GEERS ADDS TWO MORE VICTORIES TO HIS LONG LIST

Veteran Wins 2:12 Trot With June Red and 3-Year-Old Free-for-All With Pillar June.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 22.—June Red, driven by E. F. Geers, added another stake event to her list of victories this year by winning "The Poughkeepsie," 2:12 trot for a purse of $5,000 here today after four heats. Alma Forbes led all the way in the first heat, beating Chilcoot by a neck in 2:06¾. Geers took June Red out ahead in the second heat and won by half a length from Lotto Watts in 2:05¾ with Chilcoot third. June Red led to the home stretch in the third heat when she wavered and finally went to a break, Murphy taking the heat with Chilcoot. The three heat winners went away at a 2:40 clip in the fourth heat, loafing to the half. June Red outbrushed Chilcoot coming home, stepping the last quarter in 29½ seconds and winning the race.

The "Freedom" 2:09 pace was comparatively easy for Un, driven by Valentine, winning every heat.

Geers won his second race of the day in the free-for-all 3-year-old trotting event, piloting Pillar June to victory in two straight heats.

A new 2:10 trotter was brought out in the first heat of "The Hudson Valley" 2:16 trot when Lockspur, owned by former Gov. Horace White and Ernest White of Syracuse, won the first heat in 2:07¾. However, the Royal Knight won the next two heats and the race.

"Quite a few contributions are coming in already," said Mr. Knowles, "Wright & Wilhelm Co. this morning sent us a check for $25. We are going to put a sealed can here in the office to hold such pre-campaign contributions."

WORLD'S SERIES HAS SECRETARY BAKER'S FAVOR

Soldiers in France Are Intensely Interested in Results Declares Head of War Department.

Washington, Aug. 22.—When asked today whether the work or fight order would interfere with the world baseball series this year, Secretary Baker said today the question had not come before him, but indicated his strong opinoin that the series would be and should be played.

Since only two teams would take part, the secretary thought the number of men affected by the work or fight order would be very small. He added the soldiers in France were intensely interested in the results.

Chicag, Aug. 22.—President Ban Johnson of the American league said tonight that the National Base Ball commission at its meeting in Cincinnati Tuesday sent a communication to Secretary of War Baker asking his approval of the world's series.

"Without the sanction of the War department the American league would not have "turned a wheel" toward the series," President Johnson said. "I am immensely pleased that Secretary Baker is in favor of the games."

The details for the series will be announced as soon as a formal ruling by Secretary Baker is made. There is a possibility that a percentage of the receipts will be given over to war charities, although this question has not yet been settled. The national commission also is considering cabling detailed stories of the games to the American and Canadian forces over seas.

Cameraman Olsen of the Famous Players Lasky firm will be in Omaha and will film the players and some of the lively parts of the game.

Theda Bara's newest and strongest vampire part is ready for release in September under the title "When a Woman Sins," and is said to carry with it a strong moral lesson and a scathing denunciation of the hypocrisies of modern society. Miss Bara is now working upon the latest of her dramas, "The She Devil," in Hollywood, Cal.

Sheridan, Wyo., and the adjoining territory has been the scene of much film excitement recently as the Educational people were there taking movies of the tribes. Part of the productions will be a war dance, a raid on a native village and scenes showing tribal customs.

In Wallace Reid's new play at the Rialto this week he plays a dual role, one of the few attempts that this star has made in such work, and he does it very successfully. Wallace had the time of his life in filming the picture for the dream of his boyhood was to become just such a soldier of fortune as he represents.

Madge Kennedy, who is appearing in one of her most successful comedy pieces, "The Fair Pretender," at the Strand this week, is working on another play, "Friend Husband," which is a similar riot of fun and mixups.

William Farnum can do more than "eat up movie villains." He demonstrated this recently when he worked like a beaver for the Third Liberty loan. Mr. Farnum is appearing on the screen at the Empress theater in the 1918 version of "The Plunderer."

William Frederick, well known Broadway and screen actor, has just finished a record of 385 days of steady work, including Sundays, before the camera.

Wellington Cross, well-known musical comedy star, begins work this week in his first motion picture, "The Gray Parasol."

AT THE THEATERS

WALTER C. KELLY, "The Virginia Judge," will spend the coming season on the Orpheum circuit. Musical attractions have kept him away from the two-a-day for the last two seasons. As a dialectician and raconteur, he stands in a unique position as his stories have carried him around the world, proving as amusing to kings and queens as they have to the well known common people.

Orpheum patrons are reminded that Eva Tanguay is here only two more days, tomorrow night and Saturday. That will be the farewell appearance for her current engagement as the stellar attraction of the opening week. In other respects, also, the opening bill strongly recommends itself to popular taste.

