ANNOUNCEMENTS

J. B. KNIEST

Democratic and People's Independent candidate for County Clerk, Box Butte county, Neb.
Investigation of my qualifications solicited, and your vote will be appreciated.

J. P. JENSEN

Democratic and People's Independent nominee for County Commissioner invites investigation of his record as a citizen and public official, and on that record solicits the support of Box Butte county voters.

CAL COX

Candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff of Box Butte county. Invites an investigation of his record as a public official and will be glad to abide by a fair judgment on the same.

GLEN MILLER
CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY TREASURER
BOX BUTTE CO.

The Custer County Beacon, published at Broken Bow, was twenty-one years old last week, and the publisher celebrated the event by enlarging from six-column quarto size (eight pages) to seven-column quarto, and by changing the name to the Custer County Herald. The name "Herald" is getting to be a great favorite with Nebraska publishers.

Ross Hammond, editor of the Fremont Tribune, is internal revenue collector, to which office he was appointed by President Taft, the best paying federal appointment in Nebraska. Hammond wants Taft renominated for president; Governor Aldrich is for La Follette for the republican nomination for president. Speaking of these two prominent Nebraska republicans, the Norfolk Press says: "Ross Hammond is very much put out because Governor Aldrich has announced himself as for LaFollette and against Taft. Hammond owes his office to Taft, Aldrich to the people."

Progressive democrats and independent voters in Nebraska who supported the republican nominee for governor last fall are pleased with his stand regarding the republican nominee for president of the United States next year. Replying to an inquiry by the Omaha World-Herald recently, Governor Aldrich said: "In Nebraska 90 per cent of us are progressives and I can assure you that no one is friendly to Taft; he has evidently learned nothing during the three years he has been in office. La Follette is the choice of the people of our state. His name is mentioned favorably on all sides and he could undoubtedly carry the state."

WE SECOND THE NOMINATION

"The change in the office of state superintendent of public instruction which is scheduled to take place on November 1, will leave that desirable position open for new aspirants, at the next election, as Superintendent Crabtree will not ask for an endorsement. The News-Blade suggests the name of Superintendent Pate of Alliance as a man on whom the voters of western Nebraska may all unite. Prof. Pate is one of the most prominent and successful educators of the state, and he would make an excellent state superintendent."

The above is from the Bridgeport News-Blade of September 15. The Herald most heartily seconds the nomination. Although we have not asked Supt. Pate's permission to do so, we wish to present him to the democratic voters of the state as a candidate for the nomination for state superintendent of public instruction at the primaries next year. We shall regret to lose him from the superintendency of the Alliance city schools, but as we have let one good man go from that position to head a state educational institution, we will consent if necessary to part with another to head the public school system of the state.

CANDIDATES BY PETITION

A dispatch from Lincoln to Omaha World-Herald dated September 3rd, says that a Mr. Whitman of Box Butte county made an inquiry of Secretary of State Wait whether a candidate defeated at the primaries could not enter the ballot by petition at the general election.

The ruling of the secretary of state is that he can do so if he wishes. The dispatch to the World-Herald stated that the inquirer was not a disappointed candidate but that he had a friend to whom divers unpleasant things happened primary day. His friend believed that he was still the candy if he could take another whirl at the political game. Mr. Wait opines that "abiding with the results of the primary," which all candidates promise to do when their names go on the ballot, doesn't mean that truth crushed to earth in the shape of a defeated candidate need not rise again and try its luck at the November election.

The Herald has not yet learned the name of the candidate who thinks of going on the ballot by petition.

Helen Watson, a trained nurse from Chicago, twenty-four years old and unusually prepossessing, will be asked to explain the presence in her room of jewelry, silverware and silk dresses, valued at $5,000. Miss Watson was arrested at New York charged with shoplifting.

While driving to the mines of the Superior Coal company, near Pittsburgh, with the semi-monthly pay for the miners, David Steen was shot and fatally killed by highwaymen. His father, William J. Steen, who was in the buggy with him, caught the body of his son as it toppled over. The money, $3,500, was saved.

Charges that H. C. McMillan and the members of the pedigree committee of the Percheron Society of America have purchased grade or "scrub" horses and procured their registration to the Percheron stud book of America as pure bred were made in a bill filed in a Chicago court by George W. Patterson, a stock breeder of Worth in Iowa.

