DELLA M. REED

County Superintendent of Public Instruction of Box Butte county, candidate for re-election, and nominee of the Democratic and People's Independent parties.

MEN'S MEETING

Dr. McNary, of Torrington, Wyo., has been invited to address the men's meeting at the U. P. church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He will speak on the subject, "The Men and Religion—Forward Movement". This is a movement that is growing, that has a mission. Let all men come.

Edgar M. Martin Democratic candidate for County Treasurer. Your vote will be appreciated. Can't be Helped

The democratic candidates for county offices in Box Butte county are entitled to a write-up in this paper before election, a public presentation of their claims to the voters of the county—and they are going to have it; but it is impossible to get it into this issue of The Herald. We very much regret the delay of this matter another week, but it can't be helped.

If any of the candidates are "from Missouri" in regard to this matter and will call at this office we can "show them", which will probably be better than making an extended apology here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace left Monday for Hastings, Neb., and Iowa, for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Sarah Gibson, who came from Oklahoma to take a claim near Bingham, is stopping in Alliance this fall. She has a daughter, Mrs. Rentfro, residing in the neighborhood in which her claim is located.

Following is the standing of the candidates in the diamond ring contest at the roller rink, including Wednesday night, Oct. 18:

Emma Coleman	8,920.
Nellie Keeler	7,860.
Emma Fraker	929.
Marie Dimer	509.
Thelma Carey	480.

Contest will close at 10 p. m., Oct. 31st.

H. E. Brown of Denver, formerly a hotel keeper at Dalton, Neb., was in Alliance yesterday and today representing Texas garden lands. He seems to have a good proposition for persons who wish to go to a milder climate. The Herald is pleased to note that he made arrangements with Acheson Bros. to look after the business here.

Pete Swanson of Hemingford stopped in Alliance today on his way to Loomis, Neb., where he goes to visit his parents, going by way of Sterling. He will also visit at Holdrege and vicinity before returning.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knight will be glad to learn of their return home after an absence of several months spent at various points on the Pacific coast. They report a very enjoyable trip, and that their health is much improved.

County Commissioner Jensen is a farmer as well as a ranchman. He does not raise potatoes extensively, however, only about a thousand bushels this year, but they are fine. Mr. Jensen drove down to Alliance the first of the week bringing a few sacks of spuds, one sack of which he presented to the Herald editor. We haven't seen any better potatoes this year and they make mighty good eating.

E. M. Martin of Alliance and J. J. Smith of Hemingford left Sunday night for Lincoln, where they went to attend the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. as delegates from this county.

Chas. E. Ford, president of the First National Bank, is looking after his business interests in western Nebraska, and was in Alliance the first of the week.

Mrs. P. M. Maxfield of Denver arrived in Alliance last Friday to take charge of the A. M. E. church as pastor. Services will be held in Marks' hall.

Apples, Cabbage, Onions

Two car loads of the best apples brought to Alliance this year, at 119 Box Butte avenue, first door south of Herald office. Also, a fine lot of cabbage and onions. Prices right. Better lay in a supply now while you can get the best at a reasonable price. Delivered to any part of town. 45-11-745 HENRY HOPKINS.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Dr. Boland, phone 65.

Farmers, see McCorkle before selling your potatoes. 44-11-715

Robert Graham finished making hay on his Garden county ranch about the first of the month, and reports a good crop, same being about the average yield.

The I. C. S. banquet that was to have been given last Monday evening was postponed until some future date, to be announced later.

John R. Beach came in on 44 last Saturday from Sheridan, where he is holding a clerical position with the railroad company. He made his many friends here only a short visit, returning to Sheridan the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davidson, who recently came to Alliance from Orchard, Neb., have taken up their residence in the Lotspech dwelling, 932 Laramie Ave. About a month ago Mr. Davidson purchased the Henry Wellman farm one mile east of town. Last year he bought two quarter-sections of Box Butte county land, so that he now has 480 acres of real estate in this county.

C. H. Sisley was hauling potatoes to town the fore part of the week from his farm north of Alliance. He informs The Herald that he has in thirty acres of potatoes this year, which he finished digging last week. He had about three acres which were planted early that were poor, but some of the others went over one hundred bushels to the acre which makes a valuable crop at the price which is now being paid.

The Omaha Trade Exhibit, published every Saturday at Omaha, is an interesting paper for business men of this state. It is the official paper of the Federation of Nebraska Retailers. The Alliance branch, recently organized, is an auxiliary of the state organization. The officers of the local organization are C. A. Newberry, president; F. H. Highland, vice president; W. S. Hildgell, secretary; A. D. Rogers, treasurer.

