CANTON.

B. C. Curtis was a visitor in his old neighborhood in Nonpareil precinct Friday.

George Zimmerman was in Alliance Friday and Saturday.

We learn that James Novotney has had a position offered him at Gretna, to take charge of his father-in-law, Mr. Hickey's, farm.

Rolla Shetler raised a windmill on the ranch he has taken in Sioux county Monday.

C. A. Lockwood received a five dollar bill as a birthday present from his oldest sister at Syracuse, N. Y., a few days ago. He says he enjoys such presents, if he was eighty years old June 15.

Mrs. Rustin of Hemingford was entertained by Miss Pearl Broshar Monday when attending the cattle sale at H. J. Winton's.

Mrs. C. A. Lockwood received a crate of fine strawberries this week from her daughter, Mrs. S. H. Wright, of Loveland, Colo.

Mrs. W. A. Hood has been rushing things this week finishing up the house on her claim, working six hands and two cooks Saturday.

Mr. Clayton, jr., was in Hemingford Saturday and on his way home sojourned over night with Arthur Bass.

J. Scott Hood enlarged his herd a few days ago by the addition of seven heifers to his already well selected herd.

We noticed among the crowd at the sale Monday, James Harry, Wm. Fosket, B. F. Johnson, K. L. Pierce and Mrs. Lora Rustin of Hemingford; C. E. Ball and wife, Lou Homrighaus and wife, Mr. Mehrikis and wife, Henry Shimek and Joe Wanek of Lawn.

MARSLAND.

The collection taken at the Presbyterian Sunday school on Children's day amounted to $4.19.

Will Nicholson of Whistle Creek spent a few days in town the latter part of the week.

B. H. Miller of Hazleton, Iowa, arrived here Thursday and will spend a few days on his ranch north of town.

Mrs. Kate Stanard came down from Belmont Friday to superintend the erection of a monument at her husband's grave in Marsland cemetery.

Morris Reed of Hough transacted business in town Saturday.

Chet Britton has purchased a heading and binding machine, which when it arrives will be set to work in John Sullenberger's rye field north of town for experimental work.

Byers & Zimmerman shipped a car of wood to Alliance Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tollman arrived home Friday and were treated to an old fashioned charivari that evening.

Mrs. L. T. Poole and children of Alliance, who had been here a fortnight visiting friends, returned to their home Monday.

Brakeman H. L. Richardson of Edgemont spent a few hours in town Friday. Bert likes the work first-rate and looks none the worse from the hard labor and loss of sleep.

C. G. Hollibaugh spent last week in Omaha.

The Misses Lena and Letha Richardson left Friday night for their home in Missouri.

Rev. Hammond went out to his Willow Creek appointment Saturday. This young man is proving himself to be no tenderfoot, having walked between fifty and sixty miles one week, visiting thirty families in Pine Ridge.

This valley was visited by a fine rain Saturday and Sunday which was not very badly needed.

A. E. Byers has been adjusting wire screens to the schoolhouse windows to protect the large glass from hail.

A small detachment of troops from Fort Robinson passed through here Thursday on their way to Alliance, returning Saturday. They were looking up camping places for the soldiers who expect to go to Alliance to assist in the Fourth of July celebration. They selected a camping place just east of the depot and engaged Landlord Riehey to have on the ground two and one-half tons of hay for the large number of horses ridden by the cavalry.

Linn Snow is quite ill with whooping cough.

Edward and Edna, twin children of A. E. Byers, are down with measles.

Mrs. Will Richardson and baby daughter arrived Monday from Omaha for a short visit with J. T. Richardson's family.

C. H. Riehey is having the Commercial hotel painted.

Mrs. Cheney of Crawford is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Kendrick.

Liveryman Syster of Crawford made a trip to this place Monday.

Mr. L. W. Gadsby, a local real estate man, was in the city Thursday.

Commissioners Proceedings.

ALLIANCE, NEB., June 9, 1903.

Board of county commissioners of Box Butte county, met as a board of equalization as required by law. Members present, Frank Cahra, chairman, George W. Duncan and George W. Loer, S. M. Smyser, county clerk, by D. K. Spacht, deputy.

The following proceedings were had entered on records:

Upon complaint of Eliza S. Bell, alleging that lot 10, block 5, original town of Alliance, was assessed too high; upon due consideration the board ordered that said lot be reduced from $300 to $250.

Upon complaint of George W. Regan that his stock and personal property was assessed twice, that is in Lake precinct and in Wright precinct; it is ordered by the board that his assessments as taken by the assessor of Wright precinct be stricken off and remain on the books as assessed in Lake precinct.

Upon the examination of the books of the commissioners it was found that G. F. Gerber was not assessed; it was ordered by the board that twenty head of horses of G. F. Gerber be assessed in Liberty precinct at a valuation of $141.

The balance of the day was spent by the board in examining the books of the different precincts and comparing the valuation of property.

Board adjourned until tomorrow at 9 o'clock a. m.
FRANK CAHRA, Chairman.
S. M. SMYSER, Clerk.
By D. K. SPACHT, Deputy.

ALLIANCE, NEB., June 10, 1903.

Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, same officers as on first day.

Upon complaint of F. E. Reddish that he was assessed in Boyd precinct for one horse and three head of cattle more than he has or owns; it is ordered by the board that his assessment be reduced from $27 to $6.

Upon complaint of B. Cavin alleging that lot 4, block 4, second addition to Alliance, was assessed too high; upon consideration whereof, the board ordered that assessment on said lot be reduced from $225 to $175.

Balance of day spent in examining different assessors books and comparing valuation of property.

Board adjourned until tomorrow at 9 a. m.
FRANK CAHRA, Chairman.
S. M. SMYSER, Clerk.
By D. K. SPACHT, Deputy.

ALLIANCE, NEB., June 11, 1903.

Board met pursuant to adjournment. Same officers and members as on previous day.

Upon complaint of B. F. Gilman alleging that lot 18, block 4, original town, was assessed too high; it is ordered by the board that said assessment be reduced from $250 to $225.

Upon complaint of W. G. Simonson alleging that lot 4, block 6, lot 6 and block 6, both in second county addition, was assessed too high; it is ordered by the board that said assessment be reduced on each lot from $175 to $150.

Upon complaint of J. R. Johnson alleging that the personal property of J. R. Johnson & Co. was assessed too high. It was found by the board that said stock was assessed its full value; it is therefore ordered by the board that said assessment be reduced from $2,500 to $625.

Upon complaint of D. W. Butler alleging that lot 3, block 10, second addition to Alliance, was assessed too low; also upon complaint of D. W. Butler that lot 8, block 1, original town of Alliance, was assessed too low; also upon complaint of W. C. Phillips alleging that lot 17, block 3, second county addition, was assessed too low; also that the personal property, stock of merchandise of J. F. Fleming was assessed too low; also upon complaint of Geo. E. Zimmerman alleging that the following were assessed too low: Thos. Beck, household goods; lot 16, county addition, Charles A. Anderson, owner; lot 15, county addition, F. E. Holsten, owner. It is ordered by the board that notice of these complaints be given to these several parties, citing them to appear before the board June 16, 1903, at 10 o'clock a. m., and show cause why same should stand as originally assessed by the several assessors.

Upon complaint of Cora Bayse alleging that the lot 13, county addition, was assessed too high; it is ordered by the board that said assessment be reduced from $350 to $200.

Whereupon board adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.
