Nehemiah Rebuilds the Wall of Jerusalem. Neh. iv.

Golden Text—Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong, 1 Cor. xvi. 13.

(1.) Verse 1—What progress had been made up to this time in rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem, and how had the work been done?

(2.) What fight had Sanballat to object to building the wall, and why did he do it?

(3.) What did they expect to accomplish by mocking at, and jeering the Jews?

(4.) Can you give any instance where mocking and ridicule have stopped a good work, or ruined a good life?

(5.) Verses 2-3—What is it in human nature which makes individuals jealous of individuals, towns of towns, and countries of countries?

(6.) When a man is down, do the human influences around him tend to keep him down, or help him up? Why?

(7.) Which gets the more hurt from scolding, the scolder or the scolded, and why?

(8.) What influences did the ridicule of Sanballat, and Tobiah, have on the work upon the wall?

(9.) If one is true to God does the devil mostly hurt or help him, in his life and work?

(10.) Verses 4-6—Is any experience that will give us the opportunity to pray, and to test God's power to be regretted?

(11.) Should the prayer of Nehemiah that God would not forgive them, but that they might suffer for their sins, be imitated by us? Give your reasons.

(12.) Verses 7-8—What reasons are there to believe that those who are jealous of the prosperity of others, will not stop short of actual violence to accomplish their evil desires, if they can do so with safety to themselves?

(13.) Verse 9—What are two effectual things we may always do, when we are surrounded by enemies?

(14.) Is prayer without watching, or watching without prayer, of any avail, if we have the opportunity to do both?

(15.) Verses 10-12—Which, as a rule does us the more injury the opposition of enemies, or the pessimistic discouragement of friends?

(16.) Verses 13-14—What effect did the threat of his enemies, and the wall of his own countrymen, have upon Nehemiah?

(17.) How often is a determined man with God on his side liable to be defeated in things he undertakes?

(18.) Verse 15—What factor is courage alone, in winning life's battles? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(19.) Verses 16-22—In how many senses is a Christian under obligation to fight and to build all the time?

(20.) Why may we rely on God fighting our battles for us, if we fight and work with Him?

COMPOUND CALLOUSES

Tells Splendid Cure for Them and All Foot Troubles.

A compound callous is the secondary stage when it grows inward and presses on the nerves, causing intense pain. Callouses never cure themselves but always get worse, sometimes irritating the whole nervous system. The following is a most effective and speedy cure "Dissolve two table-spoonfuls of Calocide in a basin of hot water. Soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts. (Less time will not give the desired results.) The soreness will disappear immediately and the callous can be easily peeled off. Repeat this for several nights. A little olive oil rubbed into skin is very beneficial."

This Calocide is a very remarkable preparation for all foot ailments. Bunions, corns and ingrowing nails get instant relief and are soon cured. Bad smelling and sore feet need but a few treatments. Calocide is no longer confined to doctors' use. Any druggist has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is usually enough to put the worst feet in fine condition. It will prove a blessing to persons who have been vainly trying ineffectual tablets and foot powders.
