CINCINNATI, IN PITCHERS' FIGHT, BEATS BROOKLYN

Heine Groh Day Celebrated When the Captain of the Champions Is Well Remembered.

Cincinnati, Sept. 18.—The new champions of the National league won from Brooklyn today, 2 to 0. It was a pitcher's battle between Eller and Cadore in which the former had only slightly the better of it. The Reds scored their two runs in the seventh inning on Duncan's double, Kopf's single and stolen base, a wild throw by Krueger and an infield hit by Neale. Johnston had a big day at the bat with a single, a double and a triple.

It was Heine Groh day and the captain of the Cincinnati club was presented with a hall clock, a silver bowl from his bowling team, a wrist watch and a diamond stick pin. Schreiber, a recruit, refused to put on a uniform because he was not alloted a full share of the world's series receipts. At a meeting of the Cincinnati players this morning it was voted that every man on the team should receive a full share except Duncan, Schreiber and See, who have been with the team only about a month. These three were voted half a share each. Score:

Batteries: Cadore and Krueger; Eller and Wingo.

Adams in Old Form.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 18.—Adams held New York to three hits today, the Pirates easily winning, 7 to 0. He struck out Barnes, Burns and Kauff in succession in the third inning. The locals hit Barnes hard, especially in the second and fifth. Snover, a recruit, took Barnes' place in the seventh. Score:

Pittsburgh	0 3 0 0 3 0 0 1 *	7	11	1

Batteries: Barnes, Snover and Smith, Gonzales; Adams and Blackwell.

Comiskey Lays His Plans for the Coming Big World's Series

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago Americans, evidently is convinced his club will win the American league pennant. He authorized the announcement today that applications for the world's series tickets would be accepted by mail. The reservations will be filled in the order received.

Reservations will be limited to four tickets to each applicant and it will be necessary to purchase tickets for three games. Box seats will sell for $5.50; grandstand seats, $3.30; pavilion seats, $2.20; and the bleachers, $1.10. These prices include war tax.

Seats in the boxes and grandstand are the only ones reserved in advance.

The announcement said that all applications for reserve seats must be accompanied by a money order or certified check and a self-addressed envelope.

"Skull" Practice at Central When Rain Stops Workout

The $1,000,000 rain which fell over Omaha yesterday did not affect Coach Mulligan of Central high and his foot ball squad. Instead of going through the practice Mulligan gave his men a quiz on foot ball rules and regulations.

The report that Paul Shanahan, Central and Commerce high school foot ball star, will leave Central was denied by him yesterday. He expects to stay at Central to be eligible for the basket ball team. Shanahan is regarded as one of the best high school halfbacks in the state.

The first foot ball game of the season will probably be Saturday, September 27, with Creighton high. Coach Mills of the blue and white varsity squad has asked Coach Mulligan for a game on that date and it is understood Mulligan has accepted his offer.

The other two matches were won by comfortable margins, McLeod eliminating Douglas Edgar of Atlanta, 8 and 6, and McLean disposing of James West of Rockaway by 9 and 7.

MIGHT chirp that the American league pitchers have Babe Ruth running around in circles.

He's made 27 of 'em in this tough season of 17-year locusts and 25-year American league presidents. There's been many a robust bird paddywhacking that stitched pill, but no player ever patted it any healthier than Ruth.

He smacks 'em farther and harder in fun than another cuckoo could in anger.

Cravath knitted his record over a short right-field wall where a putt was as good as a drive. Freeman hung up his in a ballworks where the right field was so short that the rightfielder got many an assist on a bunt. But both the A. E. F. and Ruth made their rep on the road.

But Babe ain't the meanest hitter that ever lived. Around in 1842 old Bill Bimbo used to make the pitchers pull in their necks like turtles.

Bill spanked 'em so hard that he frightened the outfielders.

