OMAHA SUBJECT OF LINCOLN PAGEANT

"The Gate City" Is Title of Second Annual Pageant to Be Held in Capital City.

RITUAL OF INDIAN TRIBE

"The Gate City" is the subject of the second annual "Pageant of Lincoln," to be presented June 5 and 6, under auspices of the Lincoln Commercial club and the University of Nebraska, in connection with the university commencement.

Neat illustrated announcements of this event contain this reference to Omaha, whose history will be depicted in pageantry: "The city of Omaha, in its name, preserves the name of one of the most famous of Indian tribes, and the one now most important within the boundaries of the state. It is fitting, therefore, that a distinctive and beautiful ritual of this tribe should form the subject of the first part of the pageant of 1916."

The first part is "The Sacred Tree of the Omaha Tribe," and will represent the Omaha tribal legend of the finding of a miraculously illuminated tree, which served as a symbol of unification and peace when the tribe was threatened with disruption and war.

Skyscraper Picnic For Building Owners

A "skyscraper picnic" is planned by Manager Edwin S. Jewell for the members of the Building Owners' and Managers' association of Omaha. Last year President Sweet took the members and their ladies to King's lake for a day's fishing and boating. President Jewell this year plans sometime in June to give the members an elevator ride in the City National Bank building, and a picnic on the roof following.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Short Skirt Will Be With Us Yet, Are Reassuring Words of Tailors

CINCINNATI, O., May 14.—The short skirt will continue to be worn next fall, according to the report of the style committee of the National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' association, adopted at the annual convention here today.

In connection with the short skirt the report says:

"Its smartness and youthful appearance makes its popularity universal."

According to the report the fall suits will consist of three varieties. The plain tailored type, the short type and the more dressy variety.

The plain type will be either single or double breasted with some flare to the coat skirt. It will be from finger length to slightly longer.

The short type will be varied with pleats and shirrings at the waistline held in by belts, with high collar and simple sleeves. The length of the coat will range between finger tip to a point half way between finger tip and knee length.

The dressier suits will have large collars with shoulder cape effects when opened and laid back, high cuffs and fancy cuffs of the bell variety. Some will have vest fronts.

Trimmings will be diversified. Fur edgings, fur collars, velvets, tailor braids and embroidery will be most prominently used.

Phil Hall Boosting For Citizens' Camp For Army Training

As the climax of a day spent in Omaha Gen. Phil. L. Hall of Lincoln, who came to the city late Friday night for consideration of military matters, gave a dinner Saturday to a number of friends in the National Guard and discussed the question of a new armory. The Omaha officers reported on several sites which might possibly be obtained, but after considerable talk the matter was finally laid over until the latter part of this week when Gen. Hall will visit the city again and probably decide upon a site.

Things are so much in the air, he said, that he preferred not to say where the prospective sites are until he has found out whether he can really get them or not.

Those attending the dinner, besides Gen. Hall, were the following: Col. E. Bache, Fourth infantry; Maj. M. Eisenacer, Fourth infantry; Maj. E. E. Shinsecker, Fifth infantry; Capt. J. V. Todd, Fourth infantry; Capt. F. C. Yates, Fourth infantry; Capt. C. W. Hamilton, Fourth infantry; Capt. E. T. Harris, Fourth infantry; Capt. R. McMillin of the Aviation corps.

Earlier in the day Gen. Hall was the guest of Col. Gould Dietz of the governor's staff in a tour about the city, in the course of which Gen. Hall was introduced to a new colonel, Gonzales Bingham, who recently came to the city from Texas. The party also visited Fort Omaha.

Gen. Hall is still enthusiastic for a citizens' training camp and reports great interest being taken in the matter throughout the state.

GOES TO BAHAMA ISLANDS FOR CURE FOR HIS ASTHMA

Frank Hershey of Gibbon, Neb., formerly in the sheep feeding business, arrived in Omaha from the Bahama islands, where he has been stopping two months in the hope of getting relief from asthma. Though his improvement was not marked in the short time he remained there, he is ready to vouch for the climate as unsurpassed.

"But that is all they have there," he added.

Mr. Hershey is somewhat cynical about getting relief from his affliction by traveling anywhere, though he said he tried the state of Washington with favorable results, last year.

"What did you hear about the war?" asked the reporter. "The Bahamas are British possessions."

"I didn't hear the war mentioned," said Mr. Hershey.

Mr. Hershey is stopping at the Castle hotel. He may remain here for several days.

