The above bargains are here. Our efforts to please you is our constant aim, and in spite of the lateness of the season and other unfavorable weather conditions, we are pleased at the increase that our business shows over last year. This new store has been in Alliance just a little over one year and we are justly proud of our first year's business. In that time we have forged a LEADERSHIP and we have clinched it.

HEMINGFORD.
[Keith L. Pierce is fully authorized to solicit subscriptions and job work and collect and receipt for same, and transact all other business in connection with his position as an accredited representative of this paper.]
Mrs. W. K. Hernal has gone to the ranch at Hecla.
The Big Double Stars is the right place to buy the right goods at the right price.
Joe Hernal suffered the loss of the mare injured in the Harlow collar.
Miss Almela Fosket came up from Alliance Tuesday, returning the same day.
Don't forget to get that pair of shoes for the asking of it.—WILDY.
Some of the younger girls attending the normal at Alliance from this place are Nellie and Elta Carter, Nettie Ulrich, Jean Rustin and Clara Nageschneider.
Mrs. A. D. Millett is spending the week at Hot Springs.
Are you losing cattle with the black leg? If so, save them by calling at Funk's Pharmacy and getting a bottle of those Black-leg-olds.
Mrs. W. A. Randall was in Hemingford Tuesday.
Quite a number from this vicinity will celebrate in Alliance this year. The colored troops will camp the day before and after the Fourth here. It may be interesting to note the difference in their appearance before and after celebrating.
When you are in Hemingford don't forget to call and see us. If we are acquainted we will be glad to see you and if we are not acquainted we will be glad to make your acquaintance.—FUNK'S PHARMACY.
Mr. and Mrs. Kidwell entertained a few friends at dinner Sunday.
Isaac Roelke has had some extensive repairing done on his buildings.
Mr. Thompson, the new Congregational minister, is a pleasing gentleman to meet and one who ought to be able to build a strong church of this denomination in the community. We understand that he has spent several years as a missionary in China, leaving there immediately after the Boxer uprising with a baby only two months old to care for, his wife having died in the Chinese interior.
"Say, fellow, where did you get all those nice fireworks for the Fourth?" "Why, at Funk's Pharmacy. He has the nicest line in town."
Joseph Kaper went to Western, Saunders county, Wednesday evening for a few days' visit. We would not be very greatly surprised if there were two of Joe on his return. A person never can tell.
Calvin J. Wildy has an up-to-date method of handling heating stoves but one to be let alone strictly. He endeavored to balance a stove on a single iron rod. It slipped and he slipped, he alighting on his neck and back. Cal will not be around town for a week or ten days.
Three new pianos for sale at bargains.—WILDY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bennett were down from Marsland Monday.
Laura and Glen Mounts accompanied Miss Grace Wheeler home from Alliance Monday for a few days' visit.
The Seventh Day Adventists are holding a big campmeeting at Hot Springs. Many of the denomination from this vicinity are in attendance. The meetings will continue all this week and the Tuesday of next week.
Little Beatrice Fenner, daughter of B. L. Fenner, has been quite ill this week with whooping cough. Dr. Bellwood of Alliance was called and remained nearly all day with her. For a time her life was despaired of but at this writing she is believed to be out of all danger.
Fred Neeland and wife were in town Wednesday.
Mrs. Rustin spent Monday in Liberty precinct, the guest of Miss Pearl Broshar.
A new Metzow organ for sale or trade.—WILDY.
John Moravek was in from the ranch Wednesday.
George Fendrich shipped a car of cattle to Omaha Monday. This is the first load shipped from here this season.
W. F. Walker and H. H. Funk went to Alliance to attend the Roberson lecture Thursday evening and missed No. 41 on which they were intending to return. As a result they drove back.
Remember the best sack of flour in Nebraska for $1.05. Ask for prices in larger quantities.—WILDY.
Warnie Millett has been employed by H. H. Funk as clerk. Warnie is a steady, industrious young man and will, we prophesy, give excellent satisfaction. Warnie's cousin, Rupert Walker, has taken the place as helper in the creamery. Rupert may be a little small in stature but he is all there when it comes to work. We are always glad to mention boys who rustle around and get jobs. They will make men of resource.
James Kennedy's sale, owing to the small crowd, did not take place as advertised last Monday.
If you want the right kind of paint or oil at the right kind of price, call at Funk's Pharmacy.
Mrs. Matilda Hood will sell eighty-five head of grade cattle at her ranch, notice of which appears elsewhere in this paper, next Tuesday, June 30, at 9:30 o'clock. The crowd should gather early to allow the sale to begin as early as possible. A free lunch will be given at noon. If you want some stock which is way better than the average, attend this sale. Stuff will all be disposed of to bona fide bidders according to terms of sale, as we understand it.
Mrs. Elmore returned to Alliance last week.
Claude Humphry of Alliance had charge of the Piper funeral.
Clyde Rhodes left for Alliance and Sheridan last week.
Ernest Olson is again engaged on the dry line.

