LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. A. E. Cable was called to Lake City, Iowa, the latter part of last week on account of the death of a brother. She will remain at the home of her parents in Iowa two or three weeks.

Mrs. V. J. Fogle returned Monday night from Hot Springs, where she had been taking treatment the last six or seven weeks for rheumatism. She is much improved in health and can now walk without the aid of a cane or crutch. She will remain here for a few days' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Reeves, before returning to her home near Reno.

Jim Feagins returned last Saturday from Texas where he went on a cattle deal. He sold fifteen hundred head of Texas cattle to two Wyoming parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart of Denver came to Alliance the fore part of the week with a view to making this city their home. Mr. Stewart is a steam fitter and if he can secure employment here, he will remain.

Frederick H. Kauffold has been granted a patent on a corn shaker, cutter and harvester. The Herald will give further particulars of Mr. Kauffold's invention later.

Colorado Peaches, $1.00 per box, at Mallery's. Elbertas, $2.25 per bushel.

About midnight Sunday night the citizens of Alliance were awakened by the weird shrieking of a fire whistle which turned out to be a false alarm. A gasoline blaze at the Burlington lunch counter caused some excitable persons to turn in an alarm of fire, but by the time the fire department could get into action their services were not needed to extinguish the flame.

Miss Nell Hilliker of Fremont came to Alliance last week with her father, W. E. Hilliker, who came to attend the horse sales. Miss Hilliker visited friends over Sunday, being a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith. She departed for her home Tuesday night.

At the close of the morning service at the M. E. church last Sunday, J. B. Denton was taken with a fainting spell, due to heart trouble with which he has been afflicted for quite a number of years, although not as bad recently as formerly. Dr. Bellwood was called and administered restoratives, after which Mr. Denton was carried to his home on a stretcher. He felt bad from the effects of the attack for some time, but is able to be around again.

Ben Jordan, well known in Alliance as the official dog catcher, left Sunday night for Grand Island where he will make his home. Ben transacted business on the square and was well liked here, except by the dogs on which the tax was not paid. His familiar figure will be missed from Box Butte avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Thomas of Lingle, Wyo., had business in Alliance the latter part of last week and remained over Sunday visiting friends, of whom they have many in this city. They are very pleasantly situated on the Davista ranch near Lingle, where they will spend the summer. Lloyd had an opportunity to get into politics this summer, but declined on account of business matters. We understand that he was offered the republican nomination for state representative, which in that district would have meant an election, but did not seem to be ambitious to become a legislator.

Season tickets for the Alliance Chautauqua will be on sale at Holsten's for a few days yet. The Woman's Club lack a few of having disposed of the number guaranteed, and it is desired that all who wish to purchase do so as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Warrick of Meadow Grove, Neb., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Warrick from Friday until Wednesday. They went from here to Lincoln to attend the Epworth League Assembly. Monday they and Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Warrick formed an automobile party for a very pleasant trip to the North Platte valley. The two Messrs. Warrick are brothers.

Colorado Elberta Peaches, Bushel Baskets $2.25, at Mallery's.

Mrs. Jas. Collins of Spade, whose husband died about two weeks ago, was in Alliance last Friday with her brother-in-law, Edward Johnson, making arrangements to make final proof. Her husband had already advertised to make final proof but was taken suddenly ill and passed away before doing so.

J. E. Wheatly of Grand Junction, Colorado, who has quite a number of acquaintances in this city thru having sold Colorado apples here a few years ago, was here with a car load of Texas peaches last week. He retailed most of the load from the car but wishing to go from here to Ravenna, where he had a carload to sell, he disposed of the balance to J. J. Keenan, who is selling them to his customers.

Colorado Elberta Peaches, Bushel Baskets $2.25, at Mallery's.

Ray Pullman, who formerly clerked in the Watson & Watson store, came up on 43 Tuesday from the Pullman ranch in Sheridan county, returning on 44 the next day.