If mothers wanted to scare their children they told 'em that Bill Bimbo was at the bat. He knocked more baseballs egg-shaped, more straight ones crooked and more outfielders bowlegged than all the other sluggers in a bundle.

Bill didn't have Babe Ruth's handicap of having to bat during a democratic administration. This is the only reason his record is not accepted by the Paderwiskis of the adding machine.

Bill spoiled more ball games than rain. In 1842, which was a short season owing to the drought in graphaphone needles, Bill knocked 254 curves for goals. He used to stand at the plate with the easy grace of an army mule with one hoof in a gopher hole. When he smeared the ball it sounded like another Ford tire gone blooey.

A pitcher wasn't any more good than a beer check after he had faced Bimbo once. He spent the rest of his career acting as if he had snitched the brass ring on a merry-go-round.

Bill was a handsome bird, too, which led to his downfall. He wasn't much good after he got his picture on all the sardine boxes. He got so that he would swat the ball and then stand still while his valet brought in the bases for him to tag.

As he didn't run the bases, he soon got fat. But he could always bat, and made so many home runs that they got common and almost ruined base ball. He lived so long that he made Methuselah look like a juvenile delinquent, and finally croaked full of years and went to a well-earned rest with his beloved outfielders, who earned it more than he did.

Bill sleeps in a little bone park in Roselle, New Jersey. His complete home-run record is on his tombstone, which is 200 feet taller than the building laws of New Jersey permit.

Athletics Win.

Philadelphia, Sept. 18.—Eckert, a local semi-professional pitcher, made his debut with Philadelphia today and was beaten by Cleveland, 4 to 1. Uhle held the Athletics to two hits in seven innings, but a base on balls and Smith's fumble of Eckert's single threatened to tie the score in the eighth. Bagby went to the rescue and checked the locals. Score:

Mine Workers Will Demand 60 Per Cent Raise Is Belief

Cleveland, O., Sept. 18.—Extent of the wage increase to be demanded by the United Mine Workers of America in the conference with the operators of the central competitive district of Buffalo, September 25, has not yet been formulated, but it probably will amount to a 60 per cent raise.

This demand, applying to miners of bituminous coal, corresponds to the demands formulated at the recent tri-district convention of the anthracite miners, which have been endorsed by the convention.

The six-hour day, five days a week, which has already been endorsed by the convention, will be included in the new demands.

HORSE BARRED FROM RACE WHEN TWO HEATS WON

Esther R. Found to Have Made Two Fast a Record One Day Too Soon.

Columbus, O., Sept. 18.—While there were four well contested events on today's Grand Circuit program, nearly all of the interest centered on the 2:09 pace, in which an unusual occurrence sent Esther R, driven by Murphy and winner of the first two heats to the barn before the third heat started, on account of ineligibility. The owner of Aquilla Dillon, after the second heat, complained that Esther R's record of 2:06¼ had been made August 16 at Philadelphia and was one day too soon to retain her eligibility. His complaint was verified and Murphy's mare sent to the barn. All bets on the race, up to that point, were declared off. Aquilla Dillon was declared winner of the first two heats. She then won the third heat and the race. Best time, 2:03½.

The free-for-all pace was a disappointing affair on account of the slow time. Miss Harris H., the favorite, lost it after taking the second heat from Directum J., who stood a terrific drive in the third heat. Best time, 2:03¼.

Baron Cedgantle won the 2:15 trot, but due to a bad break he finished last in the first heat. Best time, 2:08¼.

Dr. Nick won the 2:18 trot. This event was raced on the Jones plan, whereby the horse finishing last in each heat was sent to the barn for good. Best time, 2:09½.

COWGIRLS STAR IN 'ROUNDUP' AT PENDLETON, ORE.

Ten of the Best Feminine Bronco Busters Will Clothes-Pin "Buckers" at Annual Roundup in Oregon.

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 18.—Ten cowgirl bronco busters of the first water—women who can stick to the hurricane deck of the wildest animal that ever snorted equine anger at the curbing of his liberty—will clothespin "buckers" at the annual roundup which opened here today.

