LOCAL JOTTINGS.
Abe Bode and Sallie Getts, both of here, were married on Monday. Abe has about as much gray matter in his bean as a squirrel with half the rodent's ability to grab off a living and Sell knows as much about keeping house as a guinea-pig. We announce the lie-up for nothing and say that each deserves the other but we're giving ten to one that Sals' dad will have them on his hands in three months. NOTICE: All wedding notices are FREE in The Outlet hereafter.

COMMENCEMENT 1911

This is the glad, triumphant Commencement season when Sis graduates in a crêpe de meteor gown that sets Pa back farther than the whole four-years course has done. It is said things are getting so that the year Sis graduates Pop is compelled to forego any payment on the mortgage and, nine times out of ten, has to let his insurance lapse but this may be an extreme statement. Girls come high, all times.

HARD LINES FOR SWINDLERS.

Making a Fortune by Means of Postage and Glowing Letters Not So Easy Now—Suits Brought Against New York Swindlers to Be Pressed.

New York, June 7.—Making a fortune in New York by means of some postage stamps and fluent use of the English language is not going to be so easy in the future as it has been in the past, according to United States District Attorney Henry A. Wise, as he talked regarding the success of the government in its first two big cases against fake stock selling concerns.

By the recent conviction of George H. Munroe and six of the officers of the United Wireless Telegraph company the government has put a damper upon the game of relieving men and women throughout the country of their money in return for well written letters and rainbow promises.

Four Cases Pending.

Revelations following the two prosecutions thus far conducted by the government officials here show that within three years men and women in various parts of the United States sent checks and postoffice orders and cash to the amount of $6,000,000 to swindlers in this city. The government has now four cases pending, in which it will show that the amount sent here in response to "come-on letters" was equally great.

This brings the total to $4,000,000 yearly sent by confiding investors in the different states to this city, for which the government claims nothing was given in return. Several other cases of a similar nature are now pending, with arrests likely any day. When these cases are considered, together with the bucketsop industry, poolrooms and other get-rich-quick schemes, it appears that the kind hearted citizens of the country are contributing from $8,000,000 to $12,000,000 yearly for the support of men in this city who have been educated to believe there is no work like working the people. This would be a little less than $35,000 a day, and how far below the truth this may be is indicated that at the time of the raid upon the Burr brothers, whose case is now awaiting trial, $25,000 was found in the morning's mail of the firm.

Amazing Stories Told.

The stories told the prosecuting officers and on the witness stand by the witnesses brought from all parts of the country so as to impress the jurors with an idea of the widespread nature of some of the swindlers are so amazing as to be almost beyond belief. It appears to matter little what is held out in the way of bait. In some cases money is sent for shares in mines that do not exist, some times for real estate that the letter writers do not own, some times for plantations that are under water and some times for wonderful machines that have never been invented except upon paper.

FIVE MONTHS FOR O'REILLY

Lawyer Guilty of Receiving Stolen Bonds Given a Jail Sentence.

New York, June 6.—Daniel O'Reilly, the lawyer who was convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Bancroft bond robbery case, was sentenced by Justice Davis in the criminal branch of the supreme court to five months in the penitentiary. Abraham Levy made a plea in his behalf, but District Attorney Whitman made a demand for a jail sentence. O'Reilly appeared to be deeply affected by his sentence.

Four Trainmen Hurt in Wreck.

Peoria, June 6.—Four trainmen were injured, two believed to be fatally, when inbound train No. 17, carrying seven loaded passenger coaches, crashed into an open switch in the Rock Island yards here. The passengers escaped with a severe shaking up. Robert Atkinson, engineer of the passenger, and Ed Monroe, a fireman, were found beneath their engine, badly scalded and probably fatally injured.

Pittsburg Graft Charges Dismissed.

Pittsburg, June 3.—The further prosecution of the councilmanic graft cases was abandoned formally when Judges Frazer, Shafer and Haymaker granted a nolle prosequere of all the remaining indictments, sixty-three in number, except those against Max G. Leslie, county delinquent tax collector, and William Brand, former president of the common council. The latter is serving a term in the Western penitentiary.

Wreck on Frisco Line.