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Stones Have Life, Is the Assertion of Visiting Theosophist

An unusually good audience, despite the rainy weather, marked the Saturday night lecture of Irving S. Cooper, the national lecturer of the Theosophical society at the Theosophic hall, Bee building. The subject treated was "The Living Universe," and in the course of his address Mr. Cooper took up the connection between what is commonly spoken of as organic and inorganic matter, the living and the non-living.

"Life is everywhere," he said, "for what has been usually thought to be non-living—the minerals, earths and metals—are all vibrating incessantly and intensely and respond in exactly the same way to stimuli as do the vegetable and animal kingdoms.

"Science is beginning to realize that it was a mistake to think of a chasm as existing between the organic and inorganic. The latter in reality possesses a rudimentary form of life, a dim sort of consciousness."

This morning at 11 o'clock Mr. Cooper lectures on "Changing Ideals and the Testing of the Churches," while at 8 o'clock in the evening he speaks on "The Garment of God." The last lecture is illustrated by over one hundred exquisitely colored lantern slides. Both lectures are free.

Ak-Sar-Ben Hustlers Booming Membership

Floats for the historical parade of Ak-Sar-Ben are to be stored in the big balloon house at Fort Omaha until they are needed for the big daylight pageant. Not all of the floats will be stored there, but this will afford an outlet for some of them, so that the Den will have room for the remainder.

Work on the floats is progressing all the time with a big force of men at work under the direction of Gus Renze.

There are 1,470 members of Ak-Sar-Ben to date.

When there are thirty more the hustling committee hustling them in is to be taken to see a base ball game by Frank D. Judson, chairman of the committee. Judson promised this some weeks ago, and the boys are going to accept as soon as they hike the membership to 1,500.

June 5 is the opening night of the Den show.

The whole chorus of singers is to rehearse again Monday evening.

WOMAN IS ACCUSED AS SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER

Hazel Buerns, 1220 Davenport street, was arrested last night by Detectives Rooney and Murphy of the police department, and charged with being a suspicious character. According to the statements made by the detectives, Miss Buerns was caught robbing Charles Johnson of Blair, Neb., of $20. Johnson was unable to give the police his story at the time and is held as a complaining witness.

HOSPITAL OBSERVES SILVERANNIVERSARY

Methodist Institution Holds Exercises Commemorating Twenty-Five Years' Growth.

INCIDENTS OF THE EARLY DAYS

In a very informal way the nurses and members of the executive board of the Nebraska Methodist hospital observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of its establishment Saturday.

From fifty to seventy-five persons were present, including largely nurses, deaconesses, trustees and other friends of the hospital.

First on the program was a poem by Miss Anna Lund, summing up what has been done by the hospital in a quarter of a century. Then there was music on the piano by Misses Marie Hancock and Mayo Morrissette. A song by John Lynch followed. Rev. George A. Luce made an address touching on the accomplishments during the long lapse of years. Others making addresses were C. M. Dawson and C. W. DeLamatre.

Miss Lulu Milliman recited a pleasing selection, and there was a song by Miss Amy Allison. Refreshments added to the pleasure of the evening.

Started in 1891.

The hospital was started in 1891, with Miss Allie P. Fulmer, now Mrs. McLaughlin, in charge, in a little old building, with a mansard roof on Twentieth street, south of Harney. There were then but about twenty beds. Then, as now, the hospital was open to everybody, as long as there was room for those who might need attendance. Within five years there was a demand for more space. The main room of the present building was erected in 1908, with additions from time to time, the last addition, a wing of considerable dimensions, being constructed in 1913. In the old days there were few employes, and Miss Jennie Cavanaugh, one of the deaconesses at present, won a considerable reputation as a plumber.

Strong Financially.

The institution now has a capacity of about 140 beds, and they are filled nearly all the time. The hospital has a capital of about $300,000. Dr. A. F. Jonas being one of the heaviest contributors.

The members of the board include George A. Luce, president; M. L. Stone, secretary; C. W. DeLamatre, for fourteen years president and for twenty years a member of the board, vice president; and James Modge, treasurer.

There are about seventy nurses employed at the hospital. The medical corps includes Drs. Harold Gifford, J. M. Patton, Potts and Coulfas, oculists, and W. O. Bridges, J. C. Moore, N. M. McClenahan, Alfred Shalek and J. M. Allen on the general staff.

Rev. U. G. Brown is district superintendent.

Yesterday afternoon Jonathan Mellen presented Mrs. McLaughlin with an offering of silver and flowers. Trinity Methodist church also sent a bouquet of flowers.

Yesterday morning the nurses gave Mrs. McLaughlin a handsome pin, and other friends made up for her a purse of $35.