D. L. Wells, an experienced and successful vaudeville and moving picture man, has accepted the management of the Crystal Theater for F. A. Brown. Mr. Wells is a native Nebraskan, having spent his boyhood days in Omaha, but of late years has been in the East. He and Mrs. Wells came from New York recently. They have been in Alliance the last two or three weeks.

Was there ever such a time for daily newspaper readers? Everybody wants a daily paper now, and they want one that will give them the "straight" of everything going on. The State Journal is that sort of a paper, and to induce you to become a reader now makes the very low price of only $1.50 from now until January 1, 1913, for both the Daily and Sunday paper. Send your order and money now and the paper will start at once. It will stop on January 1st. Write to The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., or leave your order at The Herald office.

Mrs. Mary A. Edwards, who resides on her ranch in Sioux county north of Scottsbluff, came over to Alliance Monday for a visit with friends and to accompany her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Engel, of Tacoma, Wash., this far on her return with her little boy to their home. Mrs. Engel and son had been visiting about two months at the home of her mother.

Miss Eva Duncan returned home last week from a very pleasant visit with friends at Ft. Morgan, Colo.

Colorado Peaches, $1.00 per box, Mallery Grocery Co.

Parley F. Banks arrived in Alliance from Denver yesterday morning for a few days' visit with his parents on their ranch near Box Butte post office. Parley is a graduate of the Alliance High school, being a member of the class of '05. He is engaged now as a commercial man, Denver being his headquarters.

Miss Grace Hillis, whose home is in Aurora, arrived in Alliance Monday to visit with her friend, Miss Hazel Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Stern spent several days visiting at the home of the latter's parents seven miles northeast of Mitchell. Mr. Stern reports crop prospects good in that locality which is under the government ditch.

Mrs. L. E. Burton and daughter, Miss Vienna Cotton, who reside near Lingle, Wyoming, stopped over in Alliance yesterday forenoon on their return from an extended eastern tour, having visited in Boston, New York, Chicago and other points. They inform The Herald that crops are suffering for rain in New York, Ohio and Missouri. In the last named state corn will be short unless they get rain very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mann of Chadron arrived in Alliance yesterday for a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ed Ozman.

C. E. Byars, editor and publisher of the Valley, Nebraska, Enterprise, arrived in Alliance Sunday morning to join Mrs. Byars who had been visiting with her sister, Mrs. A. P. Brown. They remained until Tuesday and from here went to Hot Springs for a visit with Mrs. Byars' mother and other friends before returning home.

Mrs. Belle-Brown left last Tuesday night for an extended visit with relatives in Butte, Montana, and Sunny-side, Washington.

Mrs. Ida M. Ross has added to her piano business the agency for Singer sewing machines as a side line and has already sold several machines.

Mrs. Dr. Churchill was called to the bedside of her sister in Chicago last Sunday, who is critically ill at that place.

The Burns post office which is about twenty-five miles west of Alliance is to be discontinued. Lack of business is the cause for the discontinuing of this office. Although many people receive their mail there, most of them come to Alliance to mail their letters. All rural post offices depend upon cancellations as a means

READY FOR THE FRAY

State Convention Held, Platform Adopted, Committees Appointed

STATE LOOKS DEMOCRATIC

The republican and democratic state conventions were held on Tuesday of this week, the former at Lincoln and the latter at Grand Island. There was a split and a bolt at the republican convention as had been expected, but just what would be done at the democratic convention was more in doubt until the convention had been assembled.

We are delighted with the work of this year's Grand Island convention. A splendid platform was adopted. Hon. W. H. Thompson of Grand Island, the little giant of Nebraska democracy, was elected chairman of the state central committee, supported by a progressive committee representing all the state senatorial districts. Geo. M. Adams of Crawford is the committeeman for the district composed of Box Butte, Sioux, Dawes, Sheridan and Cherry counties, and Robert Graham of Alliance for the district south of us.

Rush of work prevents us from saying all that we wish to say to our readers in regard to the two state conventions and their work this week. We shall give a more extended review of the same in our next issue.

of revenue, and on account of much business coming to Alliance, but very little is transacted there. Those who have been getting their mail at Burns will be served at Hefshman.

