ANNOUNCEMENTS

J. B. KNIEST

Democratic and People's Independent candidate for County Clerk, Box Butte county, Nebr.

Investigation of my qualifications solicited, and your vote will be appreciated.

J. P. JENSEN

Democratic and People's Independent nominee for County Commissioner invites investigation of his record as a citizen and public official, and on that record solicits the support of Box Butte county voters.

CAL COX

Candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff of Box Butte county. Invites an investigation of his record as a public official and will be glad to abide by a fair judgment on the same.

DELLA M. REED

County Superintendent of Public Instruction of Box Butte county, candidate for re-election, and nominee of the Democratic and People's Independent parties.

W. J. Bryan will speak at Broken Bow, Monday night, Oct. 16. Custer county may be depended upon to give him and the political truths he presents a rousing reception. The Custer County Bryan Club has been reorganized, and passed resolutions naming as their first choice for president of the United States "the man to whom all recent history of progress and reform points as the logical candidate for president, William Jennings Bryan."

Edgar M. Martin

Democratic candidate for County Treasurer. Your vote will be appreciated.

W. J. Bryan will soon begin stumping Nebraska for the democratic state ticket. One of his first speeches will be made at Wilbur, next Monday.

The first general election for the state of Arizona will be held December 12th. Indications now point to the election of the democratic candidates for the state offices.

An exchange speaks of a candidate who "is out on the huskies these days looking for votes." What's that? May be he is out on the "hustings" in his search for votes.

The Central City Nonpareil is another of the progressive republican papers of Nebraska that have bolted the nomination of Judge Hamer. The editor, H. G. Taylor, is a member of the present legislature and he and his paper will no doubt have a good deal of influence in this campaign.

The Hay Springs Enterprise makes a vigorous protest because Ralph Nelman, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for shooting Emil Sondo, was given a parole upon recommendation of the state board of pardons. The Enterprise should have entered its protest before the parole was granted.

Mrs. Frank Leslie is credited with having written the following hot effusion, but it sounds as though it had come from the pen of Ella Wheeler Wilcox: A mortal woman needs mortal love, and she will seek it in one form or another, if she is at liberty, as surely as a homing pigeon seeks her dovecot or a perishing deer seeks the water."

The Hastings Democrat suggests the following as candidates for president and vice president next year: "The ticket for 1912 ought to be Taft and Harmon on one side and Bryan and La Follette on the other, and let us settle for all time whether the plain, every day individuals have any right that Big Business, Trusts and Corporations need respect."

Great sport, this flying machine business, but kindly excuse us till they invent some better safety appliances. The daily press reports the following for one day: (1) At Dayton, Ohio, Frank H. Miller, twenty-three years old, a Toledo aviator, oil tank explodes in air, machine dashed to earth, aviator killed and burned almost to crisp. (2) "Daredevil" Castellano, a Curtiss aviator, fell to instant death at Mansfield, Pa., fair. Machine careened and turned turtle. His wife witnessed the accident. (3) Raymond M. Raymond, amateur aviator, was scalped and his skull fractured while attempting to start the engine of an aeroplane at Kinloch field, St. Louis. The blades of the propeller struck him when the engine started suddenly. Small chances for recovery. (4) At Vernon county fair, Virqua, Wis., Aviator Vangie Ludvig's machine dragged along a row of buggies, striking the horses and causing forty runaways into the crowd of thousands of people. The aeroplane finally came down on top of a buggy and was wrecked. The aviator was badly bruised but not dangerously injured.

It is refreshing to see voters rise above party subservency in the election of county officers, especially in the selection of county superintendent of public instruction. In this connection The Herald wishes to commend the voters of Scotts Bluff county. That county is overwhelmingly republican on a straight party count, but chooses democrats to fill some of the county offices, including county superintendent. Miss Agnes Lacey, the present efficient county superintendent, has been re-nominated by the democrats and there is good prospect that she will be reelected.

It used to be that a man was not considered anything in politics unless he was willing to "eat crow", that is support every candidate on his party ticket, no matter how distasteful some of them were to him. As the number of independent voters increases, the number of crow eaters decreases, but there are still some of them left, some who fear they will lose political prestige if they bolt even the most objectionable candidates on their ticket. The editor of our esteemed contemporary the Chadron Journal, is doing a heroic job of crow eating this campaign. We understand that a part of the republican ticket in Dawes county is quite obnoxious to him, but he calls on the politicians to take notice that he is supporting it from top to bottom. Not for us. Better a suitable man on the other ticket than an objectionable candidate on your own.

