LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

T. J. Beal made a trip to the Platte valley yesterday.

Attorney Mitchell had legal business at Bridgeport Wednesday.

Hugh Beal is back from an extended visit at Holdridge and other points.

Wm. Welch of Bingham came up yesterday noon to transact business.

Genial "Jack" Riordan of Grand Island was an Alliance visitor last Sunday.

Barney Halbur and wife, from near Hemingford, were in the city yesterday.

Jas. Gray went to Hyannis yesterday on 44 to look after insurance business.

B. F. Ankeny was a passenger from the east last Sunday on his way to Crescent ranch.

Mrs. Daffron Miller arrived today from Kansas City where she has been for several weeks.

A. H. McLaughlin returned last Sunday from Kansas City, where he has been for several days.

Undertaker T. J. Threlkeld was called to Edgemont last Monday to take charge of a funeral.

Col. Gearhart at the opera house December 16th. This is the lecture you have been waiting for.

Miss Regina Burlew came down from Hemingford last Saturday and is spending the week with friends in this city.

The firm of Gray & Guthrie have an ad in this issue that tells a whole lot about insurance in a few words. Read it.

Mining interests near Butte, Mont., called the popular passenger conductor, Chas. Matthews to that city last Sunday.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs.
John Daugherty has been very ill with pneumonia, but is improving at this writing.

Superintendent Hayes of the city schools made a trip to Lincoln on educational matters the latter part of the week.

Tom Collins, whose serious illness was chronicled in the Herald, has so far recovered that he is considered out of danger.

Miss Bonnie Thorp, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Mae Shrewsbury, for a couple of weeks, returned to Grand Island Tuesday.

John Pilkington has returned from his trip to Peoria and Bloomington, Ill., where he sold a few cars of the famous Box Butte county potatoes.

The Holsten jewelry department has another employe in the person of Ted Copland, who arrived recently from the Parlor City—Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

"What to Buy Him," is the vexed question that the Famous Clothing store settles for hundreds of Xmas buyers in an attractive ad. in this issue of The Herald.

Rev. H. H. Millard, educational secretary of the Nebraska Wesleyan university, spent a few days in Alliance this week on business pertaining to that institution.

U. S. Court Commissioner Clyde Spangole came up from Bridgeport last Friday on his way to the state capital where business matters called him for a few days, returning last Monday.

Everybody come to the oyster supper social at L. J. Schill's, six miles southeast of town, Friday evening, December 11th, for the benefit of school district No. 34.

Come out Sunday evening and hear Col. Gearhart lecture on "Civic Righteousness" at the M. E. church. This is a union meeting and you are invited to attend. There will be no admission.

Miss Marie Walbridge of Marsland was brought to the Alliance hospital suffering with a severe attack of typhoid pneumonia. Her condition is improving under the good care she is receiving.

Edward, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Newberry, fell from his bed the other morning and dislocated a hip, which required the attention of a surgeon. The little sufferer will recover rapidly for nature is especially solicitous to the young.

Miss Edith Swan has decided to go to Indianapolis, Ind., this month to pursue musical studies. It is the hope of her many friends that she will return to this city where her musical ability is recognized and appreciated.

Miss Mary Smally is also among those who have decided upon leaving Alliance. We regret to see all this musical talent forsake us. Miss Smally has made many friends during her stay in Alliance, and her vocal ability has been the source of many complimentary remarks. She goes to Oklahoma City, Okla., some time this week, where she will make her home.
The best wishes of her Alliance friends will surely accompany her.

Mrs. Nellie Hillier, accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Norton, departed Tuesday morning for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Norton will enjoy the company of her son, Ward, who is attending school there.
Mrs. Hillier will enjoy the delightful climate of that section of the country until spring, when she will return by way of San Francisco and Portland, stopping off at Sheridan to visit her daughter, who resides at that place.
Mrs. Hillier will later go to her old home in Canada to spend the summer.
As to her future residence, she is undecided, but will doubtless come west to be with her daughter.

A social gathering occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Gavin last Saturday afternoon in which about thirty-five guests participated. The event was in honor of Miss Lulu Wirt.
The popular game of cards "500" interested the guests and the success of Mrs. Cogswell in scoring the greater number of points entitled her to first prize. Mrs. C. C. Barker scored in the consolation prize. A sumptuous luncheon was enjoyed by the guests.

F. D. Weidenhamer, brother of W.
M. Weidenhamer of this city, and well known to many of the citizens here, having visited his brother in this city several times, has been appointed superintendent of the Colorado Midland railroad with headquarters at Colorado Springs, and became effective December 1st. He will move to that city from Denver, where he has been making his home for some time.—Mc-Cook Republican.

Rev. J. H. Houston, who has occupied the Baptist pulpit since the departure of Rev. G. C. Jeffers, has been selected as the permanent pastor of the church, and moved his family here from Bridgeport yesterday. Mr. Houston is a pleasant gentleman and the Baptist congregation is to be congratulated on securing his services since the retirement of their worthy pastor, Rev.
Jeffers.