H. H. Utterback, the Christian minister of Gering, will preach at the county court house this evening.

Geo. Petri of Angora was in Alliance, Monday. He made the collection of $500, the insurance money due him for the loss of a fine stallion some time ago.

A switch engine ran into 46 last Sunday night as it was entering the yards, and smashed a box car. 42 was delayed a few minutes by the accident.

L. E. Tash and Claude Vaughan returned Tuesday morning from Ft. Robinson where they had gone on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cogswell went to Chadron last Sunday.

Colorado Peaches, $1.00 per box, Mallery Grocery Co.

The wreck of freight train 46 near Grand Island last Sunday night delayed the west bound passenger train 41 the next day. Arthur Feagins and Chas. Petersen from south of Alliance had two cars of cattle in the wreck. A telegram to Jas. Feagins the next day informed him that the cattle that were not killed in the wreck were out on the prairie but that the two men escaped without serious injury.

A. T. Seybolt of Bridgeport, one of Morrill county's leading business men was in Alliance for a while yesterday and favored The Herald with a pleasant chat. He is an enthusiastic democrat and is well pleased with the prospects of a democratic success at the coming election.

Sheriff Cox left Sunday night for Lincoln with Thomas Cramer who plead guilty before Judge Westover, Friday, to robbing the Dierk's Lumber Company safe about three weeks ago. The Judge gave him an indeterminate sentence of from one to seven years in the penitentiary, to which place the Sheriff conducted him.

J. W. Kerns, stock solicitor of the Burlington for this section, informs The Herald that a special stock train will be run from Alliance commencing August 10, as will be seen by notice published in this issue, containing train schedule.

Last Monday night about nine o'clock Night Marshall Curtis was called to arrest Mrs. Gertrude Jackson, colored, wife of Tom Jackson. The complaint was made by Mr. Jackson who came to the police station with his face covered with blood. He said that his wife had struck him over the head with a beer bottle. Mrs. Johnson was then placed under arrest and arraigned before Police Judge Zurn, Tuesday morning. She plead guilty and was fined $50 and costs. Not being able to pay the fine, she was compelled to stay in jail. Jackson, after thinking the matter over, did not want to appear against his wife, but was informed by the Judge that if he did not appear, he would be held for contempt of court. The Judge says that he does not intend that any woman can beat up her husband without having to answer to the Law, but he does not say what would happen if the case were reversed.

Next Wednesday, August 7, is the day it begins. Don't forget it.

The ladies of the Alliance Woman's Club have done good work in putting on the first Alliance chautauqua. Now let the public do as well by giving ed to the platform endorsement of the proposed constitutional amendment providing for a board of commissioners of state institutions a recommendation that it be made operative under civil service regulations, a recommendation that will no doubt meet with popular approval.

L. E. Pilkington had the misfortune to lose a fine, blooded bull-dog last week. The dog was taken to the Firemen's tournament, and was on the car coming home. Near Bingham he jumped off the train. "Pilk" prizes the dog very highly and will appreciate any information regarding his whereabouts.

Mrs. M. Tolman of Stuart, Iowa, left Sunday morning for her home. She has been visiting in Alliance with her daughters, Mrs. Fred Brennan and Mrs. M. F. Nolan.

E. W. Ray left last week for Omaha where he will receive treatment for his eyes.

Earl Mallery went to Lincoln last Saturday night to attend the Republican state convention as a delegate from this county.

S. K. Warrick returned home last Friday from a short stay at Bridgeport and Minatare, where he went to look after the interest of the First National at those points.

Miss Evalyn McBurney returned to her home in Hemingford Monday. She had been attending the Junior Normal this summer.

The ball team at Ft. Robinson won two games from the Alliance team last Sunday afternoon. The scores were 11 to 6 and 10 to 3. Numerous errors on the part of the Alliance boys helped the Fort team considerably.

Prof. and Mrs. G. M. Burns and daughter Bessie visited their ranch near Marsland during the past week, going last Friday and returning Monday. They found things in good shape on the ranch, crops looking fine and everybody feeling encouraged.