C. E. Connell and wife and Dr. Eikner attended the Roberson lecture in Alliance.
Dr. Eikner is enclosing with a barb wire fence two tracts of land fronting on Box Butte avenue on the west side of the avenue and between Nebraska avenue and Center street. The doctor expects to fix these up as parks with drives and pleasant walks for moonstruck lovers to walk on as they enjoy evening strolls. He will in due end, so we are credibly informed, donate them to the city.
Mrs. Multhead spent several days here with her parents this week.
Rev. Dr. Horn, traveler and lecturer, will address the people on the general subject of his travels next Tuesday evening, June 30. Dr. Horn is a talented man, fully able to describe the varied scenes and experiences through which he passed on his world encircling trip. Education derived from books cannot be compared with education gained from travel and rubbing up against men and things in all parts of the globe. All cannot travel and attain this education at first hand; but all ought to welcome the opportunity to hear a great favorite like Dr. Horn tell them of these things in his own inimitable way. It will be the next thing to making the trip in person.
Miss Carrie Bushnell accompanied friends to Hot Springs last week.
The Columbia Fire Insurance Co. of Omaha has paid John H. Shirk $25 as damage on his store, scorched slightly in fire of May 21. The payment has been prompt and in full of all claims. The Columbia is an old line company and has many thousand dollars insurance in force on cattle, horses and sheep in the county as well as considerable on farm and city property. Prompt adjustment and the payment of all just claims will be bound to gain for the company a large business.
Edward Tibb Piper died at the Fosket home in this village Wednesday evening, June 24, 1903, shortly after 9 o'clock. He had been in failing health the past two years and during the last three or four weeks he grew weaker and the end, which came peacefully, was not unexpected. He was born in Belmont, Ohio, in November, 1815, and was almost eighty-eight years of age. He was married early in life to Miss Lydia Denton. There are four surviving children: Mrs. Wm. Fosket and E. D. Piper, both of Hemingford; Mrs. Hill, who lives in Illinois; and Mrs. Becker of Portland, Ore. He enlisted as a private during the civil war and entering the medical branch of the service, became a surgeon. After his honorable discharge from the army he moved to Bennett, Neb., where he lived until coming here to reside. He had made his home for the past several years with Mrs. Wm. Fosket. Mr. Piper was a member of the G. A. R. and he was proud to be enrolled in the organization, requesting that his Grand Army badge be buried with him. It pleased him very much last Memorial Day when the veterans came in a body to shake hands with him. He had lived long beyond the time allotted to man and death came not so much from disease as from old age. He was a kind, generous and steady man, a true friend. To the last he retained constant and loving attention from Mrs. Fosket and E. D. Piper. As he had done unto others, others did unto him. Those who knew him in his younger days before his splendid powers of mind and body began to wane best appreciate the nobility of his character and the breadth and scope of his life. The remains were taken to Bennett, where many of the most pleasant associations of his life were formed and there tenderly laid to rest in his old friends and neighbors, E. D. Piper accompanying.

We wish to extend our most heartfelt thanks to the people of Hemingford for help and sympathy during the sickness and death of our beloved father.—E. D. PIPER, Mrs. Wm. Fosket.
Acheson & Joder.
The hardware men, sell the only cattle dip, Car-Sul, for lice, itch and mange. See them if you want to clean up your cattle.
