Later advices state that Briley was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to serve a twenty year term in the penitentiary. His attorney, Judge Hamer, will appeal the case.

The plans and specification for the new postoffice building at Chadron have been approved and are now in the hands of contractors who are figuring on the work. The building must be completed by June 1st.

$1,100 has been subscribed at Harrison to build a creamery. There are three cream stations in that little city at the present time. The average amount paid out last year for cream to the farmers and ranchmen was $500 per week. A mass meeting will be held on the 18th to discuss the matter.

V. L. Hanson, of Harrison, a druggist, has added a stock of jewelry and installed E. D. Woodworth, as watchmaker and jeweler.

The Crawford Courier is agitating the question of a cross-county road through Dawes county, and wants this county to follow the example of others by building it in one day. The plan is very good and should have encouragement.

The Broken Bow High school is being dedicated this week.

The people of Arnold are moving heaven and earth to get the B. & M. to build a railroad from Broken Bow to Arnold. The seem sure of success. We hope that the road goes through, as it will assist in opening up the country surrounding.

A. F. Buechler, editor of the Daily Independent, of Grand Island, has been recommended for appointment as the postmaster at Grand Island.

The Alden Mercantile Company, of Whitman, employs a force of three clerks. A good sized institution for a small city like that.

The city of Hyannis is agitating the question of municipal waterworks. They are practically without fire protection at the present time.

R. R. Kincaid, of Bingham, has sold an interest in his mercantile business to George Thomas and Leslie Kincaid. They both have been connected with the firm for some time.

A baby boy, weighing ten pounds, has been born to editor A. E. Clark, of Hemingford.

The residence of R. L. Anderson at Broken Bow was badly damaged by fire last week. The good work of the fire department of that city saved the building from total destruction. Part of the fire boys were at the Alliance convention in January.

The farmers' institute at Broken Bow last week was attended by hundreds of interested farmers of Custer county.

At the present time the little city of Theford is the county seat of Thomas county. However, the town of Seneca is booming a special election and hopes to get the county seat. Seneca now has a population of about three hundred people and has made big strides the last year or two. One of the most helpful influences has been that of the local paper, the Thomas County Clipper, which is a good, live newspaper.

Seneca is to have a new bank in a short time. J. B. Morgan of Lincoln is considering a proposition made him by the Commercial club of Seneca for the establishment of a new bank at that place, the city being entirely without banking facilities at the present time.

The city of Ord, Nebraska, will vote on whether or not a municipal electric light plant shall be established, at a special election held this week. Although there is an electric plant at that place it is proposed to either buy it or build a new one. The present plant is said to be a very paying proposition. Alliance people and Mitchell citizens will watch this election with interest.

Rushville has the packing house fever, following the recent example set by Broken Bow.

Guy Martin, telephone lineman at Rushville, was seriously injured last week by falling from a telephone pole while working. The fall caused concussion of the brain. It is not known whether or not he will live.

Dr. Lauren Jones of Gordon is contemplating building a magnificent $12,000 hospital at that place, to care for the sick from along the Northwestern towns. This would be a big enterprise for a city of that size.

The Rushville Recorder contained an extended account of the trial in the Briley shooting scrape near Spade, Nebraska, the following account of the crime being taken from that paper:

Briley had a Kinkaid homestead in the sandhills near the Spade where Terran was working and about a year ago trouble first started between them and several others when "Curley" Terran jumped onto Briley and beat him up, and destroyed his household goods in his home. Briley is a widower with a small boy, living with him, and they made life such a burden to him, that he came to Gordon to work. He however, held onto his homestead, and other words and threats followed between the parties, till on Saturday night, October 15. Several men were on Main street, Gordon, when Briley referred to the trouble he had been having, and Terran, who happened to be near, overheard the remarks and trouble commenced right away, during which time Briley shot at him three times and missed. The men separated, Briley going into the Fair store where he excitedly asked for more shells, but they refused to serve him and the marshal followed him and took hold of him to arrest him. Terran by this time came in and advanced towards Briley, when the latter passed his right hand under his left arm and fired at Terran the shot striking him in the stom-
