THE ALLIANCE HERALD

is a newspaper dedicated to up-building the moral and material interests of Alliance, Box Butte county and western Nebraska. Its policy is to deal fairly with all interests and men. It prints the news fully and as accurately as possible. It means to be a household, office and store necessity and as such continues to enter a rapidly growing number of homes, offices and stores throughout this end of the state. As a NEWSPAPER and an ADVERTISING MEDIUM it stands supreme in its field. The job department has the largest patronage of any in western Nebraska and every man on the force is a specialist in his line.

COUNTY TREASURER

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county treasurer of Box Butte county, subject to the democratic and peoples independent primaries to be held August 15, 1911. ISAAC ROCKEY. 20-12-705

COUNTY CLERK

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county clerk of Box Butte county, subject to the democratic and peoples independent primaries to be held August 15, 1911.

J. B. KNIEST.

SHERIFF

I wish to announce to the voters of Box Butte county that I am a candidate for re-election to the office of sheriff of said county, subject to their nomination at the peoples independent and democratic primaries to be held August 15, 1911. CAL. COX.

COUNTY JUDGE

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for re-election to the office of county judge of Box Butte county, subject to the democratic and peoples independent nominations at the primary election to be held August 15, 1911.

L. A. BERRY.

SHERIFF

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of sheriff of Box Butte county, subject to the democratic and peoples independent nomination at the primaries to be held Aug. 15, 1911. GEORGE F. SNYDER.

The Grand Island Independent, the name of which by the way is a misnomer as the paper is republican with standpat tendencies, hopes "if Nebraska must be represented in the U. S. senate the next five and seven years by democrats" that the other one may be W. H. Thompson. For which hope The Herald wishes to commend the G. I. Independent.

"There is little reason to believe," says a Nebraska republican exchange "that the republicans of Nebraska will be for La Follette for president next April, when those of them who wish to do so will express a choice, but not only the republicans but a large portion of independent and democratic citizens are with him in the matter of the Lorimer probe." If they are with him in the matter of the Lorimer probe, The Herald would like to ask why should they not be with him for the presidential nomination? Senator La Follette is a man of great ability, his integrity is unquestioned by any intelligent, honest citizen, and if he is not the choice of the republicans of Nebraska for president next year it will be because that choice will be given to a man who is, in the main, opposed to the very things that the little Wisconsin giant stands for; whose support will come principally from the men who condone election frauds and bribery when used to maintain a partisan majority; a man who has secretly and openly assisted in whitewashing a public official who has been, if possible, a worse rascal than Bill Lorimer. For heaven's sake, be consistent! If you believe in and endorse the reforms for which progressive republicans and progressive democrats are gallantly fighting, nominate and elect to office men who stand for these reforms, rather than the men who always stand in the way when an effort is made to expose and clean up political corruption.

HYANNIS HAPPENINGS

LAKESIDE LADY PURCHASES PIANO

Mrs. J. T. Wiker, agent for the Bennett Piano Co., sold an automatic piano to Mrs. Frank Noble of Lakeside, Friday. Mrs. Wiker, who is an excellent musician, went to Lakeside and operated the instrument Friday night for a dance.

MAKING GOOD AT ALLIANCE

F. J. Was came to Alliance from Omaha three weeks ago to take the place in the First National Bank made vacant by the resignation of H. C. Nicholson. Mr. Was is making good in the position which he occupies. He is a young man of pleasant address, is conversant with the banking business, and is fast making friends of his new acquaintances, especially among the patrons of the bank, which The Herald considers fortunate in securing his services. He has had several years' experience in banking, first in the bank of his home town, Panama, Neb., where his father, Dr. F. J. Was, resides, and recently in the United States National Bank of Omaha.

THE POOR MAN'S DOLLAR AND THE MILLIONAIRE'S

Every town has some citizens who occupy the attitude of indifference toward the community interests. They say: "Well, let the others boost the place. It can get along without my help." This attitude is well expressed and excoriated in a pamphlet recently issued by the Commercial club of Hannibal, Mo., Mark Twain's name:

It may be that some of limited means, opportunity or earnings may consider that their share in the upbuilding of their home city is nil; that they have no responsibility and lack influence. This is not true. No man can evade responsibility—not one. The poor man's dollar contains one hundred cents. The dollar of the millionaire has neither more nor less, nor does it circulate to better communal advantage.

The poor man who sends his dollar out of town to buy things from the mail order houses in the great cities evades his responsibility, just as does the millionaire who sends or carries his dollar away to buy goods outside of his own town which he might better have bought at home. The poor man's dollar counts in building up a town, and it is to the poor man's interest that he spend his dollar with his neighbors, keeping it in circulation around town, for every dollar in circulation does its part toward keeping the poor man in his job or getting him a better one or raising his wages.
