LOCAL PARAGRAPHS
Charles H. Brown of Bayard and Bert Hatch of Angora were in Alliance together on business last Saturday.
No need of going with your shoes not shined, with two right up-to-the-minute shining parlors and prices cut to five cents a shine.
Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rocky of Hem-ingford drove to Alliance in their automobile last Saturday, calling on friends and transacting business while in the city.
Lloyd C. Thomas who recently returned to Lingle, Wyo., from Indianapolis, where he spent the winter, spent Sunday in Alliance. He reports that Lingle is building some this spring and has fine prospects for the future, being surrounded by a fine irrigated country. A bank is one of the new business enterprises of the town.
J. W. Herman, proprietor of the Palace Meat Market, purchased of Dr. F. M. Knight 160 acres of land a mile southeast of Alliance, on which he is erecting a slaughter house. The land not needed for slaughter house and yards will be used for pasture.
Fred Schwaderer from west of town called at The Herald office last Saturday to leave some cash on subscription, and informed us that he intends raising thirty-five acres of potatoes this year. Last year he had about twenty acres. The heavy wind on Monday and Tuesday of last week did him some damage by blowing out ten acres of oats, but Fred is one of the successful farmers who does not get discouraged about a little thing like that. He will plant the ground to something else and raise feed which always will be handy.

It Helps!
Mrs. J. F. Daniels, of Sip, Ky., writes: "I was so sick for 3 or 4 years, I had to hire my work done, most of the time.
I had given up hope. When I began to take Cardui, I knew, right away, it was helping me. Now, I am better than ever before in my life, and Cardui did it."
