PRINCE LOREE EQUALS RECORD AND WINS RACE

Tavern "Steak" at Cleveland Captured by Outsider in Betting; Fast Time Made in Other Events.

Cleveland, O., July 11.—Prince Loree, an outsider in the betting, won the $3,000 Tavern "steak," the feature of the Grand Circuit racing card at North Randall track today, taking the first and third heats from Allan Watts, which ruled an equal favorite with Czar Peter. The time for the first heat equaled the stake record of 2:06¼.

A crowd estimated to have been a record-breaking one attended today's races. Not a favorite won.

Hollywood Bob, a son of Peter The Great, owned by Dodge Bros. of Lexington, Ky., trotted the fastest mile ever recorded by a 3-year-old on the local track by taking the second heat of the third division of the Fasig sweepstakes in 2:04¾.

Lu Princeton, second choice in the betting, won the 2:05 trotting sweepstakes from Royal Mac. By trotting the mile in 2:04½, Lu Princeton made the fastest mile of the season. Miss Directed was beaten only by a stride.

In the 2:17 pace, Belle Alcantara won easily from the favorite, Hal H.

Germany Must Fight For Self Preservation, Asserts Von Hertling

Paris, July 11.—Speaking before the main committee of the reichstag today Imperial Chancellor von Hertling said that there would be no change in the foreign policy of the empire, citing as proof of this the German answer to the note from Pope Benedict, according to advices from Basel.

"Before the persistent will of the enemy to destroy her, manifested recently by the speeches of President Wilson and Foreign Secretary Balfour," he said, "Germany, although ready to accept a proposition for serious negotiations, must go on fighting."

The imperial chancellor concluded his remarks by saying that the replacing of Foreign Secretary Von Kuehlmann was only a personal matter.

BARRISTERS JAR COURT DIGNITY IN FIELD OUTING

Ball Game Ends 123 to 118; Wrestling and Bogey in Order; 130 Attend Banquet.

The dignity of the bench was forgotten and all manner of contempt of court was indulged in freely Thursday at the annual field day of the Omaha Bar association. The barristers took their annual opportunity of putting it over the justices before whom they have to bow for the rest of the year.

Attorney Ben Baker maintains a respectful attitude toward supreme court justices in court, and carefully observes judicial amenities, but when he got his chance Thursday afternoon he just tore into W. C. Parriott of Lincoln, supreme court commissioner, and Associate Justice of the Supreme Court W. B. Rose and won a crushing decision at pitching quoits. And his team mate was Grant G. Martin, supreme court commissioner.

Commissioner Parriott and Supreme Court Justice James Dean were just as unmerciful to the tender feelings of the attorneys on the base ball field as they are often thought to be in the court room. Each knocked out a home run at indoor baseball and Ty Cobbed his way about the bases without a sign of judicial dignity.

All Bow to Umpire.

The base ball game between the Switzler Congressionals and the Crossman Cubs was unmarked by any of the wrangles that are popularly supposed to distinguish gatherings of lawyers. Instead a most humble acquiescence in the decisions of the unpire was noticeable.

Some of the pleaders displayed great skill at the national pastime, too. W. A. Horton, who covered first base for the Switzler nine, played two whole innings with a cigar in his mouth, and even ran down a base runner in a pickle between first and second bases without once removing the weed from between his teeth.

But the lawyers finally wearied of running the bases and the game was stopped by agreement at the end of the fourth inning. The score keeper vowed then that the score stood 123 to 118 in favor of the Switzler Congressionals.

Blind bogey contests on the golf links, approaching and putting contests and a special putting contest for men who had never played golf before, were other features of the afternoon's entertainment. Dinner was held at 7:15 p. m., with 130 present. It was followed by two wrestling matches and two boxing matches.

Ray Opposes "Unknown."

Tom Ray opposed an unknown in the first exhibition wrestling match. The two Johnston boys, aged 6 and 8 years, then put on a fast exhibition of wrestling. Denny Ryan, Knights of Columbus athletic director at Fort Omaha, and Corporal Henderson of Fort Omaha, staged a boxing match. This was followed by three rounds between the 12-year-old Gibson twins.

The guests of the barristers included Chief Justice Andrew M. Morrissey, Associate Justices Charles B. Letton, W. B. Rose and James Dean; Supreme Court Commissioners Grant G. Martin and W. C. Parriott; Attorney General Willis B. Reed; Judge Corcoran of York; Clerk of the Supreme Court Lindsay; Supreme Court Reporter Stoddard; all of the district judges of Douglas county and the three municipal judges.

The committee in charge of the field day was composed of Yale Holland, R. A. Van Orsdel, W. C. Fraser, Raymond M. Crossman and Robert M. Neely.

STATE GOLFERS' TOURNAMENT IS DUE FOR SUCCESS

Already More Entries Than Last Year; Entire Proceeds Will Go to the Red Cross Fund.

More entries have already been received for the Nebraska State Golf association tournament, which will be held at the Happy Hollow club, July 15 to 20, than the total number recorded last year. Enthusiasm for the Red Cross, to which the proceeds will go, is the reason. Last year there were 226 entries. This year, with out-of-town clubs still to be heard from, there are already 261 entries.

Happy Hollow leads, with a total of 150 entries out of a membership of 500. Seymour lake comes next, with 51 entries out of a membership of 300. The Field club has 35 entries, Country club 13 and Miller park 5.

The Council Bluffs Rowing association has only one entry. This is not a lack of interest, but is due to the fact that an extremely large percentage of the membership of this club, including practically all the younger golf players, have gone to war.

It is expected that the number of entries will be very much larger when the later returns come in, as there is considerable rivalry among the Omaha clubs to lead in percentage of members entered. A good number is expected from the state clubs.

Army and Navy to Mix Sunday at Rourke Park

The first army and navy base ball game of the season will be played Sunday afternoon in Rourke's park. Both have strong teams. The navy boys have only lost one game this season and the army boys are almost invincible. More than 10,000 spectators are expected to attend the game.

OMAHA MUNICIPAL GUARD NUMBERS 500

Organization Planning Week's Outing Near Park; Swimming Contests on the Program.

Omaha boasts a municipal guard of 500 members, said to be the largest municipal military organization in the country, and only in its second year. The staff consists of Commandant L. C. Mathers, Lt. Col. R. Wood, Majors W. Boyer, W. Campen, C. Hall and R. Fernald and 12 captains.

The most important meeting of the year was held Thursday evening in park offices, city hall, when all the officers were present. It was reported that companies have been started at the following parks: Miller, Fontenelle, Kountze, Florence, Gifford, Dundee, Jefferson Square, Hanscom, Mandan, Clearview, Riverview, Spring Lake and Benson. All these companies are placed in three battalions and in one Omaha regiment whose headquarters is in the city hall.

Preparations for a week's camp are under way. The camp this year will be located near one of the Omaha parks where there is a swimming pool. Daily swims are part of the routine as well as being a part of the military tactics.

Although it has not been decided definitely whether the boys will wear gray or khaki uniforms, it is the opinion of the majors that the gray will be chosen.

In answer to questions by one of the captains concerning the purpose of the municipal guards, Recreation Director J. Isaacson said they are not competing with the Boy Scouts, being organized to entertain the boys
