF TRADE IS LARGE

Department of Commerce and Labor Compiles Statistics Showing Huge Increase of Business of United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—Exports of fruits and nuts from the United States aggregated more than $300,000,000 in the last twelve years, reaching their highest record in the calendar year just ended, with a total of $29,000,000, or more than three times as much as a decade earlier. The foregoing sentence summarizes the results of a compilation just prepared by the Bureau of Statistics, Department of Commerce and Labor, suggested by the large exports of fruits and nuts in January of the present year, which aggregated $2,537,432, or 50 per cent in excess of those of the preceding January, and giving promise that the high record exports of fruits and nuts last year will be exceeded by those of 1912.

Not only are the exports of fruits and nuts increasing, but their growth is more rapid than that of imports under that head. In 1901 imports were more than twice as much as exports; last year they were but 50 per cent more than the exports of similar articles. The movement in each at intervals since 1901 are shown in the following table:

Calendar Year.	Imports.	Exports.
1901	$20,177,802	$ 8,279,313
1904	24,365,220	17,962,779
1907	40,458
