IT is the business of the Navy to make every one of its men a success in life. For the bigger the success of each man, the bigger the success of the Navy.

There is great variety of work, not only for seamen, but for machinists, firemen, stenographers, bookkeepers, musicians, nurses, carpenters, blacksmiths, shipfitters, electricians, boilermakers, cooks, stewards and waiters. And the man who already knows a trade, can enter at higher pay.

Besides this congenial work, there is a healthy life, fine physical and mental training, chances to learn by study and travel, and the companionship of fine young men.

Every ambitious man between 17 and 35 owes it to himself to look into the Navy's opportunities, either as a four years' course of training or as a life career.

Call at Navy Recruiting Station Post Office Building, Omaha, Neb., and the officer in charge will tell you all about pay, promotion, hours, etc. Or send for the interesting illustrated book, "The Making of a Man o' Warsman," all about the bluejacket's daily life. Free.

Address Bureau of Navigation, Box 209, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.

OFFERED FOR RENT

Houses and Cottages.

NEW FOUR-ROOM BUNGALOW.
This neat little 4-room bungalow has the same floor plan as the one advertised and sold last week, but a different outside appearance, front porch 7x22, with three heavy square columns, large living room on southeast corner, wide opening to large east side dining room with high Queen Anne windows, nice sized kitchen and convenient pantry, inside entrance to basement under entire house, good sized bath room, high grade siphon wash-down water closet, heavy one-piece porcelain sink in kitchen, large bed-room, well lighted, with windows on two sides, big closet. All finished lumber selected, all floors of maple, scraped, sandpapered and varnished to high gloss. Electric light in all rooms, front porch and basement, pretty four-light shower for living room and are glass amber dome for dining room. Built right all the way through, double floors with red rosin paper between, tar felt between walls, constructed from very best materials and by high class workmen. Planned in such a manner that another room can be added at any time needed. Lot will be graded and leveled ready for seeding, south front. This is another pretty little bungalow home that you can own as easily as you can pay rent for an old house downtown. The price, $1,700, $100 cash and $18.50 per month, monthly payments include the interest, property will be deeded to you with complete abstract soon as deal is closed. See me today quickly as possible. One advertised last Sunday sold by 4 o'clock. Come to 115 South Halcyon Ave., Benson. (Take Benson car, get off at Halcyon Ave., come south to No. 115). Phone Benson 122. Come today or any evening, regardless of weather.
