THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1911.

THE ALLIANCE HERALD is a newspaper dedicated to upbuilding the moral and material interests of Alliance, Box Butte county and western Nebraska. Its policy is to deal fairly with all interests and men. It prints the news fully and as accurately as possible.

It means to be a household, office and store necessity and as such continues to enter a rapidly growing number of homes, offices and stores throughout this end of the state. As a NEWSPAPER and an ADVERTISING MEDIUM it stands supreme in its field. The job department has the largest patronage of any in western Nebraska and every man on the force is a specialist in his line.

COUNTY TREASURER

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county treasurer of Box Butte county, subject to the democratic and peoples independent primaries to be held

L. A. BERRY.

SHERIFF

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of sheriff of Box Butte county, subject to the democratic and peoples independent nomination at the primaries to be held Aug. 15, 1911.

GEORGE F. SNYDER.

Having been requested by numerous friends to run for sheriff of Box Butte county, I hereby announce that I will be a candidate for that office, subject to the democratic and peoples independent primaries, to be held August 15, 1911.

SIMON SPRY.

THE HERALD'S HODGEPODGE

Picked Up and Thought Up Squibbs, Miscellaneous but Timely

T. R. says that this country is in danger from materialism and paganism. That may be, but the danger from Rooseveltism has been reduced very muchly.

Nearly every woman who has grown up children explains it by saying she was married very young.
"Almost a child," she will add.

"I have no use for liars," says Mr.
Roosevelt. Yet he finds they make good punching bags.

Maybe President Taft sent for Ty Cobb to learn how to knock out a home run.

We're going to have lots of locusts this year, while as for the honey—well, the summer girl crop is unusually large, too.

The Mexican revolution is said to have cost $20,000,000. It looks as if J. P. Morgan would have to call another all-night conference.

Washington dispatches indicate that all eyes were on Gov. Woodrow Wilson during the recent tour of the West. Well, he is worth watching.

The readability of the Congressional Record has picked up amazingly in the new Congress.

Solar baths are said to be very popular in Washington, just now, but they can never hope to hold the unique position of the immunity baths.

If all other crops fail, that of the June bug is sure.

If Prof. Woodrow Wilson reads the papers at all, he cannot keep on having no thought of himself for the presidency.

It is not expected that the Standard Oil Co. men will have to give up automobiles or that the tobacco magnates will be compelled to smoke cheap cigars, on account of those decisions.

Diaz did not hesitate to register his opinion that the Mexican presidency never was and never will be any place for a mollycoddle.

The country is waiting to see President Taft put his foot down on the Senate. He wears a No. 11 EE shoe.

Hetty Green has sold a million dollars' worth of her Chicago real estate. It is pretty hard to dodge taxes on real estate, isn't it Hetty?

Jack Johnson is probably attracted toward aviation by a desire to get into some game on which the police do not set a speed limit. If he wants to fly 300 miles an hour nothing short of a mountain will stop him.

Frog skins were grafted on the leg of a 5 year old boy in St. Louis to cover a burn. That lad should have no trouble in taking the jumping record when he grows up.

President Lynch of the big League says the only instructions given to umpires are those printed in the books. He is mistaken. The fans issue instructions from time to time that never were printed and never will be.

The business men of the country do not get frightened at an extra session of Congress any more.

North Carolina claims to be raising strawberries as big as peaches.
Georgia is expected to hold up its end and produce watermelons as big as molasses barrels.

Noticing what a good time Roosevelt is having, Diaz thinks he would prefer to stay at home and be a grand old ex-president.

Insurgents in the Senate only ask for a Lorimer investigation that will not be a prearranged whitewashing festival.

Wondrous Call."
The evening theme will be "The People's Response."

C. E. Subject, "Grace for Common Duties," Eph. 4:25-26; 5:1-2. Leader, Miss Beckelheimer.
* All are cordially invited.
JAMES B. BROWN, Pastor.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

G. J. Rousseau returned Sunday from Texas where he went to visit Mrs. Rousseau and the bouncing baby boy who recently arrived to bring more sunshine to their happy home.