NEBRASKA AGRICULTURE

The C. B. & Q. R. R. Company have issued a pamphlet entitled "Nebraska" in which a large amount of valuable information is given in regard to this state relative to corn culture, oats culture, soil fertility, orcharding, wheat culture, alfalfa, etc., and is prepared by Professors E. G. Montgomery, C. W. Pugsley and V. V. Westgate of the University of Nebraska. This is one of five pamphlets issued and distributed by the Burlington including the above subjects, also dry farming and farming under irrigation, and covering the states of Illinois, Iowa, Colorado, Missouri, Nebraska and Wyoming. The pamphlet which we have received contains a large amount of interesting and valuable information. Copies of any of these pamphlets can be secured from local agents or division freight agents of the C. B. & Q. R. R., or by addressing E. M. Westervelt, Assistant Real Estate and Industrial Comm'r, Lincoln, Nebr. The Herald recommends that its readers secure at least the first of the above mentioned pamphlets, the one entitled "Nebraska."

SUGGESTION TO HOMESTEADERS

The Herald is in receipt of a letter from M. L. Phares, who has a homestead claim southwest of Bridgeport, calling attention to the recent order of the Secretary of the Interior in which registers and receivers of U. S. land offices are instructed that, beginning the first of next December, homesteaders are not to be credited for constructively residence on their claims from date of filing on their claims. This applies to all those whose proofs are not submitted before December 5th.

Mr. Phares says: "I have a communication from Congressman M. P. Kinkaid, answering a letter from me written three or four weeks ago. This last letter from Mr. Kinkaid is the third my communication has brought. Mr. Kinkaid has taken the matter up with the Interior Department in behalf of a reconsideration and the old ruling. He says he places his argument upon both equitable and strictly legal propositions, and claims it as a matter of right, especially as to all entries heretofore made. He desires to have the former ruling or construction adhered to."

Mr. Phares further says: "I am not writing this letter to you for publication, but you will be doing us a good service if you suggest that homesteaders write to Hon. M. P. Kinkaid, O'Neill, Nebr., stating briefly to him the hardships the recent ruling entails in the cases of persons writing. Many hundreds doubtless should have their patents according to what they have been led to suppose was the law, for the reason that they need loans on their lands as security for the purposes of stocking their claims, making improvements, or carrying out other plans. There are many ways in which the order entails great hardship and the ruling should be amended or reconsidered. Letters such as suggested will doubtless greatly aid Mr. Kinkaid. His position will thereby be greatly strengthened. Letters to him should go forward at once."

"THE TIMES" CHANGES HANDS

After publishing the Alliance Times for more than twenty-three years, Hon. Harvey J. Ellis has sold the same to Hon. Wm. Miller, who assumed charge the first of this week. Mr. Miller comes from Devil's Lake, S. D., where he has been holding the position of register of the U. S. land office, which position he resigns to come to this city. He and Mrs. Miller arrived about two weeks since.

The Herald extends to the new editor of the Times a fraternal handshake and cordial welcome. We wish him financial success. We believe there is room in Alliance for two live newspapers, if they will pursue a "live and let live" policy. There is not business here to properly support more than two local papers, if they are gotten up as they should be.

THE EDITORIAL SCISSORS

Cream of Editorial Opinions Gathered and Condensed for The Herald's Many Readers

EXCHANGES GIVEN CREDIT

An "exchange editor" is an indispensable part of the force necessary to a modern newspaper. We find so many good thoughts and timely suggestions in the columns of our esteemed exchanges that we do not like to throw them all into the waste basket, hence open this department of The Herald to give our readers the benefit of what we cull from other sources, and at the same time give credit where it belongs:

Drovers Journal Stockman: Dr. Wiley seems to have come out of his scrap with the bureaucrats a stronger and more popular man than ever, as evidenced by his enthusiastic reception at the conservation congress. We are all in favor of the man who insists that the food and drugs we buy must be what they are reputed to be.

Bridgeport News-Blade: Clyde J. Wright delivered a lecture on "Socialism" at the courthouse last night. Many intelligent people have a wrong idea of the doctrine of Socialism, and as its teachings become better known, all of us, perhaps, will learn that politics covers a wide field and there are new ideas being advanced which the old parties may assimilate and profit by. There is nothing in Socialism of which this nation has any cause to be afraid and the fact that the Socialistic vote is making rapid gains throughout the country is sufficient argument to convince us that it is a movement which must be met and reckoned with.

Kansas City Star: In Rochester, N. Y., President Taft declared his opposition to "nostrums of reform which demagogues and theoretical enthusiasts have advanced for the solution of the problem of concentrated wealth." The president apparently prefers to let concentrated wealth suggest its own solution.—Kansas City Star.

HARMON TO VISIT NEBRASKA

Governor of Ohio Plans Stopover on Way to Pacific Coast.

Gov. Harmon of Ohio, mentioned prominently as Democratic candidate for the presidency next year, will visit Nebraska about the middle of November. Lieutenant Governor Nichols of the same state will visit here Oct. 21, if present plans are carried out. Governor Harmon at the time he expects to pass through Omaha and Lincoln where he will select a site for the Ohio building which is to be erected at the Panama exposition.

It is not known definitely whether either Governor Harmon or his lieutenant governor will make speeches while they are in the state, but it is probable that the political situation from a Democratic standpoint will be reviewed by both the visitors and prominent Nebraskans interested in the Ohio men's campaign.

