

Conductors Roberts and Hoakins came home from the Sheridan division Monday. All of the crews assigned to the Sheridan division have been turned over to the Alliance division and will be at home by the last of the week.

Brakeman Watts, who was badly bruised in a wreck some time ago, is still on the relief.

Fireman Trankle, who has been working on the east end, has been transferred to the Alliance division.

Conductor and Mrs. R. J. Burke have not yet returned from Lincoln, where they went on the sad mission of attending the funeral of Mr. Burke's mother. The railroad men extend their sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Burke.

Supt. Weidenhamer and Trainmaster Nelson spent nearly all of last week in Edgemont. They made their home in car No. 84.

Mrs. J. S. Ward went to St. Onge, S. D., the first of last week for a few days' visit with Mr. Ward's parents. On her return she was accompanied by Mrs. Ward Sr. Mrs. Ward has visited in Alliance before and has many warm friends here. Jack had his car pulled off for one trip so he could enjoy his mother's visit.

Conductor Beach, who has been on the Sheridan division, was called home on account of the serious illness of his wife.

Among the new men employed in the train service this week are Messrs. B. F. Streeter, W. M. Unruh, George Scott and H. H. Sprague. These gentlemen are all experienced men from Chadron, who expect to make this city their home. Such men are the ones who will make good in the service and will also make good citizens.

Brakeman Tragsesser has been assigned to the east end local. He will be on Burke's car.

F. H. Borke, who is employed on the repair track, is planning to make a trip to California, where he has two little daughters. He intends to bring them to Alliance and place them in St. Agnes Academy.

Conductor Ayers has Burke's car and crew on the east end local, during Mr. Burke's absence in Lincoln.

Conductor Reeder is laying off and has gone to Omaha. Conductor Larson has his car and crew.

Mrs. Sexton and Miss Hazel Andrews, wife and daughter of Brakeman Sexton, arrived in Alliance Saturday noon to spend Thanksgiving. They will then return to their home in McCook.

Fireman and Mrs. A. J. Ruhnke left Monday noon for their ranch near Mullen, where they will spend Thanksgiving. On their return they expect to go to housekeeping in Alliance.

S. D. Morlay is a new man employed in the engine service. Mr. Morlay is from New York City.

F. W. Jordan and M. M. Sager of Winslow, Arizona, are new brakemen hired the first of the week.

Brakeman Hoffman was off one trip this week. He spent the time at the Albro ranch.

Gen. Supt. Young made a business trip to Sheridan the latter part of last week.

Supt. Robins of the Sheridan division, who has been very sick for some time, has been taken to Seattle, in hope that the change might benefit him. Supt. Peckenpaugh of the Sterling division has gone up to take Robins' place. Train Master J. P. Daily is filling Peckenpaugh's position on the Sterling division.

Call up phone No. 80 and ask them to send you a can of that old Missouri sorghum like grandpa used to make. They have it in all size cans and guarantee it to be absolutely pure.

Ben Forster, of Gordon, Nebr., who has been visiting his aunt Mrs. Julia Hale and family the past week returned home Saturday.

AMONG HERALD SUBSCRIBERS

Subscription business was unusually slack during the summer and early fall, but the many friends of The Herald will be pleased to know that it has been a great improvement within the last few weeks. Old subscribers are renewing their subscriptions and we have been getting quite a number of new subscribers lately, with prospects that the number of new subscribers will continue to come in at frequent intervals, which we trust they will.

James Potmesell of Long Lake has been one of The Herald's friends for a good while and has given the paper considerable patronage in the way of advertising and printing, but on account of taking so many other papers has not been a subscriber until last Saturday. He called at our office while in town and subscribed, paying $3.00, for which he has a receipt on subscription to January 1, 1914, and also has one of the premium wall charts.

Mrs. M. E. Bernhardt, 401 Toluca avenue, is one of a number of subscribers that paid last week to January 1, 1913.

A. Gregory, one of the C. B. & Q. dispatchers at Alliance, is one of The Herald's reliable subscribers; that is, he can always be relied upon for a word of encouragement and his patronage to help the paper along. He was the first caller last Monday morning to pay on subscription. He left $3.00 and took one of the premium wall charts with him.

C. E. Wilson of Ellsworth and young Mr. Aspden, who works for him, rode up to Alliance on horseback last Thursday. While in town they favored The Herald office with a call. Mr. Wilson ordered his name placed on our subscription list, paying for the paper to January 1, 1913.

H. I. Dainton orders his Herald sent to Ong, Nebraska. He does not inform us whether he has located in that place but we suppose he has.

NOT IN THE HERALD BUILDING

Mention was made in the Alliance papers last week of the arrest of seven persons for playing poker a week ago last Saturday night. We discover that there is a misunderstanding in town in regard to where the game was being played and the arrests made. It was in the rear of the building at 206 Box Butte avenue, occupied by a barber shop, the building formerly occupied by The Herald. The Herald is now located at 121 Box Butte avenue and it happens that there is a barber shop in the same building. The report that the poker game was in the rear of a barber shop in The Herald building has led some to think that it was in the building now occupied by The Herald office, which is incorrect. We make this explanation, not that we care anything about the exact spot where the game was pulled off and the arrests made, but simply to correct the misunderstanding above mentioned.

P. O. CLERKS WANT SUNDAY

For several years past post office clerks and others have agitated the question of dispensing with the distribution of mails on Sunday. The dispensing with Sunday mails has received an indorsement so nearly universal that it has been a surprise to those who favor as well as to those who oppose. It seems that a good many people who make use of the Sunday mails would prefer to discontinue doing so if others, especially their competitors, would also cut it out. As far as this paper is concerned we are opposed to unnecessary Sunday work, not only from a moral view point, but from an economic stand point as well. We believe that, on the whole, six days of labor and one of rest will produce as much in results in industrial or commercial pursuits as seven days of labor without an intervening day of rest.

STORK VISITS ALLIANCE

On last Saturday evening the stork called upon Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Elsass, while they were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boone in this city.

He left for their comfort and care a ten and a half pound baby boy, who has been named Merle Clinton.

WE TAKE IT BACK

Last week The Herald stated that the Alliance police force had arrested seven sports. We were mistaken. There were six sports and one four-flusher. The person reporting the incident to The Herald furnished us with the names of the seven persons and requested that they be published but we could not see that the publication of those names would do any good, and passed the matter up, mentioning the incident as a matter of news and in a way that we thought would be appreciated by the seven persons concerned. While we do not sanction the violation of law in any way, we do not think that playing a friendly game of poker is the worst thing in the world, or in Alliance, and thought the boys had been sufficiently punished with the fine without having the newspaper make an unnecessary thrust at them. Six of them seem to have appreciated our position in the matter and have acted like real sports but the other evidently does not know when he is treated well.

CAUSE FOR THANKSGIVING

We are pleased to note that Miss Jenn Stuckey, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stuckey, whose illness has covered the period of the past seven weeks, is now recovering and all hopes are entertained for her recovery.

A common cold developed into diphtheria, and this disease left the little girl's system depleted, the heart especially being weakened.

The many friends of the family will rejoice with them this Thanksgiving day that their number is unbroken.

FAIRVIEW W. C. T. U.

The Fairview W. C. T. U. met on November 19, at the home of Mrs. Hadley. Some business was transacted, after which one or two short readings were delivered by some of the members. While the attendance was not so large as might be desired the meeting was much enjoyed by all present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Lawrence, Jr., December 3, at 2 p. m.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a meeting next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stanton at 717 Big Horn avenue. All members are requested to be present.