A. D. New of Ellsworth was in Alliance yesterday, having just returned from Hay Springs. He has been in that vicinity for the past six weeks, during which time he cried about twenty sales in Sheridan and Dawes counties.
Mr. New is a pioneer settler in Sheridan county and his services as an auctioneer are so satisfactory that he gets about all the business in that line.

Will McCoy now rides around with as plutocratic air as anybody, having become the owner of Bud Betzold's 2-cylinder, "brown" auto, yesterday.
He gave a quarter section of land located about seven miles southwest of Alliance, for the machine and received a few hundred in cash on the deal. A good "swap" for all concerned.

Owing to poor health, Mrs. W. H.
Zehring, accompanied by the little ones, left Tuesday morning for Rogers-ville, Mo., the home of Mrs. Zehring's parents. It is hoped that the lower altitude will prove beneficial to the lady's impaired health.

Mrs. C. C. Frahm, sister of Mrs.
Chas. Brennan, returned to her home at North Bend, this state, last Tuesday morning, after a pleasant visit of two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
C. Eckman, and sisters, Mrs. Brennan and Miss Clara Eckman.

With this issue The Herald concludes its fifteenth milestone. We can confidently assert that the business of the city has kept pace with the progress of Box Butte county and the city of Alliance and we wish to express thanks to our patrons for the same.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Sturgeon & Young, in another column. They are successors to Geo. Zobel in the dry and transfer business. All orders entrusted to their care will receive prompt and careful attention.

The election in the new county of Morrill, which is a part of Cheyenne, will take place the 22nd of this month.
The county convention was held at Bridgeport last week and candidates nominated.

The county commissioners will convene tomorrow.

DONATES 10 PER CENT.

Geo. Mollring will Have Special Sale for Academy Benefit.

In the kindness of his heart, Geo.
A. Mollring has decided to help the cause of St. Agnes' academy putting on a special sale next Tuesday and Wednesday, when 10 per cent of the profits of the sales will be donated toward the school. Mr. Mollring wants to see everyone take advantage of this offer and will make prices so reasonable that it will be an inducement to buy and thereby help the cause of the academy. Remember what you buy at Mollring's on next Tuesday and Wednesday will assist in the good cause. Don't forget this and be on hand to take advantage of the bargains offered.

Notice to Patrons

The first of the new year will soon be on us and there is no better time to balance accounts. It is best for everybody. The Herald is sending statements to all delinquents and we desire settlement this month. If you have an account against us, present it, as we wish to find out where we're at,
"square up," and thus start the new year right.
THE HERALD.

Miss Myrtle Gilkinson left yesterday afternoon for Kansas City after several weeks' visit here with relatives and friends.

The W. W. Norton store is preparing for a preinventory sale from Dec.
14 to 25th inclusive. The facts pertaining thereto are set forth on the last page of this issue and there is something to interest all.

Conductor Bachman, who has been having a hard siege of typhoid fever, is on the improve. His brother, Judge C. M. Bachman, arrived from Omaha Sunday and will remain with him till he has recovered.

Miss Stuckey of Hyannis is a guest of Mrs. Chas. Matthews this week.
Mrs. Matthews entertained in honor of Miss Stuckey Monday evening in which several guests participated at cards and luncheon.

H. E. Jones, the land man of Hem-ford, accompanied by his wife, Mrs.
E. L. Everetts and Simon Iverson, braved the cold weather and rough roads yesterday to visit the county seat with Jones' auto.

Last Tuesday, being a holiday of obligation in the Catholic church, namely, the anniversary of the immaculate conception of the Blessed Virgin, services at Holy Rosary church were the same as on Monday.

Chris Matz of this city is quite sick, and his son, C. Matz, and daughter, Mrs. Ed. Beuthner and husband, all of Lincoln, arrived yesterday morning to be at his bedside. Mr. Matz is well along in years and his illness weighs unusually heavy on him.

Julius Adler of Seward spent Tuesday in Alliance looking after business interests of the Adler estate. Mr. Adler stated that he had a number of applications to lease the building occupied by the Hill grocery but has not yet decided on whom he will let have it.

The old frame building on the first lot south of the opera house is being torn down and thus another landmark will give place to a modern brick structure, which T. J. O'Keefe, owner of the lot, is arranging plans to build in the early spring.

Miss Nora Waddick, of Grand Island, who has been visiting with her brother, Lew, for the past two weeks, will return home Sunday. Miss Waddick thinks Alliance is a good town and one that can rightly boast of genial hospitality.

In The Herald's report of election of officers of Alliance council, Knights of Columbus, the name of Chas. Brennan, elected treasurer, was omitted. Also a correction in the name of warden, Robert Driscoll was elected in place of Sam Burchell.

The rooming apartments over Newberry's hardware store, so long conducted by Mrs. Nellie Hillier, are now under the supervision of Mrs. U. N.
Hoskins, who will hereafter take good care of the "Hundinger brigade."

Col. G. A. Gearhart, lecturer, will address a union meeting at the M. E. church next Sunday evening on the subject, "Civic Righteousness." The Col. comes very highly recommended and you will be well repaid if you come out to hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Thomas were made exceedingly happy last Saturday night by the arrival of a boy baby at their home. This is their first born and of course "Papa" Thomas is as proud as a peacock. And why shouldn't he be?
