I Need A TRAINED Man

"Yes, I'm sorry, too, that you cannot fill the position, but what I need is a TRAINED man—a man who thoroughly understands the work."
"No, there's no other position open—we've hundreds of applicants now on the list waiting for the little jobs. This position calls for a TRAINED man. Good day."

That's it. There's a big call for the trained man—the man who can handle the big things—the man who is an expert.

You can easily receive the training that will put you in the class of well-paid men. You can't begin to understand how quickly the little coupon below will bring you success. Already it has helped thousands of men to better paying positions and more congenial work. It will cost you only a two-cent stamp to learn how it is all done. Just mark the coupon as directed and mail it today. The International Correspondence Schools have a way to help you.

During last year over 4,000 students voluntarily reported better positions and higher salaries secured through I. C. S. training. To only this small percentage of our student body there was brought increased salaries amounting in one year to over Two Million Dollars!

Don't fill a little job all your life when you can so easily move up in the world.

The Business of This Place Is to Raise Salaries

NOW is the time to mark the Coupon

WILL OPEN RESERVATION

We have learned that the Pine R. Indian Reservation will be thrown open by presidential proclamation very soon for settlement. This is some of the most choice land in So. Dakota and there is sure to be a rush for homesteads.

There are approximately 92,000 acres to be opened in Bennett County, S. D. There will be no drawing but the opening will be under the same plan of the Cherokee opening in Oklahoma twenty years ago.

The nearest railroad point through which this land can be reached is Merriman, Nebraska, on the C. & N. line. Stage connections are made from there through to LaCreek, S. D. which is in the center of Bennett County. From this point at present by team and later by auto the desirable lands can be easily reached.

Bennett County deeded lands are rapidly being put on the market by real estate firms and banks having them for sale.

Sales of inherited lands and non-competent Indian lands will shortly be commenced through the agency at Pine Ridge. Information regarding any of these lands and locations can be secured by addressing the postmaster at LaCreek, S. D.

SHOULD HAVE REPORTS

We have been asked several times why the statement of the financial condition of the city of Alliance is not published twice each year according to law. So far as we know these statements have never been published in Alliance, although the following from Cobbe's Annotated Statutes of the State of Nebraska, shows plainly that this should be done:

Ch. 37, Section 8944—Receipts and Expenditures: "The council or trustees shall cause to be published semi-annually a statement of the receipts of the corporation and sources thereof, an itemized account of expenditures, with a statement of the financial condition of the city or village."

We would suggest that this be published.

THREE COMRADES MEET

One of the happy incidents of the convention, such as the one held in Alliance last week, is the meeting of old-time acquaintances. A. H. Schultz of Milford, Sergeant Walker of Geneva, and Jack Riordan of Alliance were comrades in the Spanish-American war, being members of the 1st Nebraska regiment and serving in the Philippines. Of course they had a great time when they met at the N. S. V. F. A.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

We are always pleased to receive communications for publication in The Herald, especially news items. If you are in possession of any news that you think will be of general interest, or that will interest a considerable number of our readers, please write it up and send it in for publication.

In order that all correspondence may be given to Herald readers in satisfactory shape and without unnecessary work for the printers, we request all correspondents to observe the following simple rules:

1. Write on one side of the paper only, for convenience in using the copy in the printing office. We will furnish regular correspondents, or those sending frequent communications, paper, envelopes and postage.
2. Write plainly. BE SURE to spell the names of persons correctly and write them so that there will be no doubt as to how you have spelled them. Other misspelled words we can correct, but many names are spelled in two or more different ways, so that often we are unable to correct them if misspelled. We want the names of persons spelled the way the persons themselves spell them.
3. The writers must furnish us with their own names, not for publication, unless they desire it, but that we may know from whom the communications are received.
4. Date your communications. This will enable us to make any changes in your copy that may be necessary in order to make the dates mentioned read correctly. To illustrate the necessity for this, suppose a correspondent writes the latter part of the week and mentions something that occurred "last Saturday"; we receive the communication the next week, and as it is not dated we do not know whether it was written the week received or the preceding week. Consequently we print it just as written, with the result that the incident mentioned is said to have occurred a week later than what it really happened. It is easy to jot down the date on which you write your communication. Please do so. (Written for last issue, but omitted by mistake.)