NEBRASKA LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT APPORTIONMENT

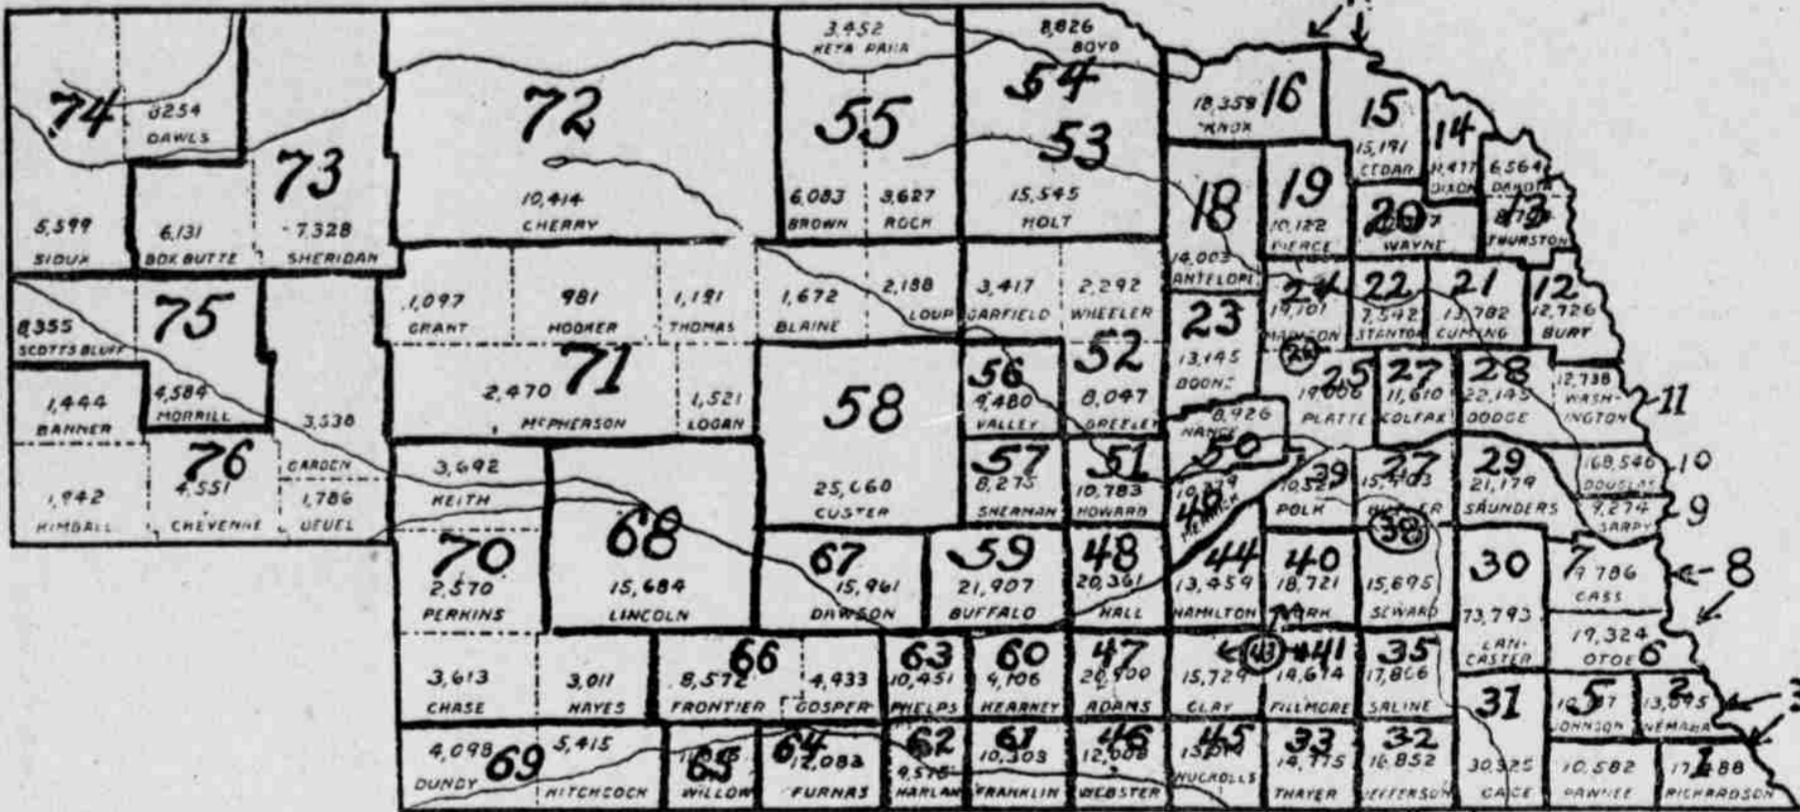

Better Representation for Box Butte and South End of Sheridan County as Result of Re-apportionment. Other Western Counties Gain in Representation.