"Twin Beds" will again be seen here on Sunday at the Brandeis theater, where it opens the new season. "Twin Beds" has to do with life among the apartment dwellers and is one of the cleanest and funniest comedies the English-speaking stage has ever known.

Rose Sydell's "London Belles" will ring tunefully at the popular Gayety today for the last two times, and starting tombrrow matinee "Dancing Jim" Barton and his Twentieth Century Girls will show up for the next seven days. Mr. Barton's vehicle and production are both brand new this season.

Kulolia's Hawaiians, who headline the bill at the Empress, do the highly esteemed hula hula dance, besides singing Hawaiian songs. They bring a program of selections that entertained visitors at the Panama Pacific Exposition.

Gossip of the Stage.

A second company in "The Blue Pearl" is to open in Chicago.

Jose Intropidi has been engaged for the cast of "Fiddlers Three."

Nora Bayes will appear in "Look Who's Here," with book by Harry B. Smith and music, by A. Baldwin Sloan.

An unnamed musical play by Roi Cooper Megrue and Irving Berlin is to be among the productions of the season.

B. Iden Payne will produce "Cross and Croppers," a comedy by Theresa Helburn, with Eileen Huban in the leading role.

Chauncey Olcott is to appear in a dramatization by Goerge M. Cohan of Gelett Burgess' novel, "Mrs. Hope's Husband." Mr. Cohan has also dramatized "Queed," by Henry Sydnor Harrison.

Nebraska Boy With Lafayette Escadrille is Reported Killed

"Bud" Lehr has gone "west," according to unofficial information received by his father at Albion, where he is county clerk.

Lt. Manderson Lehr was one of the first Nebraskans to enlist his services to avenge the Hun ravages to Belgium, the sinking of the Lusitania and kindred depredations. He first enlisted as an ambulance driver before the entrance of the United States in the war.

Ambulance driving proved too tame to the intrepid Nebraskan who transferred to the Lafayette Escadrille where he became a flyer. When his own country entered the conflict he transferred to the American army with a rank of lieutenant in the flying corps.

The parents were first advised of the death when a letter was returned from the French front marked "deceased." Advices received from Washington then indicated that an unconfirmed report in the capital indicated that he was killed in action July 15, although no particulars could be learned how or where he was killed.

Lieutenant Lehr's flying partner, Charles Kirkwood of Pennsylvania, is now a German prisoner. His mother, upon learning of the death of Lehr, immediately wrote condolences to the mother of the dead birdman.

The dead aviator was a nephew of the late General Manderson, for whom he was named.

MRS. WM. BENNETT HAD SUFFERED FOR EIGHTEEN YEARS

Was In Bed Weeks At A Time Unable To Move—Now Does Own Housework.

"For the past eighteen years my wife was a sufferer from rheumatism in one of its worst forms," said William Bennett, who is employed by one of the large saw mills at Redmond, Wash., recently.

"Whenever these attacks came on," he continued, "she would get so weak and crippled up that she would have to take to her bed, where she would lie for two or three weeks at a time, suffering untold agonies and unable to move. Her left foot was drawn up and twisted so with pain that she seemed to be permanently crippled, and one finger on her left hand was drawn all out of shape so it was useless to her. Her stomach, too, was all out of order, she had no appetite, and although she was just as careful as she could be about her dieting, her food would sour on her stomach and cause her great distress afterwards. Her nervous system seemed to be shattered, and her rest was so broken at night that she could hardly sleep. Her arms and throat appeared to be withered, the skin soft and flabby, and she was just about as miserable as anybody ever gets to be. For years she had been too weak and ailing to do any of her housework, and what time she wasn't in bed she was barely able to get around.

"I consulted specialists about her case but they could give me no hope, and I took her to one of the most celebrated health resorts in the country, hoping she would be benefited through drinking the water, but it seemed to do her no good. Then she tried all kinds of medicine, but not till she started taking Tanlac did she find any relief whatever. After taking a few bottles of this wonderful medicine we are prepared to say that Tanlac is the only thing we have any faith in. Her last attack of rheumatism was all of two months ago, and she hasn't had a twinge since. Her twisted foot is getting back into its normal position, and that bent finger is getting straight and supple like the others. Her stomach is in such splendid condition that she can eat anything she wants without suffering any bad effects afterwards. Her arms and neck are filling out, and are plump and firm, and she sleeps like a child every night. She is now able to do her housework, and she is in better condition than she has been in many years."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., corner 16th and Dodge streets; 16th and Harney streets; Owl Drug Co., 16th and Farnam streets; Harvard Pharmacy, 24th and Farnam streets; northeast corner 19th and Farnam streets; West End Pharmacy, 49th and Dodge streets, under the personal direction of a Special Tanlac Representative, and in South Omaha by Forrest & Meany Drug Co.—Advertisement.