Added to the great dissatisfaction of the people with the present administration in the conduct of the affairs of the department of the interior, is now a nation-wide disgust with the head of the postoffice department. While thousands upon thousands, not to say millions, of dollars are being expended in this department that might be saved to the government. Postmaster General Hitchcock is bent on making a record for "economy", and in order to do so is trying to run the service with an insufficient number of mail clerks. So great is the shortage of clerks that those who are on duty are overworked, and still, according to press reports, much mail is delayed from a few hours to several days, the same being carried "back and forth" until it can be worked. The storm of protest that has arisen particularly in the large cities, may do some good, but we doubt if it will with the present administration.

A square deal wrongs no one; but people who prosper by jobbery do not want a square deal.

The more we see of unfair deals and crooked business in politics the more we feel like fighting it.

WESTERN NEBRASKA

Interesting Items Taken From This End of the State for Herald Readers.

In reviewing his business for the past year W. H. Willis informs us that he finds he purchased for the Alliance Creamery Company 33,115.6 pounds of butter fat for which he paid $7,462.05. The lowest price paid during the year was 21c and the highest 32c. Only a small per cent of the farmers of Morrill county have yet engaged in dairying, but these figures go to show that it is a business which should be studied and taken advantage of by nearly all of them. Cream brings in ready money at all seasons of the year, and it can readily be seen that dairying not only enriches the farmer but enriches the land.—Bridgeport News-Blade.

Work is now being done by the Burlington on its new line west of Guernsey.

Walter Borer and Cliff Munkres of Lusk were recently arrested and charged with stealing and changing the brands on two horses belonging to Charles Thomas. The men were bound over to the district court in the sum of $1,000 and $500, which was furnished.

Joe Handschigel of Crawford employs 44 men and 22 teams in putting up ice for the Northwestern railroad company and private parties. He puts up on the average over 200 tons per day.

The Crawford Tribune states that John Winstrom and Charles Price of that city were arrested and charged with gambling. They were taken to Chadron, the county seat, and lodged in jail.

Sunday was a big day at Alliance, Nebr., where a large class was initiated into the Knights of Columbus lodge. A big banquet was held after the initiation, at which some fine toasts were given by many popular men of the state. Harry Hartman was one of the new members who joined Sunday. F. Downey went along to help him through.—Ardmore American.

A Business Men's Booster Club will be organized in Seneca Monday, January 30th.

Koji Miyasaki will soon open up a new hand laundry in Seneca.

Smith & Garrett have opened up a new meat market in Seneca. This little village is rapidly growing since the introduction of its new paper, the Clipper.

According to the Grant County Tribune, Frank Carpenter, a homesteader living near Bingham, fired at Emil Anderson, an employe of the Yeast ranch, last Friday with a rifle. The ball cut through Anderson's scalp, but did not cause a fatal wound. The rifle then refused to work, or Anderson would undoubtedly have been killed.

S. P. Groat, of Broken Bow, has sold the opera block in that city to Geo. M. Culver, of Alamosa, Colo., taking in part payment therefor a half-section of irrigated land in the San Luis valley in Colorado.

The Nebraska state firemen's association is holding an annual business session in Alliance this week with an unusually large attendance.

A fire(water) department of Hyant is represented by L. A. Anderson Darden, Luther Howard, Fossick and Robert Brady, as delegates, all of whom went there on the noon train yesterday. A letter from one of the delegates, received today by E. G. Martz, states that the boxing exhibition had been postponed until tonight and that Delegate Brady had been "touched" for a hundred, with the entire force of city police and detectives working on the case in an endeavor to round up the thief.—Grant County Tribune.

