The Best Advice On Lumber Costs The Least Money

and when we say to prospective homebuilders that "now's the time to build" we are offering you really sound advice. No matter what you have heard about cheaper lumber, take it from us that you're on the safe side if you build right now. We haven't been in the lumber business for these many years for nothing—we know a thing or two and we're willing to admit you do too, but in the face of all this talk nowadays about timber conservation we believe you'll agree that lumber has a fixed value and that by delaying the building of your new home you will gain nothing but inconvenience.

We believe we can convince you the above is good advice—let's talk it over.

S. D. Watson, Spade, Nebr., is a new name on The Herald subscription books.

Miss Maud Rider, of Lingle, Wyo., was shopping in our city Saturday between trains.

Jim Strong has accepted a position for the winter at E. I. Gregg & Son's feed store.

H. C. Hurt arrived Monday from Omaha, where he is in the employ of the Ford Motor Company.

Miss Frances Lockwood, who has been seriously ill with diphtheria, is somewhat better at this writing.

Eugene Burton had business over on the river the latter part of the week, returning home Thursday.

Lloyd Johnson came down from Crawford Saturday night to make an over Sunday visit with parents and friends. He returned to Crawford Monday noon.

Mrs. S. D. Watson returned to her home at Ellsworth Wednesday, after a delightful visit at the Watson home in Alliance.

Miss Bess Lyman of Lincoln stopped in Alliance Saturday and Sunday on her way home from the west, the guest while here of her friend, Mrs. R. E. McKenzie.

Since selling his interest in the meat market to E. C. Whetstone, W. R. Drake has been putting in a good part of his time buying live stock.

Mrs. M. Bristol is visiting with Mrs. A. C. Bracken in Alliance. Mrs. Bracken recently spent some time with Mrs. Bristol in Lingle.—Lingle Herald, Nov. 1.

The Herald is pleased to note that Louis Beuchstein has sufficiently recovered from his recent sick spell to be down town and again give his personal attention to business.

While visiting in Alliance last week B. V. Reeves of Hot Springs favored The Herald office with a call and ordered his name placed on the subscription list. We are pleased to learn from him that his wife, who had poor health when they went to that place, is now well.

Since buying W. R. Drake's interest in the meat market, as will be seen by the advertisement in The Herald, E. C. Whetstone has been doing a prosperous business. Joe Skala, the manager, is an expert butcher and with good help gives customers satisfactory service and goods.

The publishers of The Youth's Companion have issued a very pretty calendar for 1912 which they will send out to subscribers before the first of the year. The Herald is in receipt of a copy of this beautiful calendar and will be pleased to preserve it as a work of art as well as for reference during the coming year.

J. L. Biederman, formerly in the telegraph office at Alliance but now dispatcher at Deadwood, arrived in this city last Saturday on his return from Iowa, where he had been spending part of his vacation visiting friends. He spent a few days in this city visiting friends, and left yesterday for Deadwood to resume his work at that place.

John B. Knies and Edgar Martin, both of Alliance, were in this vicinity during the latter part of last week getting acquainted with the voters. Mr. Knies is candidate for County Clerk and Mr. Martin for Treasurer of Box Butte county. They are both pleasant gentlemen and no doubt are qualified for the positions to which they aspire.—Canton correspondent Curly Sentinel, Oct. 19.

Miss Mabel Duncan left the first of the week for a visit at Fort Morgan, Colo. She graduated from the Fort Morgan High school some years ago, and the ten days or two weeks that she will be there will be none too long to visit her many old friends.

J. T. Wiker went to Marsland Tuesday and Mrs. Wiker to Bridgeport Wednesday, both on piano business.

The new street signs give Alliance a somewhat more civilized appearance.

Joe Reardon of Omaha is visiting his mother and other relatives and friends in Alliance this week.

A small blaze at Nohe's restaurant the first of the week did some damage in burning papers on which were memoranda of accounts, but was extinguished without calling out the fire department.

Ray Pullman of Ellsworth has accepted a position as clerk and salesman at Watson & Watson's store. Although having had no previous experience in this line of work, he seems to be well adapted to it and is making good from the start.

Fred Nichols' sale eleven miles northwest of Alliance, Tuesday, was well attended and the stuff sold at fair prices, bringing more than had been expected. A peculiar feature of the sale was that everything sold for cash. Although time was offered, no one asked for it. Colonel Coursay says that this is the first time in his experience as an auctioneer that everything sold for cash at a public sale of this kind.
