GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Receipts Are Moderate and Offerings Are Light.

CORN PRICES ARE STEADY

More Complaints Have Come In Regarding the Growing Crop in the Western Part of the Corn Belt.

OMAHA, July 20, 1912.

The weather is unsettled over part of the wheat belt again. Receipts are very moderate and offerings of wheat from the country are not heavy. Lowering of the rates from southwest points to the gulf will make it more difficult for buyers east of the Mississippi to buy hard winter wheat. The export sales yesterday were of a fair volume, including quite a little new hard wheat. Liverpool is resting easy on account of more favorable political news abroad. On the breaks we will run into export business, which will tend to make the market a two-sided affair. Domestic conditions could not be improved upon and a market of a trading character is expected, with a gradual dragging tendency, barring any change in the northwestern conditions.

The cash corn demand was good yesterday. Sales were 240,000 bushels, and prices were steadier with less corn offered. More complaints have come in regarding the corn condition in the western part of the belt, but prospects are still generally very favorable. The shorts were the best buyers yesterday. A steady trading market is looked for, with a big enough short interest to prove unwieldy at times and bring about fair rallies.

Liquidation has been very severe during the last week, with a sharp drop in prices, especially the near futures. Traders are inclined to favor the long side of the December and May options on weak spots.

Chicago received 115 cars of oats. The cash is fair but prospects are good for a big crop, and with favorable weather the new crop movement will soon be in a depressing circumstance.

Clearances were corn, 23,000 bushels; oats, 21,000 bushels and wheat and flour equal to 86,00 bushels.

Liverpool closed with wheat ½ to ⅝ lower and corn unchanged to ½ lower.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,119,000 bushels and shipments of 572,000 bushels against receipts last year of 1,438,000 bushels and shipments of 433,000 bushels.

Corn receipts were 398,000 bushels and shipments of 356,000 bushels against receipts last year of 324,000 bushels and shipments of 490,000 bushels.

Oats receipts were 290,000 bushels and shipments of 414,000 bushels against receipts last year of 704,000 bushels and shipments of 600,000 bushels.

Cash sales were reported as follows. Corn—No. 2 white, 1 car, 74c; No. 2 yellow: 1 car, 69c. No. 3 yellow: 9 cars, 69c. No. 4 yellow: 1 car, 67c; 1 car, 66½c. No. 2 mixed: 1 car, 69½c. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Big crop estimates took the place of the Dardanelles scare as the chief influence today in fixing the price of wheat. Accordingly, the marked closed heavy ⅜c to 1½c unedr last night. Corn finished unchanged to 1½c down. Oats varied from ⅜c of fto a shade advance and provisions were up 2½c to 10c.

Official notice that the closing of the Dardanelles had been deferred acted as a bearish lever at the start in the wheat trade, but was forgotten later when attention turned back to the crop outlook in the United States. A leading expert just returned from a tour of the northwest and southwest predicted a total yield of more than 700,000,000 bushels. He also raised his winter wheat estimate to about 400,000,000 bushels.

Reduced freight rates effective August 12 from Omaha and Kansas City to the gulf led to a little rally in wheat as indicating a better chance for export business. The effect faded, though, after there came the information that Kansas City was expecting receipts of nearly 1,000,000 bushels Monday. Statements that Nebraska would enter the lists next week, and had shipments already en route here pulled the market down hard in the final half hour. During the session September ranged from 92⅝c to 93⅝c, with last sales 93¼c, a decline of 1½c compared with yesterday.

Week-end covering by shorts held corn comparatively steady until late in the day, when values sagged on account of the rains in portions of Nebraska, where drouth complaints had been heard. September fluctuated between 64½c and 65⅝c, closing weak, ⅞c net lower at 64⅝c. Cash grades were only in fair demand. No. 2 yellow, 71½@71¾c. Wet weather in harvest sections helped the price of oats the greater part of the time. The market weakened at the end with other grain. September ranged between 33½c and 33¼c. The close, 33⅜c, represented a loss of ⅛@¼c net.

Packers received the credit for the persistent buying witnessed in provisions. The outcome was to raise pork 7½c to 10c, lard, 5c to 10c, and bacon, 2½@5c.
