IN OUR BUSINESS,

shows that still more people are opening accounts with us. We are daily adding new names to our already long list of depositors. There is a good reason for this. It is this: They have found that the road to wealth is by way of the bank account; and that we by our uniformly conservative methods, our courteous treatment of our customers, our steady increase in strength, have proven that this is the place to open that account.

F. S. Cope, of Memphis, Nebraska, and S. S. Kitrell of Ashland were in Alliance last Saturday, and expressed themselves as being well pleased with the appearance of this city. One of them has land in this country and the other has town property in Ashland which he would be pleased to trade for real estate in Box Butte or some adjoining county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Deuel returned this morning from Callaway where they went to attend the funeral of Mr. Deuel's brother whose sudden illness was mentioned in The Herald last week. Herman Peters went over to Alliance in his auto this afternoon, accompanied by Miss Francis Bowman, who has been visiting relatives here for the past two weeks.—Hay Springs News, Aug. 18.

Goodstreak comes into line this week with a batch of news for publication. The Herald is pleased to have a correspondent from this enterprising community.

Being sheriff isn't always what it's cracked up to be. Sheriff New of Sheridan county had an experience recently that he will not forget soon. He doesn't mind such little things as capturing burglars and arresting robbers, but according to the Hay Springs News it took more than the usual amount of nerve to deal with a woman in his official capacity. He went out north of that town to serve papers on the lady referred to and secure some property to satisfy a debt. The sheriff was going to take a wagon, but the woman beat him to it. She got into the wagon with a six shooter and a pitch fork and stood him off for a while, but she finally gave up and came to town and settled the account.

ably returns to his old home in Missouri, but will continue to hold his real estate interest in this country, being the owner of a section of land near here. The Herald wishes him success whether here or elsewhere.

Geo. Woolsey and Geo. Severson drove over from the southwest part of the county Tuesday, a distance of about thirty miles, returning Wednesday afternoon. They report prosperous times in their part of the country. Mr. Woolsey favored The Herald with a call to set himself ahead on subscription.

George Schomaker left last Sunday for Lakeside, near which place he will spend the balance of the summer on a ranch, preferring that life to the indoor work of the laundry, in which he was employed since coming to Alliance.

Cal Simpson is employed as salesman at the Alliance Grocery, taking the place of E. C. Whetstone, since the latter purchased an interest in the meat market at the Co-Operative Store.

Walfrid Johnson and family left the first of the week for Lincoln where they will make their home. Mr. Johnson was one of Alliance's highly respected citizens. He had been a resident of this city for nine years, during most or all of which time he was in the employ of the Burlington railroad, being in the car repair department. He was transferred by his own request to Lincoln to hold a similar position there. The Herald wishes him and his family a pleasant home in the capital city.

Miss Ella Andress departed Monday for her home in Omaha, after a two weeks' visit with friends in this city.

Notice the program of the Box Butte county W. C. T. U. convention, elsewhere in this paper.

Mrs. Simmons returned last week from her trip to Kansas City, previously mentioned in this paper.

While there she engaged the services of Mrs. A. R. Morris, an experienced trimmer of St. Louis, who has arrived in Alliance and is now at the Simmons store. Miss Jose O'Donnell will arrive from Denver Sunday, and will be in the store commencing Monday. They will be assisted by Miss Cora Moore, well known to many ladies of this city. Altogether the Simmons store will have a force of milliners and salesladies that will be able to handle a large trade to the satisfaction of the many customers of that establishment.

MAKE TOUR OF THE COUNTY

Mother Agatha of St. Agnes Academy, Alliance, together with Sisters Philomena, Stanislaus and Patrick, and Mrs. C. Tiffany of Columbus, sister of Mother Superior Agatha, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Riordan in an automobile tour that covered many miles of Box Butte county. The party took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kennedy, Tuesday, after which they returned to Alliance reporting a very pleasant time.—Hemingsford Journal.

A WIDE-AWAKE FAMILY

Seldom does a family enter a community and in a short time make as strong and favorable impression as has been made by Rev. Geo. G. Ware and his estimable wife and daughters since they began their residence in this city last April. Mr. Ware took charge as rector of St. Matthews Episcopal church in March. Owing to some repairs that were being made to the rectory they did not take up their residence here until a little later.

Mr. Ware was at once recognized as an able clergyman, and his forceful personality aided him much in the work of the church to which he had been called. The favorable impression made by him was augmented by Mrs. Ware and the daughters, whose activity in the work of the church has helped to give it a new impetus in this city.

There are four daughters, three of whom are in Alliance now. Mrs. Armstrong of Denver is visiting here, and two sisters are at home. Miss Angela will graduate at All Saints' School at Sioux Falls, S. D., next year; Josephine will go to Philadelphia to enter a Deaconess' training school for mission work; and Ruth, the only one of the daughters not now at home, is completing her musical education in Germany.

The Herald begs pardon of these good people for thus giving publicity to family affairs. Our only excuse for doing so is that in instances of this kind publicity unsought, as this has been, has a wholesome influence and tends to promote emulation of good examples.

of a home because it has served as an anchor and kept him in a straight line and away, possibly, from the many "get rich quick" schemes which are so plentiful today and which so often mean riches only for the smooth tongued promoters thereof. By investing in YOUR HOME TOWN you are dealing with values and people with whom you are acquainted—people who are interested in your welfare because your success means the success of others about you, and the more successful citizens a town can boast of the better place it will be. All the lumber we have in our yards was purchased with the view of giving our customers honest values, and when you decide to build we want to tell you more about our methods.

SWAT 'EM AND TRAP 'EM
"Swat the fly," has been a slogan in this country this year in the interest of good health, but Billy Hamilton has introduced a better method of getting rid of the pesky disease breeders by getting a number of huge fly traps that catch them by the thousands. Indeed so rapidly do these traps catch the flies that there is talk of having them placed in alleys and other places where flies are attracted, so as to clean them out entirely. If this can be done, it will certainly be a good move.