Many of the readers of this paper will be interested in the following information in regard to the two branches of the Nebraska state legislature. The state senate consists of thirty-three members, and the lower house of one hundred members, both branches of the above legislature being elected every two years. Below are two maps of Nebraska showing the legislative apportionments as made by the legislature last winter. By this it will be seen that the northwestern part of the state has gained quite a considerable in representation over what it has been having. The new apportionment becomes effective upon the lection of the next legislature in 1912. One thing that will be especially gratifying to our readers in Box Butte county and south end of Sheridan county is that these two counties now form one legislative district. Formerly Box Butte was in the district with a number of counties which were crossed by the Northwestern railway, and whether Box Butte county and the south end of Sheridan county had any representation in the legislature depended upon whether the towns along the line of the Northwestern railway chose to give it to them or not—and it was usually "not". The maps below are not quite complete in some respects and need some explanation as well as some corrections. Each of the senatorial districts is entitled to one senator, excepting the Fourth district, consisting of Douglas county, which is entitled to five senators, and the thirteenth district, consisting of Lancaster, which is entitled to two senators. Each of the representative districts is entitled to one representative only, except the following: District 10, consisting of Douglas county, is entitled to 12; Dist. 28, Dodge, 2; Dist. 29, Saunders, 2; Dist. 30, Lancaster, 6; Dist. 3, Gage, 2; Dist. 47, Adams, 2; Dist. 48, Hall, 2; Dist. 58, Custer, 2; Dist. 59, Buffalo, 2. The following corrections should be made to the first map: showing that Representative District No. 4 consists of Pawnee county, the number is not marked on the map. District 22 consists of Stanton and Cuming counties, instead of Stanton county alone. District 36 consists of Seward county. District 38 consists of Saline, Butler and Seward. District 70 does not include Keith county. District 77 consists of Keith, Lincoln and Dawson counties. In the second map showing senatorial districts, District No. 1, consisting of Richardson, Nemaha and Johnson counties, the number of the district is not marked.

THE NEW REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICTS

THE NEW SENATORIAL DISTRICTS

IN HONOR OF SUPREME COMMANDER

Alliance Hive, The Ladies of the Macabees of the World, at the regular meeting in September, gave the Order's beautiful ritualistic service, the Draping of the Charter, in memory of Mrs. Lillian M. Hollister of Detroit, Michigan, formerly Supreme Commander, and at the time of her death, Acting Past Supreme Commander. The charter will remain draped sixty days, the unusually long period having been ordered by the Board of Trustees of the Order on account of the high rank of the deceased. One hundred and sixty-three thousand members of this woman's fraternal benefit society in various places all over the United States and Canada are taking part in the same service out of love and respect to their dead leader.

SLUMBER PARTY

Miss Mabel Worley entertained a number of girl friends at a slumber party Saturday night, in honor of Miss Vera Hamilton of Lincoln. The girls were entertained at the Majestic in the evening, and at a nine o'clock breakfast the next morning.

Chas. C. Jameson and Walter Wrightman of Ellsworth are attending to business in Alliance today.

The big attraction, that was to have been, of the Custer county fair at Broken Bow was a daily aeroplane flight by an aviator from Lincoln. The machine was there, but when it came time to fly the birdman got cold feet and refused to go up, claiming that something was wrong with the aeroplane.

ANOTHER VOTING CONTEST

The Herald Boosts for Hyannis Girl, Well Known in Alliance

Another big voting contest is now on, being conducted by a leading Nebraska paper. This time it is the Lincoln Star. The patronizing territory is divided into eight districts, an automobile being the prize in each district.

There is no candidate in this contest from Alliance, and there probably will be none, but The Herald is glad to boost for a candidate from this district, Miss Mary Egan of Hyannis, who has been placed in nomination by some of her friends, and is making a very good start in the contest.

Miss Egan has a number of acquaintances in this city, as she attended school at St. Agnes Academy for two years. The Herald is pleased to assist her, and sincerely hopes she may be the winner from this district. We would like to request all Herald readers who are subscribers to the Lincoln Daily Star and who expect to renew their subscription, and others who wish to subscribe for that paper, do so at once and request that their votes go to Miss Egan. Persons intending to subscribe or renew their subscriptions will confer a great favor by making the time two years or more, as that will count many more votes than for one year.

Price of the Daily Star without Sunday edition is $2.00 per year, and $3.00 per year including Sunday edition. Subscriptions may be sent to Miss Egan at Hyannis or to The Herald at Alliance, and they will be forwarded with request that the votes be cast for Miss Egan. Readers who send their subscription directly to the Star are requested to mention that they want their votes to go to Miss Egan.

The Herald is pleased to note that Mrs. Brown, wife of Rev. J. B. Brown, has sufficiently recovered from her illness to attend to her household duties.
