The City of Alliance.

Alliance is a thriving, pushing, growing little city of 3500 souls, with a future full of promise—indeed, so bright is the outlook, it is freely predicted that within five years it will have a population of from 5000 to 8000. In all of Northwest Nebraska there is no town, in point of population and volume of business, that can approach it. Its railroad facilities are the best, being located on the main line of the great Burlington and Missouri River railroad system; and its schools and churches are not surpassed anywhere. Its people are hospitable, enterprising and intelligent. Its climate is healthful, invigorating and inspiring. In short, no town in Nebraska presents superior inducements for men of capital, enterprise and push to locate within her borders. Letters of inquiry addressed to the ALLIANCE HERALD will be answered promptly and in detail.

THAT monkey entertained the other day at dinner by the New York smart set is not the only monkey in society. We can find 'em nearer home.

FRANK L. COOMBS, who represents the first congressional district of California, is the only man in congress born on the Pacific coast. He was born in the Napa valley in 1853.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has fled from the cares of state at Washington and is enjoying peace and quiet at his summer home at Oyster Bay, New York. There, undisturbed, he can plan and dream of a second term. But it will be but a dream.

AFTER ten days of strife and turmoil, and entailing an estimated loss of $10,000,000 upon the business men of Chicago, the freight handlers of that city have surrendered and returned to work. There were Judases in their camp and no other alternative was left the strikers.

THE Fremont Tribune takes the pains to say that "There is a Corkish flavor about the name of Patrick H. Barry, the fusion nominee for congress in the Sixth district." We presume the Tribune would say that there is a Parisian flavor about the name of "Mickey," the republican nominee for governor of the state of Nebraska.—World-Herald.

THE Maine democrats propound a question that must be interesting to Chairman Babcock. They want to know why the "steel trust" should be charging Maine shipbuilders $1.65 for material which it is selling to British builders for 95 cents. Our republican contemporary, the Hartford Courant, referring to that inquiry from the democracy of Maine, says: "It is a pertinent question and a home question. A wiser republican congress, a more prudent republican congress would not have given the Maine democrats a chance to ask it." We are confident that Mr. Babcock agrees with the Courant as to the wisdom and imprudence of congress in this matter.—Washington Post.

THIS is the way the Lincoln Daily Post puts it and it sounds like we ourselves had written it: "Of one thing the Post is proud. Nebraska has a supreme court which is not afraid to do business. When the railway attorneys were urging a referee in the railway mandamus suit and when 'one side was afraid and the other da'st,' that court took all strings off everybody and said: 'Put in all the evidence you have, or think you have. This court knows what is competent and relates to the case, and such as is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and all balled up we will not consider, but hurry up. This is no time for technicalities, when we are taking original jurisdiction.'" Even the railway attorney took a tumble and the trial of the most important case ever before the supreme court was concluded in three days. Let us thank God for a court which has horse sense."

Uncle Sam, Engineer.

BEFORE many months the cartoonist will be putting Uncle Sam into an engine cab, hands on the throttle and long coat tails flying out over the tender. Your uncle is going to run a railroad all his own. As soon as the title of the French Panama company to its ditch and railroad at the isthmus is cleared up and Colombia consents to a treaty, the president is authorized to buy the whole outfit. And then Uncle Sam will make his original experiment in government ownership and operation of a railroad. It is not a long railroad, this Panama line. It is forty-seven and a half miles in length. It couldn't be any longer without sticking out over the ocean at one or both ends. But this railroad makes up for its lack of length by its width. Its gauge is five feet. Your Uncle Samuel proposes to run this railroad without the aid or consent of any other nation.—Omaha Daily News.

A Plain Statement.

In the face of the statement by democratic and populist newspapers that Mr. Thompson is not and never has been a railroad attorney, republican newspapers continue to assert that Mr. Thompson is a railroad attorney.

The following letter printed in the Crete Democrat is self explanatory:

Grand Island, Neb., July 3.—Mr. C. J. Bowlby, Crete Neb. Dear Sir and Friend: I received yours of the 2d inst. with the clipping from the Sterling Sun of July 1. Do you know I never could understand why some men will deliberately state a thing as a fact, which is derogatory to another man's character, without knowing anything about it. Men do this who would not for the world steal a penny from him, and yet without hesitancy, they attempt to steal from him that which is worth more than all the pennies that could be accumulated. I am not now, and never have been at any time engaged by any railroad corporation, either directly or indirectly, as attorney or otherwise, and never received one cent of fees. I noticed a squib of the same kind, purporting to have been clipped from some Sioux City, Ia., paper, printed in yesterday's Lincoln Journal. A lawyer's life, in a professional way, is an open book, hence, no one need go misinformed in regard to it. Thanking you for calling my attention to the same, I am, your's truly,
W. H. THOMPSON.

Mr. Thompson's statement is plain and emphatic and the republican editor who, in the face of this statement, insists upon charging Mr. Thompson with being a railroad lawyer, simply goes upon record as being wholly indifferent concerning his reputation for veracity.—World-Herald.

GENERAL KITCHENER is the present hero of the hour. How they come and how they go! It seems only yesterday that it was Wolesey. Then it was Roberts. Now it is Kithener. And if Kitchener goes into the war office it will soon be somebody else.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

BRYAN is dead and Bryanism a thing of the past, say the whoopers-up of the g. o. p. Yet the president of the United States has been appealed to and has accepted the appeal to tour through Nebraska this fall and make speeches in order to prevent the state from deserting the false colors to which it pinned its faith two years ago. Doesn't look like these apologists for kingly rule, for caste, for blue blood, for a titled aristocracy, believe in the truth of their assertions. If Bryan is dead, why urge the president to prostitute his high office by stooping to stomp the state? Bryan isn't dead, nor is Bryanism a thing of the past. Wait until after the Ides of next November, and then tell us that Bryan is dead; that railroad dictators, masquerading in the guise of legitimate suffragists, have become masters of the situation; that the common people have surrendered their birth right; that corporation rule is supreme; that never again shall the fair name of Nebraska be redeemed. Yes, tell us all this when the votes are counted next November, if the result justifies it; but don't tell it to us now.

RAILROAD managers are complaining that their new fast trains are not paying out, except in advertising the road's enterprise. This ought to be followed by a plea from the tax bureau for exempting from taxation all the high speed locomotives, palatial trains and improvements of roadbed to facilitate fast time, on the ground that they are an expense to the road rather than property which increases its value.—Omaha Bee.

GEN. JACOB H. SMITH, author of the "kill and burn" order in the Philippines, has been found guilty and sentenced to be "admonished by the reviewing authority." Roosevelt has "admonished" the gentleman and retired him from active service.

THE unequalled gameness and daring of the outlaw, Tracy, who for the past ten days has baffled the efforts of a thousand bloodhounds in Oregon and Washington to capture him, certainly entitles him to consideration if he should be apprehended later on.

Industrial America.

While America's population has increased about five-fold during the last century, the productive power of that population has increased forty-fold. Man for man, industrially considered, the American is twenty-five years ahead of the Englishman, who in turn is far ahead of his European neighbor. At this rate in 1920 there will be 110,000,000 Americans, with a working power equal to all the 350,000,000 people which Europe will then probably contain.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

IN about five years, when foreign nations want to fight, they'll have to borrow battleships from Mr. Morgan, with a guarantee that they will be returned in as good order as when loaned.

NONCOM men come and nonunion men go, but the Union Pacific strikers are holding the fort manfully.
