CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION

Miles Elected Delegates.

The republican congressional convention held in this city yesterday was well attended, nearly every county in the district being represented. M. P. Kinkaid was re-nominated for congress and E. C. Harris of Chadron and W. P. Miles of Sidney were elected delegates to the national convention. Mr. Kinkaid was expected to attend the convention but a message was received stating that he was unable to come. The convention was called at 2 p, m. and adjourned at 5. In the evening a smoker was given the delegates by the Business Men's club which was a pleasant affair. Alliance always entertains her guests most hospitably and the visitors expressed themselves in the warmest terms of their reception on this occasion.
