LOPES LOSE GAME ON ERROR

Omaha Wins Battle When Miller Drops Scanlon's Fly.

COLTS PLAY ERRORLESS BALL

Home Boys Work in Mid-Season Form and Take Many Desperate Chances—Justice Star of Game.

Miller's error of Scanlon's fly in the ninth inning lost Lincoln yesterday's game and the state championship. Score, 2 to 1. Omaha has now won four of the seven inter-season games and Lincoln one.

It was a beautiful game from the sound of the gong. Both teams played well and but one error was made. The Rourkes went through the entire nine innings without a bobble. Hearn went to the mound for the home team and pitched six innings, allowing but one hit. The cold weather caused Manager Arbogast to pull Hearn out and send Ryan to the firing line, who finished the game and gave but two hits.

The Antelopes should not have had a run, but a passed ball by Campfield in the eighth inning with a man on second, followed by a single brought in the "Lopes'" only tally. The wind was strong and the weather was chilly, but despite this fact a goodly sized crowd turned out to witness the last game at home before the opening. That they were well satisfied with the pastime was shown by their appreciative remarks on Pa's 1912 squad.

Justice Wins Favor.

At short Eddie Justice won the favor of the fans by his spectacular and clever fielding. He handled nine chances clean as a whistle and at bat got away with three hits in four times up.

Inside ball playing on the part of the Rourkes was the feature. Desperate chances were taken by the boys and in almost every instance they won out.

In the third inning the first run was scored. Justice beat out a bunt, took second on Coyle's sacrifice and went to third when Thomason flew out to center. A single to right by Jimmy Kane scored Justice.

Not another run was made until the eighth when Lincoln deadlocked the score. Smith singled to left and stole second. A passed ball by Campfield gave him another sack and he romped home on a single by Firestone.

In Omaha's half of the eighth the boys failed to get to first. Ryan held the 'Lopes in the ninth. Scanlon, the first man to bat in the final round for the Rourkes, got to second on Miller's error. Nichoff sacrificed and Wanner singled to right while Nichoff raced across with the winning run. Score:

THREE VARSITY BALL MEN MUST STUDY UP A LITTLE

LINCOLN, April 14.—(Special.)—On the eve of the opening of the base ball season at the University of Nebraska three of the men most depended upon were found by the eligibility committee to be ineligible because of delinquency in studies. The men who were declared ineligible were Clinton Underwood, an infielder; Pierson, a catcher, and Carr, the star varsity pitcher. The men were directed to stop practice immediately and put all spare time in on their studies in order that they might be ready for the opening games of the schedule. Carr and Underwood will be eligible for the first game and Pierson may be in shape.

The delinquency of Pierson is all the more serious inasmuch as his work must be in tip top shape so as to not endanger his participation in foot ball next fall. It would not be surprising to see Stiehm order Pierson to stop base ball, as his services are not seriously needed in the catching department with the abundance of material now on hand.

Trouble is still being encountered in arranging for a schedule, although the Cornhuskers will probably get a game with Ames, Iowa and Kansas. Definite answers have not been received from these schools. Games have been arranged with Tarkio, Mo., for next Wednesday and with the Kansas Aggies, although the date for the latter has not been fixed.

The election of a captain will go over until Stiehm has fully settled upon a squad. It will probably come some time next week.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL NINE DRUBBED BY CREIGHTON

In a farcical exhibition of base ball in which eighteen players and about 125 student spectators were treated to a Nebraska dust bath with variations, a picked nine of Creighton university and high school lads trounced the newly organized Omaha High school aspirants to the melody of 28 to 7 yesterday afternoon on Creighton field. Applegate Gets a Berth.

Pitcher Fred Applegate, last year with Lincoln, and who bought his own release, has signed with Elmira of the New York State league.
