Pawnees Win Another.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Aug. 12.—The Pawnees played under a new management, and celebrated the change by taking their ninth straight game from Grand Island. Jake Kraninger, manager of the winning Auburn team, at the time the Mink league league broke up last June, is now at the head of the locals. Red Smyth, the former pilot has been repurchased by Lincoln. Kraning is an old timer in base ball, and has made a splendid impression on the fans since his acquirement from Auburn. In today's game, the locals ran bases almost at will, neither of the Brewer's two cathchers being able to peg anywhere near second or third. With one man on base, in the fifth inning, Schoonover sent the ball over the center field fence for a home run. The score:
