Packed House Last Night.

The Arlington comedians are certainly making good at the Phelan opera house this week. Last night the play was "Lena Rivers" and after chairs in addition to the regular seats had been placed in the house and every inch of space occupied, even then a large number of people had to go away because of the house being packed. A company that can crowd the opera house to its fullest capacity is going some for it takes a big crowd to fill that house. Tonight will be given the beautiful play "St. Elmo." Don't wait until the crowd gets to the show but get your reserved seats at Holsten's and avoid the great rush. The company will give a matinee tomorrow (Saturday) and close its engagement tomorrow night when $15.00 in gold will be given to the holders of the lucky numbers.

"Flower of the Ranch" Tuesday.

Playgoers do not want to forget that this big musical comedy drama to appear at the Phelan Opera House Tuesday night of next week, September 27, is composed of a company of 40 people and is one of the biggest shows in that line that will be here this season. The press everywhere gives this company great praise for the excellence of the performance and the fine singing by the chorus of twenty pretty girls with all of the electrical and spectacular effects and beautiful costumes. It is a dollar and a half show but on account of the fair being here ahead of it the management has reduced the price to $1.00 for the best seats, also 75 cents and 50 cents for the gallery.

The first number of the Lyceum Course will occur Thursday evening, Sept. 29, at the opera house at 8:15. Patrons holding season tickets may reserve them at Holsten's Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock and all day Thursday. Additional tickets may be purchased either at Holsten's or by phoning J. M. Huston No. 113. Season tickets are good for one admission only of first number. Should holder of ticket miss a number tickets will be good at following attractions to the limit of two admissions at a single attraction. Single admission tickets reserved seats 50c, Gallery 25c.

Unique Entertainment

The teachers of the city schools and Board of Education were royally entertained Thursday, September 15, by the Alliance Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. Norton. After a unique and interesting guessing contest, a program by the Club was given. Mrs. W. S. Warrick, acting as mistress of ceremonies, introduced Mrs. Ponath, who responded with a beautiful piano solo. Mrs. Lunn followed with a popular reading, after which Mrs. Johnson rendered a vocal solo in her characteristic pleasing way. Mrs. Rowan closed the program with two delightful dialect readings. Refreshments were then served consisting of cream and assorted cakes.

The teachers were unanimous in their praise of the entertainment accorded, and left feeling that they had become better acquainted with Alliance school patrons, voting the Woman's Club the most hospitable hosts.