Fort Scott, Kan., June 2.—St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train No. 169, known as the Southwestern Limited, was partially derailed at a point between LaCaign and Pleasanton, Kan. Three Pullmans and an observation car turned over and went down an embankment. No one was killed and no one was seriously hurt.

Green Succeeds W. I. Smith.

Council Bluffs, Ia., June 6.—Judge W. R. Green (Rep.) of Audubon was elected to congress from the Ninth Iowa district at the special election, defeating Senator W. F. Cleveland of Harlan, his Democratic opponent, by a majority of nearly 1,200. The vote throughout the district was extremely light, running only between 40 and 50 per cent and interest seemed at low ebb. In Council Bluffs there were many instances noted of where workmen just quitting work, positively refused to be hauled to the polls in the automobiles of the workers in order that their votes might be registered. In the country only a small percentage of the farmers took the time to vote.

RECIPROCITY FOES

Interests at Work to Beat Agreement, President Declares.

SAYS THE PEOPLE APPROVE IT

Asserts All Objections Will Disappear After Enactment of Law and That It Will Be a Benefit to American Farmer—Scores Opponents' Methods.

Chicago, June 5.—Expressing his belief that the senate would have an opportunity to act on the Canadian reciprocity agreement during the coming week, President Taft made his final public appeal for the ratification, charging that the lumber and print paper trusts are foremost in opposition.

Before a great crowd in Orchestra hall, President Taft, as the guest of the Western Economic society, declared the bill, if passed at all, would pass because of the weight of public sentiment in its favor and not because of the desire of the senate to ratify it. The president's attack on the lumber and print paper trusts for their opposition to the ratification of the treaty was scathing.

Salient Points of Speech.

The following were among the telling points in his address:
"The interests are trying to block the reciprocity agreement with Canada with hostile amendments. The people approve the agreement."
"The American farmer will suffer no injury whatever. On the contrary, he will be benefited by it."
"Canada will have 30,000,000 people some day, and it would be a short-sighted policy that would fail to provide means to capture this trade."
"Six months from the time the agreement is ratified there will be no opposition whatever from any quarter, for the agreement will prove its own worth."

"Canada cannot and does not raise more than one-sixth of 1 per cent of the crop of the United States. The United States exports into Canada fifteen times as much meat and dairy products as Canada imports into the United States."

"The world price of wheat, barley, rice and oats is fixed abroad, where the surplus of the producing countries is disposed of, and is little affected by the place from which the supply is derived."

"The reciprocity agreement should pass the senate, and I believe it will pass."

GEORGE TO OUT DO EDWARD

Parliament Alone Appropriates $925,000 for the Coronation.

London, June 5.—The cost of the coronation of King George, June 22, is going to be so great that there is really no way of arriving at an accurate estimate. A sample of the profligacy the people are showing is seen in the appropriation of $925,000 made by parliament to defray the government's expenses. This is $301,000 more than was spent at King Edward's coronation.

It is comparatively easy to figure out what the active participants in the coronation will spend, but absolutely impossible more than to guess at the number of millions that will be spent by Englishmen at large and by the hundreds of thousands of visitors in London during the week of the coronation.

Every civilized nation will be represented at the coronation. Isolated cases give an idea of the cost. The Earl of Crew, secretary for India, recently lost his family coach in a fire. He has just had a new one built for the coronation and for his harness alone he paid $2,500.

MUSKOGEE AUTHORITIES FEAR PORUM FEUD WITNESSES MAY FIGHT

Muskogee, Okla., June 5.—Every man who enters the Muskogee county court house today during the investigation of the grand jury into the Porum feud situation will be searched for weapons. This order was issued by W. E. Disney, county attorney, and is to prevent any shooting when the men of the two feud factions are brought face to face.

More than forty persons who are supposed to know about the shooting resulting in the death of four men have been subpoenaed by the grand jury and others will be brought in. They are to appear today.

E. A. Maxwell, the third victim of the fight at Porum, died in a hospital here.

Fraud in McNamara Papers.

Indianapolis, June 3.—Communications were sent to Governor Johnson of California and Governor Marshall of Indiana, charging fraud in the extradition of John J. McNamara from this city to Los Angeles, where he is held in connection with the alleged dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building. The letters, signed by James M. Lynch, chairman, and Frank Duffy, secretary of the conference of labor leaders, asks that the governors join in punishing the perpetrators.
