GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Liverpool Wheat Market Leads the World on Prices.

FARMERS ARE HOLDING CORN

Not Disposed to Offer Yellow Cereal Only at the Higher Prices—Forecasts Are Buying Oats for Exportation.

OMAHA, Aug. 18, 1914.

The Liverpool wheat market led the grain world yesterday. While closings were at advances of ⅝@⅞c for the day on buying by shorts, the market was fair and purchases of wheat changed the situation entirely. The speculative world continued to keep a close watch on wheat futures by big market of U. S., where there were losses of 3d for futures and 1 6½d for spots. An enormous run of receipts is expected in the U. K. and it is also expected that prices will be carried downward in that country.

It is expected by the trade in wheat there will be a continuation of heavy sales of futures here as well as in the smaller markets against the actual grain now being carried by exporters who cannot send the wheat from the country. Bankers in some instances are said to be demanding the funds now tied up in wheat, which means that hedging transactions will increase.

The more conservative grain men at Minneapolis say that the new crop of wheat has commenced to come into the pit there in the way of hedge, but it is being well taken care of by millers and others, who feel that a great deal of wheat will be needed from this time forward for the manufacture of flour. The price of flour declined 50c yesterday from the highest level reported in the war scare and the Minneapolis millers were offering to sell hard spring wheat patent at $6.10 yesterday, without buyers. This was in wood, and in lots to suit.

It was reported late yesterday that Russia will permit the exports of breadstuffs into Great Britain.

That the country is not placing its corn on the bargain counter was indicated by the manner in which offerings from first hands dried up yesterday. As long as prices were up near the top the farmers showed a willingness to part with some of their grain, but the continued decline during the latter part of last week had its effect and offerings from the country were very small. This, with the strong southwest markets and hot weather complaints, stimulated buying of futures yesterday and the market rallied from a weak opening. The buying was of good character.

The fact that foreigners are buying our oats was the all important factor in the oats market yesterday. Export sales were reported to be over 500,000 bushels, and there was also a good demand for cash oats here from the east. An increase of over 5,000,000 bushels, the week in the visible took the wind out of the bulls sails for a few minutes, but the market soon recovered and resting spots of the day were ⅜@⅝c better than Saturday.

Provisions sympathized with hogs yesterday but the markets stiffened up later. Trading was light and without feature, with commission houses picking up product on weak spots. The decrease in lard and pork stocks, as shown in semimonthly statement, caused some surprises and the trade was also concerned over the fact that the weekly lard exports were over 7,000,000 pounds.

Wheat was 2⅛ to 4c higher.

Corn was 1⅝ to 2c higher.

Oats were 1 to 1½c higher.

Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 507,000 bushels; corn, 3,000 bushels; oats, 7,000 bushels.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,496,000 bushels and shipments 1,308,000 bushels, against receipts of 1,043,000 bushels and shipments of 625,000 bushels last year.

Primary corn receipts were 942,000 bushels and shipments 429,000 bushels, against receipts of 482,000 bushels and shipments of 258,000 bushels last year.

Primary oats receipts were 1,583,000 bushels and shipments 811,000 bushels, against receipts of 1,057,000 bushels and shipments of 526,000 bushels last year.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Board of Trade markets, inspired mainly by a marked improvement in the export situation, advanced strongly today, led by wheat which scored a net gain of 4½c. Corn advanced 1⅝c to 2⅛m; oats, 1⅛c to 1½c and provisions 10c to 25c.

Wheat wasat its lowest at the opening on local selling, but strength developed immediately. The bullish factors were the liberal purchase by New York banks of bills for export grain; the arrangement whereby one New York bank will finance shipments to England and another those to France; the sale at New York yesterday and today of 1,000,000 bushels to England; smaller export sales at Chicago and Kansas City; good flour demand; disappointing threshing returns from the northwest, and a reduction in the world's available supply of 2,217,000 bushels as compared with a 7,000,000 bushel increase a year ago.

In corn there were the additional influences of dry weather reports from Kansas, Missouri and Iowa confirmed by state and federal authorities, and light country offerings of old corn.

There was a good big market for oats stimulated by export demand, and trading was on thebroadest scale since the beginning of the war in Europe.

Heavy sales to eastern exporters were reported. The country showed no disposition to sell.

Summary of weather and crop conditions in corn and wheat region for week ending August 17, 1914:

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18, 1914.

The last week's weather was favorable for spring wheat harvest and threshing. In the winter wheat belt, east of the Mississippi river, generous rains put the soil in good condition for plowing, but the weather continues too dry generally to the westward. In the corn belt, east of the Mississippi river, the outlook has improved, especially the late planted, but to the westward drouth continues in Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa, and with hot winds, the latter caused deterioration in corn condition. Local rains improved the condition in Kansas. Pastures are greatly improved in the eastern districts, but are generally short or burned out in the central and northern districts to the westward of the Mississippi river. The tobacco outlook is generally improved, and cutting and curing is in progress.