Joe Vaughn lost one hundred and fifty tons of hay on the ranch last Saturday by a fire started by the Denver train. He will probably be able to collect pay for the hay from the railroad company, but that will not cover all the damages by any means, as burning the grass off the meadow at this time of the year is a great detriment to it.

"Come in before you go to supper, I want to give you something good," said F. B. Dismar to The Herald scribe Saturday afternoon. The "something good" was a generous sample of some fresh oysters which he had just received, and after eating the same we were of the same opinion as Mr. Dismar, that they were very good, indeed.

The Acheson Bros. of Alliance have taken out a contract with the Allison Kieley Land Co. of Houston, Texas, to sell their Gulf Coast Garden tracts and farm lands. It will be well for parties intending to make a change to the South, or for investment in the beautiful orange district, to call on or write them. 45-11-740

E. L. Case of Angora came up to Alliance Monday with his daughter, Mrs. Eva McNeft, of Fullerton, Nebraska, who was returning to her home after a visit in this part of the state. Mr. Case saw his daughter off on the train for the east Monday night, as he thought, but by mistake they got on No. 302. The mistake was not discovered until after the train had started for Denver. The conductor stopped his train at a siding to meet 301, which he flagged so that Mrs. McNeft could return to Alliance and try taking another train for the east.

W. A. Bartlett, representative of the International Correspondence Schools, of Scranton, Penn., last week put in the large show window of the Brennan drug store, a display of drawings and other advertising matter which made a very attractive advertisement for that great institution by drawing the attention of persons passing the store. The editor of The Herald had opportunity, as a representative of these schools some years ago, to observe closely the work which they are doing, and from the information that we have we are pleased to endorse their system of instruction, which is excellent. The only serious drawback to correspondence instruction, as conducted by the I. C. S., is the difficulty sometimes had in getting students to properly apply themselves to their lessons, but this is always the fault of the students and not of the schools, and may be overcome if the student is ambitious and energetic enough to apply himself to his studies. We have known young men and young women, also some well advanced in years, not having the opportunity to attend residence schools to complete their education in some desired line, who have taken up one or more courses of study with the I. C. S. and succeeded admirably. This line of study is not only interesting and pleasant to those who engage in it, but becomes a source of financial benefit afterwards.

Mrs. Moritz of Minatare, who has been in the St. Joseph Hospital of this city for the past three weeks, returned to her home Tuesday. A fine little lad two weeks of age, as evidence of the stork's visit, will gladden their home.

The proposition to bond the Alliance school district for $15,000 for repairs and an addition to the Central and Emerson buildings, as mentioned in The Herald a few weeks ago, will be voted upon at the general election, the seventh of next month. Considerable opposition to these bonds is being developed, and while there is great need of more room and better facilities, it seems somewhat doubtful now whether the bonds will be carried. On the east side objection is made to this proposition on account of a school building not being in that part of the city. It is claimed that people residing on the east side have been given to understand that when additional bonds were voted they would be given a school building. As this is not provided for in the question as submitted, many of them will vote against the proposition.

This thing of making one Junior linotype machine set all the type for five newspapers a week in addition to setting considerable type for job printing is going some. We believe that the two Alliance newspapers will ordinarily compare favorably, in the amount of local news printed, with the newspapers of any other town of its size in the state—but notice, we say ordinarily. The Alliance Times' Junior linotype machine has been out of commission for about two weeks, and The Herald's machine has been doing the work for their two papers a week, and also for the Alliance Herald, the Lingle Herald, and the Dalton Herald, besides running part of the time on

Royal BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

Used and praised by the most competent and careful pastry cooks the world over

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar—made from grapes

Job printing. We believe The Herald's Junior linotype is turning out more work than any other machine of its class in this part of the state, but the amount required of it the last two weeks has made us hustle to get it all done.

See McCorkle before selling your potatoes. 44-11-715

Apples Apples

If you want good eating and cooking apples I have 125 bushels of Jonathan and Grimes Golden. They are fine. Must go by Saturday night. Now on truck at depot. 45-11-737. G. W. VENNERS.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the church next Wednesday afternoon for a Kensington and social time.

A ten and a half pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pardey on Wednesday of last week. This is the second boy in this happy home.

The national bank examiner for this territory was in Alliance this week making his semiannual examination of the Alliance National and the First National. Although national bank examiners are as a rule very reticent about their official business, some remarks dropped by him indicated that he was highly pleased with the management and condition of these two strong financial institutions.

G. E. Lower and Peter Belkum are two Alliance subscribers to The Herald who have our thanks for $1.50 each on subscription today.