FROM ASYLUM TO PEN

Wife Murderer Taken From Hastings Back to Lincoln.

J. R. Quein, clerk of the district court at Beatrice, has received a letter from the head of the asylum at Hastings, stating that Fred Robinson, who shot and killed his wife in Beatrice on Nov. 28, 1909, and who was sentenced by Judge Pemberton, had been taken back to the penitentiary.

Some time ago Robinson's mental condition became such that he was taken to the Hastings institution for treatment. At his hearing in Beatrice the plea of insanity was made, and he afterward pleaded guilty to the charge of murder without a trial.

BEEET CROP ABOVE NORMAL

Potatoes in North Platte Valley Suffer From Blight.

The wheels of the sugar factory at Scottsbluff began revolving last week for the grind of 1911. The beet crop looks and is better than could have been expected, being about 110 per cent of normal. The potato crop of the North Platte valley suffered considerable from blight, but the crop just being harvested and put upon the market is bringing fair returns. Martin Schmaecher, living just north of Scottsbluff, had twenty-six acres. He has sold $2,400 worth from the field and has about 270 sacks, worth about $400, on hand.

Two New State Buildings.

Contracts for two buildings at the hospital for the insane, southwest of Lincoln, were let by the state board of public lands and Buildings. The last legislature appropriated $50,000 for erection of each building. The total cost of each of the buildings, according to the prices named in the contracts awarded, amounts to $48,502.40. One of the buildings is to be used for men and the other for women.

HARRIS-HOOD NUPTIALS

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wambaugh, of Reno, when their daughter, Miss Agnes E. Hood, was given to Mr. Walter L. Harris in marriage. The ceremony took place at high noon, Wednesday, September 27, 1911, and was performed by Rev. H. W. Cox.

The couple was led to a beautiful arch decorated with white and blue colors, by Mr. Ralph Wambaugh and Miss Zulia Wilson mid the soft sweet strains of music furnished by Miss Manchie Berry. After the ceremony a lovely five-course dinner was served.

While only a few of the nearest friends and relatives were present at the ceremony, a number of the friends of the bride and groom gathered to take part in the enjoyment of the evening and banquet in honor of the newly wedded party.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris are well known in their community and have a host of friends who will wish them well in their future life.

Many valuable and useful presents were received by the newly united party.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY SOUVENIR

The Clay, Robinson & Company live stock commission salesmen began business in 1886, twenty-five years ago. They have issued an illustrated art booklet as a souvenir, which they have sent out to many persons in their patronizing territory and favored The Herald with a copy, which we prize as a work of art and for the information that it contains regarding the business and methods of this popular commission company. Clay, Robinson & Co. do business in Chicago, Kansas City, South Omaha, Denver, East St. Louis, South St. Paul, East Buffalo, South St. Joseph, Sioux City and Fort Worth. The number of men employed would surprise most persons who have given no thought to their immense business the number of employees running well up into the hundreds.

The editor of the Scottsbluff Herald gives some good advice from his own experience in the following editorial, in which the word "we" means himself:

"We quit smoking cigarettes several years ago and as we view it now there is no more disgusting habit indulged in by any man or boy than that of sucking a foul-smelling molly-coddle stick. If the cigarette smoker could only realize how offensive a cigarette is to the average person who does not use them, he would quit for the blessed privilege of clarifying the air."

"I am all right now, thanks to Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy."

The same relief is ready for you. Are you sure you do not need it? If Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy helped Charles Holmes, why won't it help you?

"I was troubled with heart disease, and after reading about Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy, I got a bottle. Before I got the Heart Remedy I had to sit up most of the night, and felt very bad at my stomach. Whatever I would eat made me feel worse, and my heart beat very fast. But thanks to Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy, I am all right now. I eat good, sleep good, and feel like a new man, although I am almost 68 years old. I have been a soldier in the late war of the rebellion, and was badly wounded." CHARLES HOLMES, Private Co. B, 54th N. Y. Infantry Volunteers, Walton, Delaware Co., N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is kept in thousands of homes as a friend always to be relied upon in time of need.

Sold by all Druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your money is returned. Ask any Druggist. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

GENUINE? PASTE?

All of us don't wear diamonds. All of us do wear clothes, however. All of us do eat food. You can buy diamonds by mail order, but you are not always sure of getting the real thing. Look out for pastes! The thing that corresponds to paste diamonds in the matter of clothing and furniture is called shoddy. When you buy a suit of clothes or a piece of dress goods by mail you are just as likely as not to get shoddy instead of the real goods. When you see the goods on the counter you can turn them over, get the "feel" of them, know that you are getting wool when you ask for wool and not cotton. A bargain is not something that is merely cheap in price; it is something you want, of the quality you want, obtained just when you want it, and at a reasonable price. BUY AT HOME, WHERE YOU CAN SEE WHAT YOU ARE BUYING.
