Tigers and White Sox Slam Out 42 Hits for Total of 35 Runs--New Record

Chicago Gets 22 Hits and Wins, 20 to 15

Sheely Collects Homer, Triple And Three Singles and Scores Five Times—Ruth Equals Record.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—A new American league record for total runs and total hits was established today in the game between Detroit and Chicago, when 35 runs were scored and 42 hits made. The game was a slugging match, Chicago outhitting Detroit, and winning, 20 to 15. The locals obtained 22 hits, five of which were made by Sheely, who cracked out a home run, a triple and three singles for a total of 10 bases and also scored five times. Cobb also had a perfect batting average, in acquiring three hits, two walks and a sacrifice in six times up. Chicago's hits were good for a total of 35 bases, while those of Detroit netted 23 bases.

Oeschger Fans 3 on Nine Pitched Balls

Boston, Sept. 9.—Joe Oeschger of the Boston Nationals contributed a pitching performance yesterday that combined a maximum of efficiency with a minimum of effort. He struck out three men on nine pitched balls.

It was in the fourth inning of the first game with Philadelphia. First Lebourveau, then Williams, and finally Konetchy—the heaviest hitters of the Philly team—came up to bat and went away again after successive strikes. Each was sent back on a called third strike, all curve balls.

Attention, Mr. Foot Ball Coach! Send The Bee Results of Games Played by Your Grid Eleven

King Foot Ball has arrived in Nebraska and is ready for action on the gridiron!

Nearly every high school in Cornhusker land has been preparing for King Foot Ball's three-month visit.

The Omaha Daily Bee Sports Department is going to help make King Foot Ball's visit to Nebraska a successful one this season by publishing the account of every high school grid game played in the state.

What The Omaha Bee Sports Department wants is this, Mr. Coach or Mr. Fan: When there is a foot ball game played in your town, telegraph the results along with the names of the players who scored the touchdowns and made sensational plays to the Sports Editor of The Omaha Bee. Send the message collect and we'll do the rest.

Don't forget. Send the results of your games to The Bee immediately after each game.

In the third Billy Earl ran third most of the way, pulling to the front on the home stretch in a sensational spurt. Happy Lad, after winning second heat in 2:10¼, finished with third money.

No one ever traveled more comfortably, at less expense, and with less worry over arrangements, than will the base ball fans of this territory who accompany The Bee party this year to

THE WORLD'S SERIES

Tickets to all games will be furnished by The Bee, and the fans will pay for neither hotel accommodations nor transportation.

For further information about plans for the trip write to or call on Mr. Parsons at THE BEE.