C. W. Beal and J. R. Dean went to Mason City Monday and made a raid on W. N. Hurley's blacksmith shop and found a tray load of booze and empty bottles and about two bushels of bottle corks.

Hurley was arrested and brought before Justice M. L. Lamb and was bound over to the district court, under a $200 bond, to answer to a charge of selling liquor without a license.

After the trial, the beer, whiskey and alcohol were destroyed by Justice Lamb.—Custer County Beacon.

The Union Pacific has decided to build their new line about forty-five miles west from Northport, or seven miles west of Gering, covering a large part of the fertile North Platte valley on the south side.

Bridgeport wants a water system. The question was recently taken up at a business men's meeting, and it is probable that an election will soon be held to determine whether or not bonds should be voted for the purpose of building one.

The annual meeting of the Dawes County Medical Association was held in Crawford last week. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. E. F. Richards; Vice-President, Dr. E. L. Vernard; Secretary, Dr. Geo. W. Deemer; Delegate, Dr. J. E. Hartwell.

The city of Chadron has asked the Pioneer Townsite Company to donate one block for a city park. It is probable that this will be done.

City attorney J. E. Porter of Crawford has been sent by the city council to Washington, D. C., to urge Congress to appropriate $25,000 to reimburse Crawford for the pollution of its water supply by the sewage from Fort Robinson.

Robert McNair, of Crawford, has sold his hardware business including store building and warehouse to a company composed of Geo. E. Gordon, Frank Hall, Nathan Broadhurst and Samuel Swinbank.

Premium for Getting New Subscribers

THE HERALD'S list of 1,500 readers is the largest in Western Nebraska. But there are many people who do not get this paper who should read it, so we are going to plan for 500 new subscribers during the year 1911. That's a big increase but we know we can get them, and if the readers of The Herald who appreciate the complete news we are giving will each one boost a little we will have no trouble in getting that number.

To each lady sending us one new subscriber we will give absolutely free one of the most useful household articles ever invented, and something that cannot be purchased at any store, as it is a patented article and by purchasing 100 of them we secured the exclusive right of this territory.

COLUMBIA SEALER AND COVER TRUER

for Mason Fruit Jars. This tool is designed to securely tighten and easily loosen covers on Mason Fruit Jars, and by the use of the roller attachment to smooth out uneven and damaged edges of covers so that they may be sealed, thus saving covers, fruit and labor. The regular price is fifty cents each.

Address The Herald Publishing Company, Alliance, and with the remittance and name of the new subscriber ask for one of the jar sealers. It will be sent to you at once.

North Platte is to have a federal building. The need of one has been apparent for years and years, but peanut politics kept it off.

The Scottsbluff band has been reorganized. Dr. Plehn, the former leader, has resigned on account of lack of time, and Mr. Hershman has been elected to take his place.

The value of agricultural products for Scotts Bluff County for the year 1910 amounted to $2,414,394.

The business houses of Gering have agreed to close at seven p.m. except on Saturday.

Rev. James G. Clark of Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian church at that place, has resigned and will accept the pastorate at Lyons, Nebr.

That the agitation for county division in Custer county is not without blessing to residents of that locality, the following from the Gothenburg Times will prove: "James Moore, of Oconto, attempted suicide by shooting himself in the breast with a 22 caliber revolver. The bullet struck a county division button he had pinned to his suspender and he was not injured."—McCook Republican.

Alfred Lofenburg was instantly killed by being crushed to death in a sand bank at McCook last Thursday. He was nineteen years of age and is survived by his father and four brothers.

J. E. Kelley of McCook has a model electric farm, states the McCook Republican. It is equipped with electric lights and power from the city electric plant. He uses motors for the farm work, doing the balling of his hay, grinding feed, putting hay in the mow, pumping water and for irrigation purposes.
