Australian Champion Beats Her Own Swimming Record

San Francisco, July 21.—Fanny Durack, Australia's champion swimmer, swam 200 yards in two minutes and 37 seconds here tonight in an exhibition event for the benefit of the Red Cross, beating her own world's record two minutes 39 2-5 seconds.

Mina Wylie, also from Australia, in exhibition, equalled her own world's record of 1:28 2-5 for the 100 yards in the breast stroke.

Their time will not be recognized officially, as amateur athletic rules require that records, to be accepted, must be made in competition.

Evans and Wood Beaten In Match at St. Paul

St. Paul, Minn., July 21.—James Hutchinson, professional at the Glenview club, Chicago, and Walter Hagen, Detroit professional, defeated Chick Evans, national open and amateur champion, and Warren K. Wood an amateur, three up, and two to play in an 18-hole match here Saturday. More than $3,000 was raised for the Fatherless Children of France fund.

Pa Rourke Hikes to Farm To Forget Diamond Worries

Pa Rourke, owner of the Omaha franchise in the now defunct—temporarily at least—Western league, leaves today for his farm in Colorado where he will devote the rest of the season to harvesting his crop. Pa hopes to forget base ball for a while out there. Mrs. Rourke will join Pa later.

SOME PENNANTS NAILED DOWN IN AMATEUR RACE

Local Sandlotters to Meet This Week to Stir Up Interest in Amateur Leagues.

1918 PENNANT WINNERS.

American League, Class B, Sample-Harts.
Booster League, Class C, J. B. Roots.
Inter-City League, Class C, Daily News.
City League, Class B, Nat. Cash Registers.
Greater Omaha League—Undecided.

By FRANK QUIGLEY.

The base ballists hereabouts took a vacation yesterday, that is most of them. Undoubtedly the torrid weather was responsible for their lack of speed. Only six duets were booked in the various leagues, one independent game.

Now you fellows that are interested in keeping the game charged with electricity should all slip around to the city hall Tuesday night, where a special meeting has been called by President Isaacson, the purpose of which is to stimulate amateur base ball and organize a couple of leagues. The reason for organizing the leagues is to help the managers, who find it a difficult matter to book games. All are cordially invited to attend this talkfest. Some say it is deeds not words that count, but a good line of chatter at said meeting would probably be a knockout.

Armours Beat Murphys.

Yesterday the Armours endeavored to make the Murphy Did Its as much out of place as a barrel of old Taylor at a woman's suffrage picnic. Before a fair crowd at Luxus park these two teams bumped each other.

Old warhorse Andy Graves was trotted out for mound duty and he did a regular job of curving the cherry. In the initial round the Murphys planted one run and this was all they unearthed, while the Armours managed to push three counters over the crockery. During this argument the southtown crew failed to chalk up an error. The C. B. Longeways also woke up after losing a few games and locked one yesterday and the Krajiceks footed the Holmes White Sox and hotfooted away with the grapes. The Holmes feel like a bunch of kindling wood today—all broke up.

The Greater Omaha league race is a regular one now. The Murphys still have a one game lead. Second place is tied, three teams being evenly hooked up, namely, C. B. Longeways, Armours and Krajiceks. The C. B. Metcalfs are at the half way mark and the Beselins still are lodged in the cellar. The wrestling match between Queen of southtown and Tom Wrey at Holmes park was won by Tom Wrey. It was a nifty match lasting approximately twenty-five minutes.

Yesterday before a large crowd the National Cash Registers cinched the pennant of the City league when they defeated Morris & company, by the score of 8 to 6. The pennant was presented by Arthur Moran, municipal umpire. The Sample Harts, champions of the American league will be their opponents in the very immediate future to decide the class B championship.

Although sensational stunts happened during bouts of the Inter-city league and Booster league teams, the scores went skyward. The duel between the Dreshers and Daily News resulted in the Dreshers being cleaned by a 10 to 1 score.

The Krajicek jrs., whipped the Parsley Commission company by a 13 to 0 score. During this tangle Earl Beers (a familar name) only allowed two hits. In the Daily News Dresher clash, George Bernstein and Ralph Spellman were the particular stars with the club, each cornering three hits, one for three cushions.

Murphys Go Against Armours And Lose Chance for Pennant

The Armours put a crimp in the pennant aspirations of the Murphys leaders of the Greater Omaha league when Sunday they won, 3 to 1.

Andy Graves of the Murphys was well backed up by his teammates, they playing an errorless game. Timely hitting by J. Collins, Corcoran and Williams decided the game. J. Collins, Synek and Hay did great batting. The fielding of Corcoran, Williams, Gillham, Ryan and M. Collins was particularly brilliant, while Synek, Rushenberg and Hay starred for the Murphys. The score:

ORDER OF BAKER PUTS BASE BALL UP AGAINST IT

Some League Teams Disband for Season, While Others Hold Out and Will Play Until Further Notice.

Chicago, July 21.—While indications tonight were that professional base ball will be suspended by major league magnets at the meetings to be held this week as a result of Secretary of War Baker's decision to class base ball as nonessential under the "work or fight" regulations, orders were issued to keep playing until further notice. The American closed its season today and awarded the pennant to Kansas City.

American league owners, the majority of whom were said to favor closing their parks at once, will meet tomorrow at Cleveland.

To Play Until Further Notice.

President John