The riders are renowned for their daring, and several have won wealth, honor and glory in all the broad plains region where pigskin-bedecked "bad" animals are so well known. Kitty Canutt of Colfax, Wash., and Ruth Roach of Oklahoma, have heretofore defied the efforts of the rearing, pawing, squealing four-legged demons of the western prairies to unhorse them.

Kitty will appear with Charley Irwin to defend her numerous titles won in past years. She will be opposed by such noted rough riders as Lorraine Udy Trickey, Donna Card and Ruth Parton, the last named staging a come-back after several years' absence from the "show." Prairie Rose Henderson, Louise Thompson, Bonnie McCarroll, Eloise Hastings and Mrs. Hugh Smith, hair raisers in the saddle and capable of riding with their mount walking erect or standing on his head, will help to entertain the largest attendance the roundup ever has witnessed. There are spectators present from as far east as Boston, and a number from New York, Chicago and Detroit.

No Raise in Admission to Central High Students

The athletic committee of Central high school has set the price of student association tickets for the coming year at $1.65, including 15 cents war tax. This is no increase over last year's price. The ticket will entitle the holder to all school activities, including foot ball, basket ball, track and debate.

COMPLETE PLAN OF CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

General Committee Meets at Chamber of Commerce—Ready for Fort Atkinson Festivities.

The general committee for the Fort Atkinson centennial celebration to be held at Fort Calhoun, Washington county, on October 10 and 11, met at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday at noon to complete plans for the celebration.

E. Buckingham, president of the committee, and Capt. C. E. Adams will telegraph to Director General Hines of the railroad administration, it was decided, to secure reduced rates in Iowa and Nebraska to the celebration. It was also announced that the War department has been requested to furnish an order permitting military forces at Fort Crook and Fort Omaha to take part in the celebration.

War Veterans to Attend.

Maj. John G. Maher of the American Legion has called a state meeting of that organization, to be held in Omaha on October 10 and 11, and plans to participate in the centennial celebration.

E. E. Blackman of the State Historical society, in co-operation with Gus Renze, Ak-Sar-Ben's decorative genius, is arranging a pageant to represent the first landing of American military forces on Nebraska soil, which occurred at the old Fort Atkinson in October of 1819.

Rev. A. S. Hutchison of Fort Calhoun, reported that material for the erection of a log cabin by soldiers, had been secured. This will represent the construction of the first military quarters on Nebraska soil 100 years ago.

The oldest flag in Nebraska, presented by Logan Fontenelle at Decatur, will be loaned by the Omaha Chapter of the D. A. R., for the parade.

About 100 Indians are expected to camp and participate in the parade and pageant.

D. C. Van Deusen of Blair, announced at the meeting yesterday that the Blair people would attend the celebration, accompanied by the Blair band.

Postpone Homecoming for Seward County Service Men

Seward, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—The Seward county Red Cross committee called off the homecoming celebration scheduled here on account of rain. Three Omaha boxers, Eddie Gillen, Jimmy Drexel and Jack Thornalon, and Referee Kid Graves were here.

No Fall Series.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 18.—No fall series between the St. Louis clubs of the National and American league clubs will be held this fall as in previous seasons, it was officially announced tonight. The reasons given were "poor gate receipts in former years and the expiration of players' contracts."

Flat Feet Lead to Damage Suit Against Doctor

Dr. John P. Lord was sued in district court yesterday for $35,000 damages by Kathryn Hoffman, formerly a cook in the home economics department at the University of Nebraska farm. She alleges that she was advised by Dr. H. W. Orr to have her flat feet corrected, and that Dr. Lord placed her feet in plaster of paris casts for five weeks at one time and for seven weeks at another time. As a result of this and other treatment for two years, she alleges, some of the bones of her feet have become distorted and she is unable to walk as she did before.