Last March Mrs. A. F. Allen took her daughter, Alice, to Boulder, Colorado, for a surgical operation. Mrs.
Allen returned to Alliance recently and reports that the daughter is recovering, which, of course, will be good news to her friends who read The Herald.

Prof. Martin, superintendent of the Nebraska City schools, will speak to the boys at the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.
All boys are invited to attend and hear something that will interest them.

Steve Holt got a serious but fortunately not fatal, burn from a gasoline explosion last Sunday. He placed some clothes saturated with the volatile fluid in boiling water, which caused an evaporation and filled the room with gas, resulting in an explosion. Mr. Holt has suffered a great deal from the burn he received but is getting along nicely now.

J. C. Kennedy, a commercial traveler who is a member of the order of Gideons, Sundayed in Alliance, and gave an interesting talk at the young people's meeting at the U. P. church and also following the sermon by the pastor at the evening service at the First Presbyterian church.

Miss May Newberry returned Saturday morning from a two weeks' stay in Sheridan with Dispatcher and Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Hillier and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Otto of Lakeside combined a business and pleasure trip to Alliance Monday, returning home Tuesday. Mrs. Otto is a niece of Geo. E. Douglas.

Peter Thompson, a Minatare ranchman, and Andy Roundsfelt and Mr.
Brown of that town had business in the metropolis the fore part of the week.

A. A. Brown, formerly a merchant at Lakeside but now a Kinkaidler north of that town, was one of the Sheridan county people who transacted business in this city last Saturday.

A. M. Wilson, whose ranch twelve miles north of Lakeside is one of the best in Sheridan county, was in Alliance the last of last week interviewing our automobile dealers with a view of investing in a car. His son, Clarence, recently purchased one and is so well pleased with it that the senior Wilson has decided he wants one, also.

Mr. Robert Garrett of Alliance purchased a $750 automatic piano of The Bennett Piano Company last Friday. Mrs. J. T. Wiker also reports the sale of a piano to Frank Boon, a ranchman who lives in the hills south of Alliance.

C. E. Matteson is looking over the ground at Crawford and Chadron this week with a view to organizing Yeomen lodges. He will return to Alliance Friday and remain over Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. McCorkle was taken suddenly ill early this morning, but by noon had partially recovered.

It is not practicable to call special attention in our news columns to all the advertisements and legal notices appearing in The Herald, however much we might wish to do so, but we feel that attention should be called to the splendid showing made by the First National Bank of Alliance in their itemized statement.
There is probably no other bank in the west half of Nebraska that can show the volume of business as the First National, and we doubt if there is another bank in the state better able to stand the stress of hard times, in the event of a panic, should one occur again.

OBITUARY

The funeral services of Mrs. Chloé Perrington were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her son's home six miles north of Alliance.
Rev. McNeill officiated. She was born in New York, Jan. 23, 1836 and passed out of this life June 12, 1911.
The early part of her life was spent in Wisconsin where she married John M. Perrington, who was killed by lightning in 1876. For twenty five years since his death she has lived with her son in eastern Nebr., leaving there last February to come with her son to Alliance. She was the mother of six children, three of whom are now living, a son and two daughters besides a step-son who lives in Wisconsin. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Alliance Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body.
If you suffer with backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement will add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of Alliance citizens who have been permanently cured?

Mrs. J. E. Whaley, 422 E. Oregon St., Alliance, Nebr., says: "I have had no reason to change my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since I publicly recommended them in May, 1907. Over three years ago my kidneys became disordered and the kidney secretions were unnatural. Whenever I stooped, sharp pains darted through my loins and it was difficult for me to straighten. I tried many remedies but all failed to help me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Fred E. Holsten's Drug Store.
They brought me relief in a short time and I continued their use until I was free from kidney complaint." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