L. H. Ball of Northport came up to Alliance yesterday for treatment for a sprained knee which he was suffering severely. The Herald is particularly interested in Mr. Ball on account of the valuable service rendered as Junior Normal correspondent. He received osteopathic treatment and secured a pair of crutches here, returning home today.

A dime, ice cream, lawn social was given last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ray, on Emerson avenue, by the Christian church. There was a good attendance. The evening's entertainment included a reading by Miss Agatha Gregg and music by the Young Men's Concert Orchestra.

C. K. Huntington, traveling insurance agent, has moved from Lincoln to Alliance and will make this city his headquarters. He and his daughter who are old acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson arrived Saturday, July 20. They have commenced house keeping in Mrs. Watkins' house, 831 Laramie avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Hamilton are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy who will make his home with them in the future. Mrs. Hamilton is at St. Josephs hospital.

H. H. Russell of Ellsworth was in Alliance Saturday for medical advice.

The Girls' Four Square Club will meet at the home of Miss Grace Johnston Friday p.m., at 3 o'clock.

Kenneth Naylor, son of Charles Naylor, county clerk of Dawes county, spent the last few days in Alliance visiting at the home of W. B. Young.

Mrs. F. W. Coursey of Topeka, Kans., who with her four children has been visiting in Alliance since the Monday before the Stockmen's convention, left on 44 today for her home. She is a sister-in-law of H. P. Coursey.

H. P. Coursey goes to Scottsbluff tomorrow to cry a stock sale on Saturday for his father, S. M. Coursey, who has sold his land and thinks of returning to Topeka, where he formerly resided.

Frank N. Hunt of Bridgeport was attending to business matters in Alliance today forenoon.

D. W. Reiman was operated on for appendicitis at St. Josephs hospital Tuesday morning and is reported to be getting along all right.

S. K. Warrick returned home last Friday from a short stay at Bridgeport and Minatare, where he went to look after the interest of the First National at those points.

Miss Evalyn McBurney returned to her home in Hemingford Monday. She had been attending the Junior Normal this summer.

E. H. Boyd and E. D. Mallery represented Box Butte county in the republican state convention this week. The other delegates from this county did not attend. Although not on the committee on resolutions, Mr. Mallery went before the committee and succeeded in getting attach-

SPECIAL STOCK TRAIN

Burlington Railroad Will Give Stockmen of This Section Improved Shipping Facilities

WILL BE MUCH APPRECIATED

In order to give the stock shippers better train service to the stock markets, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company will, effective August 10th, start a stock special train from Alliance on Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays of each week, and will remain in effect until about November 1st. Of course, if the trains are not patronized so as to give more than fifteen cars of stock for each train, the service will be discontinued. This service will enable the stockmen to reach the Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday market, whichever he prefers. The stock trains on these days will take care of shipments from Alliance proper, to and including Dunning.

FIRE BOYS RETURN

Nebraska Champions of Volunteer Firemen Welcomed Home with Cheers and Music

BRASS BAND GREET'S FIRE BOYS

The victorious Alliance firemen returned on 43 last Saturday and were met at the station by a large crowd of their enthusiastic admirers. The Alliance brass band was on hand to welcome them with strains of music. The boys made the trip in a Pullman car which was transferred at Grand Island from the Burlington to the Union Pacific. It was used as their headquarters and sleeping apartments while attending the state convention. While the Alliance boys won first in almost everything, the amount of money realized from the winnings paid less than one-half the expenses of the trip, as will be seen by the following statement:

Expenses
Tourist car .. $147 50
Fare for twenty .. 313 00
Board .. 124 00
Running suits and spikes .. 62 70
Transportation to grounds .. 16 50

Total .. $663 70
Amount won .. 275 00
Expenses in excess of .. $388 70

Following are the names of those who represented Alliance at the tournament: Lewis Larvee, Carl Spacht, W. I. McGowan, W. C. Highland, Chas. Pilger, F. E. Romig, Clarence Schafer, Geo.
